The Educator, 2007 Co-Designing Science in Africa UNESCO, 2019-06-28 Internationalisation of African Higher Education Chika Sehoole, Jane Knight, 2013-10-30 The role of higher education especially the international dimension is given little importance in the discourse on achieving the Millennium Development Goals MDGs in Africa This book aims to change that The potential of higher education s contribution to Africa s development remains unrealized and often misunderstood In today s globalised world which prioritises economic growth through liberalised trade and competitive market strategies much emphasis has been placed on higher education s ability to produce graduates to serve the labour market and produce new knowledge for the knowledge economy While these are important contributions the book argues that international higher education and new knowledge must go beyond economic purposes and serve the human and social development needs of the continent It is against this background that the African Network for the Internationalisation of Education ANIE undertook research on the international dimension of higher education in Africa and its role in the achievement of the MDGs Through empirical research seven case studies address how international and regional higher education programmes and policies in African universities can address MDG priorities of promoting gender equality and women s empowerment combating HIV AIDS and establishing global partnerships for development through academic mobility joint research initiatives curriculum innovation and policy development Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Taiwan Gunter Schubert, 2016-05-20 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Taiwan offers a comprehensive overview of both contemporary Taiwan and the Taiwan studies field Each contribution summarises the major findings in the field and highlights long term trends recent observations and possible future developments in Taiwan Written by an international team of experts the chapters included in the volume form an accessible and fascinating insight into contemporary Taiwan Up to date interdisciplinary and academically rigorous the Handbook will be of interest to students academics policymakers and others in search of reliable information on Taiwanese politics economics culture and society Health and Social Effects of Nonmedical Cannabis Use (The) World Health Organization, 2016-03-15 Cannabis is globally the most commonly used psychoactive substance under international control In 2013 an estimated 181.8 million people aged 15-64 years used cannabis for nonmedical purposes globally UNODC 2015 There is an increasing demand for treatment for cannabis use disorders and associated health conditions in high and middle income countries This report focuses on nonmedical use of cannabis building on contributions from a broad range of experts and researchers from different parts of the world It aims to present current knowledge on the impact of nonmedical cannabis use on health from its impact on brain development to its role in respiratory diseases The potential medical utility of cannabis including the pharmacology toxicology and possible therapeutic applications of the cannabis plant is outside the scope of this report Information Communication Technology (ICT) Integration to Educational Curricula Cosmas Uchenna Nwokefor, 2015-02-24 Information Communication Technology

ICT Integration to Educational Curricula serves as a standard textbook in graduate and senior level undergraduate classes in colleges and universities to contribute to the existing mass communication and ICT literature. The textbook offers a multi-discipline perspective to students of mass communication and information technology and avails them an opportunity to have a valid research tool with great details to pursue their research and class assignments. It provides an essential platform for appropriate literature in mass communication, political communication, and ICT details with relevance to its integration in Africa educational curricula. The book can also serve as a supplemental text for courses in mass media effects, politics, and political communications. It includes contributions by scholars and professionals of African extraction with varied research interests on diverse issues relevant to ICT and its significant impact to curricula development and application to Africa as the new African educational system. The chapters cover a wide array of mass communication, diffusion of innovation, and ICT issues of diverse importance that will guide students, government agencies, and professionals in following the imminent and evolving changes resulting from the integration of technology to educational curricula. Industry, University and Government Partnerships for the Sustainable Development of Knowledge-Based Society Waqas Nawaz, Muammer Koç, 2019-09-13. This book discusses the rapidly growing interest in economic diversification through partnerships between industry, university, and government (IUGP) with a focus on the economic diversification of the state of Qatar. It provides a comparative account of the knowledge ecosystem in the USA, Norway, Singapore, and Qatar and offers an evolutionary national economic transformational perspective on legislation, institutional, and cultural settings, intermediary structures, and support programs. Providing a broad overview of the knowledge ecosystems in these countries, it is suitable for readers at various learning levels. It also includes case studies and a concise comparison of the Global Innovation Index (GII) of the four countries and explores in detail the under-par comparative performance of Qatar, revealing that the country is still at the engagement level of IUGP. Further, it proposes evidence-based recommendations and strategies, making it a valuable resource for researchers, graduate students, and policymakers.

Dogmas in Literature and Literary Missionary: Text, Reader and Critique Önder Çakırtaş, 2023-10-17. Literature does have an aspect that drags the readers habitually burying them in its pages and blindly attaching them to itself. Blind devotion stems from the factors that are effective in determining the readers' faith. Theories of literature similarly might bring about the generation of blind adherence and dogmatic approaches. This book explores the existence of dogma in literature and some cult texts and writers and how dogmas in literature are conveyed to various audiences as a mission by some literary readers, experts, and academics. Generally, dogma is a word related mostly to religion. In this frame, Mathew Arnold's Dogma in Religion and Literature is of great importance as far as religion is concerned. However, there are dogmas in every field of literature, being no exception. Virginia Woolf, for instance, wrote stupendous works that turned out to be well known, and in 1928 she delivered a lecture at Cambridge University where women were once not allowed that formed the basis for the celebrated A Room of One's Own (1929). Roland Barthes (1967) La mort de l'auteur The Death of the Author essay might be another text that some of its literary readers have developed a dogmatic commitment to In addition to revealing how dogma finds its place in literature this book also discusses how literary writers and readers often unwittingly embrace literary missionary Focusing on the dogmatic elements of literature and the dogmatized literary theory and criticism through cult works of various authors the book offers a striking and interesting contribution to literary theory and criticism and literature readings Making Sense of Education in Post-Handover Hong Kong Thomas Kwan-Choi Tse, Michael H. Lee, 2016-11-10 Since 1997 when Hong Kong became a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China a string of education reforms have been introduced to improve the quality of education and maintain Hong Kong's economic competitiveness in the age of globalization This book provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of major issues and challenges faced by the education system ranging from pre school to higher education It analyses the prospects for educational development in Hong Kong It further addresses how the Hong Kong government has responded to the perceived challenges of the external environment and internal forces and explains the rationales for the actions taken Not only does it review how the reform initiative challenges have been dealt with it also reviews how effective these initiatives are and its implications on future directions Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations Narrating African FutureS Susan Arndt, Nadja Ofuatey-Alazard, 2020-06-29 This volume is dedicated to fictional negotiations of future or rather futureS After all future cannot but exist in a multitude of complementary and or competing futures all causally related to each other just as much as to their pasts and their respective memories Within this cyclical and causal triad of past present and future futureS have been made and unmade remembered and forgotten affirmed and subverted in the multiversity of competing agencies interests and accesses to power and privileges Thus framed African and African diasporic futureS have been done undone and redone over the centuries affecting and affected by planetary actions as ruled by global power constellations whilst being contemplated and moulded by fictional interventions in the process Literature and other cultural means of expression such as film fine arts performing arts and the internet are at the centre of this volume Employing FutureS as a critical category of analysis the book comprises perspectives from Europe Africa and the Middle East from academics activists and artists They all share their perspectives on African and African diasporic visions of futureS with an emphasis on dreaming and memory environmentalism and ethics freedom and resistance This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of the African Literature Association The Report: Kenya 2014 Oxford Business Group,2014-11-13 The country has a strong private sector and received encouraging forecasts of new oil gas and water reserves which if harnessed appropriately bode well for future growth While a pending international court case resulting from prior elections provoked a measure of uncertainty the country s medium to long term economic outlook is robust With over 40% of the population under the age of 15 Kenya stands to benefit from a significant demographic dividend provided that sufficient jobs can be found when this population bulge enters the workforce The country has a reasonably sized industrial base competitive infrastructure and a large agricultural sector all of which offer opportunities for capital intensive investment The

A post-separation Social Accounting Matrix for the Sudan Siddig, Khalid,Elagra, Samir,Grethe, Harald,Mubarak, Amel,2018-02-24 The 2012 Social Accounting Matrix SAM for the Sudan with a special focus on agriculture water and energy is built using data from domestic sources in the Sudan including the Central Bureau of Statistics the Ministry of Agriculture the Ministry of Finance and Economic Planning and the Central Bank of Sudan besides other external sources Major data sets used include the 2012 National Accounts and Trade Statistics of the CBS the 53rd Annual Report of the Central Bank of the Sudan the 2011 Labor Force Survey the 2009 Household Income and Expenditure Survey the 2009 2012 Agricultural Production Cost Survey and the 2005 Industrial Survey Data from external sources are used to complement national sources. These sources include IMF studies on government finances, FAO reports and data on agriculture and ILO reports on labor. The SAM distinguishes between agricultural activities based on modes of irrigation, energy based on its major source and water based on modes of production and types of uses. Land is divided into irrigated and non irrigated while natural water resources are added in a separate account. Households are categorized by state, location, rural and urban and income quintiles. Labor accounts are differentiated based on location, rural and urban, skill level and gender.

Decolonising Media and Communication Studies Education in Sub-Saharan Africa Selina Linda Mudavanhu, Shepherd Mpofo, Kezia Batisai, 2023-10-27. The book provides insights on decolonising media and communication studies education from diverse African scholars at different stages of their careers. These academics located on the continent and in the diaspora share an interest in decolonising higher education broadly and media and communication studies teaching and learning in particular. Although many African countries gained flag independence from different European colonial powers between the 1950s and the 1970s, this book argues that former colonies remain ensnared in a colonial power matrix. Many African universities did not jettison ways of teaching and learning established during colonialism and even those journalism, communication and media studies training programmes which were established after the attainment of flag independence did not place decolonial agendas at the front and centre when setting them up. Starting with big picture thematic questions around decolonisation, the book goes on to consider what the implications of change would be for students and instructors before reflecting on how far it is possible to decolonise curricula and syllabi and what this might look like in practice across a range of subject areas and country contexts. Overall, this book presents a nuanced picture of what a decolonised media and communication studies education could look like in sub-Saharan Africa. This book is essential for researchers in Africa in disciplines such as media and communication studies, journalism, film studies, cultural studies and higher education studies. More broadly, the concepts and ideas on decolonising teaching and learning discussed in the book are relevant to instructors in any discipline who are interested in doing the decolonial work of contesting coloniality.
