Journal of Qualitative Education ,2009-05 Tropical Agriculture ,2015-07 Harvest of research outcomes to confirm achievement of the millennium development goals Simeon O. Jekayinfa,2017-09-15 In 2000 the leaders of member states of the United Nations adopted the Millennium Declaration which set out a series of clear commitments goals and targets to achieve Human Development These ambitious goals were subsequently refined into eight Millennium Development Goals MDGs designed to provide a framework for accountability donor coordination and resource mobilization The MDGs are Eradicate extreme poverty and hunger achieve universal primary education promote gender equality and empower women reduce child mortality improve maternal health combat HIV AIDS malaria and other diseases ensure environmental sustainability and develop a global partnership for development The first seven of these Goals are concerned with outcomes identifying the progress towards certain standards of human well being and decent living which should be achieved globally and nationally by 2015 The eighth Goal is concerned with relationships identifying various aspects of a global partnership for development which must be forged to support the realization of these poverty reduction human development and environmental sustainability standards The MDGs provide opportunities to start working from real life development problems Addressing these problems requires multidisciplinary approaches that combine the natural sciences the life sciences and technical approaches with social science approaches The challenge is to integrate social economic political and institutional concerns into research strategy To be able to achieve this there is a need to establish a linking pin between research policy and practice in Nigeria The aim of such a linking pin would be to synthesize research outcomes on specific MDGrelated topics and to translate these into implications for policy and decision making through easily accessible gathering where individual stakeholders can air their views The articles contained in this book address research outcomes from stakeholders Sociologists Economists Agronomists Agricultural Engineers Civil Engineers Environmental Scientists and Engineers Geographers Geologists Microbiologists Medical Practitioners Policy Makers Educationists etc to confirm achievement of Millennium Development Goals in Nigeria and other neighboring countries Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1965 Lists citations with abstracts for aerospace related reports obtained from world wide sources and announces documents that have recently been entered into the NASA Scientific and Technical Information Database The School Journal ,1885 Advocacy and Objectivity ,2010-05-01 This award winning book of the Frederick Jackson Turner Studies describes the early development of social science professions in the United States Furner traces the academic process in economics sociology and political science She devotes considerable attention to economics in the 1880s when first generation professionals wrestled with the enormously difficult social questions associated with industrialization Controversies among economists reflected an endemic tension in social science between the necessity of being recognized as objective scientists and an intense desire to advocate reforms Molded by internal conflicts and external pressures social science gradually changed In the 1890s economics was defined more narrowly around market concerns Both reformers and students of social dynamics gravitated to the emerging discipline of sociology while political science professionalized around the important new field of public administration This division of social science into specialized disciplines was especially significant as progressivism opened paths to power and influence for social science experts Professionalization profoundly altered the role and contribution of social scientists in American life Since the late nineteenth century professionals have exerted increasing control over complex economic and social processes often performing services that they themselves have helped to make essential Furner here seeks to discover how emerging groups of American social scientists envisioned their role what rights and responsibilities they claimed how they hoped to perform a vital social function as they fulfilled their own ambitions and what restraints they recognized

Legislative Assembly,1976-03 STEM Education ,2024-05-29 This book examines Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics STEM education in different countries with a focus on recent developments and emerging trends STEM education has become a gateway for socio economic and technological development of nation states In light of this many countries have prioritized STEM education and made it an integral part of their education at all levels Moreover many approaches have been used to develop STEM education and teach students to compete with the fast developing world However despite its infinite benefits it is also important to note that there is inequality in the access and delivery of STEM education within and across countries which requires new approaches to improve STEM education and its teaching and learning Therefore this book consists of chapters on the development teaching and access of STEM education from different education levels countries and perspectives The chapters discuss the concept of STEM education in general or on a particular level of education g PreK 12 education vocational education and higher education or subjects such as mathematics computer science and architecture Moreover the book includes chapters based on the nexus of STEM education and other subjects including arts and culture to teaching STEM education The book contributes to understanding and improving STEM education and instruction globally The Bookworm ,2005 The Education of Diverse Student Populations Guofang Wan,2008-06-19 This book takes up the challenge of examining the thorniest educational issue from a global perspective It contributes to the evidence based conversation among policy makers educators and researchers around the world about what works to improve the education outcomes and what can make a bigger difference for the education of diverse students The eleven countries included the United Kingdom Austria Canada the United States South Africa Ghana China Singapore Malaysia Australia and New Zealand are unique and yet overlap in the sense that they all face similar challenges of teaching diverse students The authors being education and cultural insiders discuss country specific policies efforts and best practices in the education of diverse students share stories of success and failure and explore current best practices from global social political and economic perspectives Built on previous theories and research it describes diverse students experiences in the global and information age and searches for effective policies and practices that help these students to perform better in school and in life Readers are forced to step outside of their own experiences and commonly held beliefs about education Conscious recognition that there are other ways of doing things may result in new approaches that we have not explored before We hope the insights lessons and conclusions drawn from examining this pressing education issue from a global perspective will help nations to better understand and deal with it in their own educational system African Journal of Education Studies ,2005 Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh,2008-12-24
