Some Like It Scot Pepper Basham, 2025-04-08 She lives her life on the fly His heart is double knotted to home Can two different souls create a life together Popular travel writer and podcaster Katie Campbell roams the world collecting other people's stories She's built a career as Miss Adventure known for saying yes to anything new country food or experience and predictably finding those adventures taking a downward turn into misadventures Offered the chance to explore her ancestral roots through a three week Edwardian experience Katie finds herself immersed in the beauty and eccentricity of Scotland In her period attire with traditional foods and activities the opportunities for misadventures are endless especially with the presence of a maniacal macaw a jealous co worker and an all too surly Scotsman Reclusive and protective Graeme MacKerrow doesn't venture far from his island home A stoic Scotsman Graeme's comfort zone has always been family and after his sister's death he's even more determined to save the MacKerrow ancestral home and keep those he loves close The sudden intrusion of a six foot one American lass famous for her traveling misfortunes was far from his plan As this world of folklore community and woodworkers in kilts tempts Katie to discover her own story could this one grand series of misadventures lead her directly to where she belongs And would a settled in Scot ever risk loosening his grip on what's familiar to allow a wanderlust writer a home in his heart How could their very different worlds share the same page of life's story when home is in two very different places But maybe home and the future isn't quite what either one imagined it would be Maybe home is less about a place and more about a person
