The Living Church, 1944 I'll Take You There Taiwo Iredele Odubiyi, Tundun is a good and Godly woman who grew up with a silver spoon in her mouth Tunde is also good and Godly but grew up playing with dirty tires and tubes because his father was an auto mechanic When he began to fall in love with Tundun he was certain he was in trouble Even though he was now a graduate he didn't think the relationship could work and he confessed to one of his friends that he and Tundun were like oil and water their backgrounds were very different However his friend thought that they were more like kerosene and matches There was a definite spark between them Well there's another saying about playing with fire Tunde responded It couldn't work he was sure How could he be her kind of man In this interesting and inspiring novel I'll Take You There you will learn how to succeed in life the factors to consider in choosing who to marry and how not to put your faith in the wisdom of men but in the power of God

Demystify Kate Lewis, 2006 This Is My Life Pamela Tumeka Koyana-Letlaka, 2014-11-26 This book is not about the political history of Apartheid South Africa it is about an extraordinary South African woman's life It depicts where she was born and chronicles her courageous journey into exile to Lesotho Zambia Zaire and Britain culminating with a diplomatic assignment in the United States of America This is where the politics of the day intersects with personal lives making us all more deeply appreciative of how profoundly the personal is political

In the Test of Time Gladys Robinson, 2009-06-12 Gloria's life and realities over shadowed emotions and beliefs Never understanding purpose in life caused entrapment and devastation She endeavored to advance in areas that she considered an improvement and quality of life She went into negative situations denying the facts Gloria wanted good and evil to blend There was no mistake about her behavior Her actions testified to what did or did not exist in her The desires in her had to be satisfied Those impulses could not come together equally in agreement each one served its own purpose One inclination was good and prosperous the other was bad and destructive The repercussions in life made her aware of choices she made which were either good or bad Becoming consumed by evil surroundings Gloria desperately needed an escape She found it and her life totally changed The acquaintances' desires habits emotions and lifestyle became different than ever imagined Negative thoughts accusations that change could not occur were found to be misleading Thoughts of Gloria never being able to change her surroundings were misleading Thoughts of everybody being the same and no way out were misleading Thoughts that people who hated her cared for her were misleading Thoughts that she could not succeed without the company she kept were misleading Choices are revealed In The Test of Time The Last Missionary Bob Walters,2020-10-21 The Last Missionary is a bicycle adventure story set in remote districts in eastern Democratic Republic of the Congo Bob Walters travels with a team of Congolese colleagues discovering the state of the villages run over by the Pan African war that devastated the region s people through the terror of rape and the killing of millions Along the way Bob offers the reader a number of short tutorials and reflections on missiology the study of mission systems He ponders patronage and cargo cults and asks the question Is Jesus the answer But this is not an answer book it is a book in search of better questions The Last Missionary is a challenge to both evangelicals and progressives in the church missionaries and mission volunteers and even non religious aid workers The Church Standard ,1897 The Church chronicle, a monthly record of Church life and Church work ,1869 Fire in My Bones Glenn Hinson,2010-11-24 Glenn Hinson focuses on a single gospel program and offers a major contribution to our understanding not just of gospel but of the nature of religious experience A key feature of African American performance is the layering of performative voices and the constant shifting of performative focus To capture this layering Hinson demonstrates how all the parts of the gospel program work together to shape a single whole joining speech and song performer and audience testimony prayer preaching and singing into a seamless and multifaceted service of worship Personal stories ground the discussion at every turn while experiential testimony fuels the unfolding arguments Fire in My Bones is an original exploration of experience and belief in a community of African American Christians but it is also an exploration of African American aesthetics the study of belief and the ethnographic enterprise St. Andrew's Cross ,1894 Blessed Minds Sarah Griffith Lund ,2025-03-24 Is your church truly welcoming to all of God s children Many churches are unintentionally exclusive toward people whose brains work differently Blessed Minds Breaking the Silence About Neurodiversity helps churches embrace the gifts of neurodiversity and become a place of belonging for all In this book you will learn What neurodiversity is and isn t How to create a neuroinclusive worship experience Practical tips for welcoming neurodivergent families Theological insights into neurodiversity as part of God s good creation Stories of neurodivergent ministers and their callings The Church Militant Graham R. Smith,2016-11-08 A worldview of spiritual warfare is widely held among charismatics and Pentecostals but it has been criticized for producing paranoia and denying personal responsibility It is less well known that the term was first used in print around 1970 by Anglican charismatics What did it mean to them then and what are the practical effects of their worldview Should we now be adopting a more sophisticated ontology of evil such as Nigel Wright s non ontological realist view or Amos Yong s apophatic theology of the demonic rather than the traditional one that Satan and demons are real ontological entities This practical theological study begins with a study of Anglican charismatic pioneers and an in depth case study of a charismatic Anglican congregation before grappling with the ontological question in dialogue with Wright together with Barth and Walter Wink Yong and

Gregory Boyd A fresh engagement with the biblical texts then argues for a positive realist ontology for rebellious demonic powers and presents a Trinitarian model of spiritual warfare praxis that emphasizes personal responsibility and promotes freedom from fear

Sapelo Island's Hog Hammock Michele Nicole Johnson, 2009 Hog Hammock located on Georgia's Sapelo Island is only accessible by ferry or private boat It is one of the last island based Gullah Geechee communities in America a living connection to West African languages folkways and spiritual traditions With its dirt roads and tin roofed houses Hog Hammock is the site of a social hall two historic Baptist churches and a former schoolhouse all built by descendants of slaves The nearby Behavior Cemetery has burial sites that date back 200 years Much has been written about the people of Hog Hammock and Sapelo Island mostly documenting their lives as slaves and then as landowning free people working for millionaires who reshaped Sapelo Island into their own personal retreats But there is another part of the island's story one filled with entrepreneurs skilled craftsmen and community leaders that is told here in Images of America Sapelo Island's Hog Hammock
