Hopeful Parenting David Jeremiah,2008 Discusses parenting in an unpredictable world drawing from the author s experiences as a father and offering wisdom and stories based on Christianity Wace, The Hagiographical Works Jean Blacker,Glyn S. Burgess,Amy Ogden,2013-06-06 Best known for his two chronicles the Roman de Brut and the Roman de Rou Wace one of the great pioneers of twelfth century French writing is also the author of three hagiographical works the Conception Nostre Dame and the Lives of St Margaret and St Nicholas The Conception is the first vernacular work to focus on the life of the Virgin Mary Emphasising Margaret s concern for women in labour the Margaret seemingly contributed to the saint s broad popularity The Nicholas with its many miracles involving children equally played a key role in popularising its protagonist s cult The present volume brings these works together for the first time and provides the original texts the first translations into English notes and substantial introductions Resources in Education ,1992 BRITANNICA JUNIOR ,1947 Designing Instruction for the Traditional, Adult, and Distance Learner: A New Engine for Technology-Based Teaching Tomei, Lawrence A.,2009-09-30 This book explores how technology impacts the process of devising instructional plans for adult students Provided by publisher The Condensed American Cyclopaedia George Ripley,Charles Anderson Dana,1877 Neptune's Laboratory Antony Adler,2019-11-19 An eyewitness to profound change affecting marine environments on the Newfoundland coast Antony Adler argues that the history of our relationship with the ocean lies as much in what we imagine as in what we discover We have long been fascinated with the oceans seeking to pierce the profundity of their depths In studying the history of marine science we also learn about ourselves Neptune s Laboratory explores the ways in which scientists politicians and the public have invoked ocean environments in imagining the fate of humanity and of the planet conjuring ideal world fantasies alongside fears of our species weakness and ultimate demise Oceans gained new prominence in the public imagination in the early nineteenth century as scientists plumbed the depths and marine fisheries were industrialized Concerns that fish stocks could be exhausted soon emerged In Europe these fears gave rise to internationalist aspirations as scientists sought to conduct research on an oceanwide scale and nations worked together to protect their fisheries The internationalist program for marine research waned during World War I only to be revived in the interwar period and again in the 1960s During the Cold War oceans were variously recast as battlefields post apocalyptic living spaces and utopian frontiers The ocean today has become a site of continuous observation and experiment as probes ride the ocean currents and autonomous and remotely operated vehicles peer into the abyss Embracing our fears fantasies and scientific investigations Antony Adler tells the story of our relationship with the seas Athenaeum and London Literary Chronicle ,1859 Codes of Ethics Jay Black,Ralph D. Barney,2003-07-30 Revisiting the topic of ethics codes in the media this special issue begins by tracing the first 50 years of code writing and code enforcement experiences of the Public Relations Society of America PRSA The second article shows how the 2000 Member Code of Ethics assumes professional standing for PRSA members emphasizes public relations advocacy role and stresses education rather than enforcement as the key to improving industry standards Next this special issue traces the evolution of the Israel Broadcasting Authority's IBA code of ethics through five permutations between 1972 and 1998 and analyzes how journalistic codes of ethics in the United States wrestle with the matter of leaks The Cases and Commentaries section explores the ethical ramifications of a public relations practitioner's decision about presenting a false front group of grassroots image as a part of a public relations campaign Finally two book reviews stimulate further thought about entertainment media ethics and ethics in cyberspace
