Three Of Chinas Mighty Men:

Three of China's Mighty Men Leslie T. Lyall, 1980 Three of China's Mighty Men Leslie T. Lyall, 2000 There are many heroes in the Chinese church Today humanly speaking it should not exist having been stamped out by the pressure of authorities prior to and during the Communist era Yet today the church is larger than ever and still growing Some of this phenomenon can be attributed to the quality of leadership in the Church People suffered for their faith often in brutal and cruel ways yet God maintained their faith in remarkable ways Whilst there were many leaders of equally courageous stature in the church three men have stood out in the 20th century Wang Ming Dao Nee Duo Sheng Watchman Nee and Yang Shao Tang David Yang Leslie Lyall knew all three as a friend and worked with two of them He brings out their different personalities analyses the effect they had on the church and compares their views in some key areas All three worked outside the official church all three knew and respected each other Their stories are inspiring terrifying solemn and joyous They are an encouragement to us all

A History of Christian Conversion David W. Kling, 2020-05-05 Conversion has played a central role in the history of Christianity In this first in depth and wide ranging narrative history David Kling examines the dynamic of turning to the Christian faith by individuals families and people groups Global in reach the narrative progresses from early Christian beginnings in the Roman world to Christianity's expansion into Europe the Americas China India and Africa Conversion is often associated with a particular strand of modern Christianity evangelical and a particular type of experience sudden overwhelming However when examined over two millennia it emerges as a phenomenon far more complex than any one dimensional profile would suggest No single unitary paradigm defines conversion and no easily explicable process accounts for why people convert to Christianity Rather a multiplicity of factors historical personal social geographical theological psychological and cultural shape the converting process A History of Christian Conversion not only narrates the conversions of select individuals and peoples it also engages current theories and models to explain conversion and examines recurring themes in the conversion process divine presence gender and the body agency and motivation testimony and memory group and self identity authentic and nominal conversion and modes of communication Accessible to scholars students and those with a general interest in conversion Kling's book is the most satisfying and comprehensive account of conversion in Christian history to date this major work will become a standard must read in conversion studies

Following Christ and Confucius Christopher Payk, 2024-03-15 The first full length critical biography and theological analysis of Wang Mingdao the spiritual father of China's House Church Movement One of the most influential figures in Chinese Christianity church leader and evangelist Wang Mingdao rejected state control of religion in favor of the religious freedom of the unregistered House Churches a choice that made him a frequent target of government persecution In this thorough new biography scholar Christopher Payk traces Wang's life and Christian development through the sociopolitical tumult of twentieth century China Drawing on unpublished sermons journals and additional sources in English and Chinese

Payk argues persuasively that Wang's theology while largely based on Christian scripture was shaped by Confucian tradition, reason and personal experience. Following Christ and Confucius brings new clarity to Wang's uncompromising faith and lasting impact. Missionary Primitivism and Chinese Modernity David Woodbridge, 2018-11-23

In Missionary Primitivism and Chinese Modernity the Brethren in Twentieth Century China David Woodbridge offers an account of a little known Protestant missionary group. Often depicted as extreme and marginal, the Brethren were in fact an influential force within modern evangelicalism. They sought to recreate the life of the primitive church and to replicate the simplicity and dynamism of its missionary work. Using newly released archive material, Woodbridge examines the activities of Brethren missionaries in diverse locations across China, from the cosmopolitan treaty ports to the Mongolian and Tibetan frontiers. The book presents a fascinating encounter between primitivist missionaries and a modernising China and reveals the important role of the Brethren in the development of Chinese Christianity. 中国基督教传教史, 2022-01-31 90 2002 Christianity in China Daniel H. Bays, 1996 This pathbreaking volume will force a reassessment of many common assumptions about the relationship between Christianity and modern China. The overall thrust of the twenty essays is that despite the conflicts and tension that often have characterized relations between Christianity and China, in fact Christianity has been for the past two centuries or more putting down roots within Chinese society and it is still in the process of doing so. Thus Christianity is here interpreted not just as a Western religion that imposed itself on China but one that was becoming a Chinese religion as Buddhism did centuries ago. Eschewing the usual focus on foreign missionaries as is customary, this research effort is China centered, drawing on Chinese sources including government and organizational documents, private papers and interviews. The essays are organized into four major sections: Christianity's role in Qing society including local conflicts 6 essays; ethnicity 3 essays; women 5 essays; and indigenization of the Christian effort 6 essays. The editor has provided sectional introductions to highlight the major themes in each section as well as a general Introduction. Seeking the Common Ground Philip L.

Wickeri, 2011-08-05 This is the most comprehensive treatment ever written of the history of the Protestant Church in China over the last forty years. Philip Wickeri takes an unprecedented look at one of the most turbulent periods in Chinese history, the years from 1949 to the present. Wickeri explicates what Chinese Protestants have been saying about themselves in historical and theological perspective. His interpretation is based on one particular dynamic: how Chinese Protestants have sought to situate themselves in a socialist society within the unifying framework of the united front. After an overview of church, Marxism and Christianity in China, Wickeri discusses the united front. He focuses on ideology, organization and religious policy. Wickeri then explores the Three Self Movement as both a Chinese and a Christian movement. His conclusion: the Three Self Movement, despite problems, has made Christianity more accessible to the average Chinese and the church more acceptable to Chinese society. Brother Bakht Singh B. E. Bharathi Nuthalapati, 2017-03-14 Brother Bakht Singh

Chabra, a Sikh convert, was one of the foremost evangelists and Bible teachers in India. Bakht Singh was well known as a pioneer in gospel contextualization and a proponent of indigenous Indian churches The movement and assemblies he established were often viewed as splinter groups from mainstream churches and many considered his teachings and theology as negatively syncretic In this publication Dr Bharathi Nuthalapati establishes that Bakht Singh s theology was rooted in the Indian spirituality of experience through personal relationship and devotion to God or Bhakti Brother Singh Christianized Bhakti and in his hands Bhakti became a Christian idiom The author also analyzes how pre Christian Sikh elements persisted in Bakht Singh s movement while remaining theologically orthodox as well as how various aspects of Indian religiosity and biblical and western Christianity were adopted rejected reinterpreted or revolutionized in his movement 000000 000, 18

Darkest before the Dawn Richard R. Cook,2021-11-02 The Christian church was always destined to find its way to China Long before the birth of the church China existed coalescing around profound philosophical concepts and powerful cultural symbols It developed into a dynamic and enduring civilization In time Christian missionaries arrived on its shores driven to bring the gospel to this people This book starts with the story of that journey the arrival of the missionaries who planted the seeds of the gospel in Chinese soil As the seeds sprouted and grew a new story of a unique and distinct Chinese church began The epic narrative opens from uncertain beginnings in darkness passes through intense hardship and years of struggle and culminates with the triumphal emergence of the Chinese church from the shadows into the light of the global stage Understanding Watchman Nee Dongsheng John Wu,2012-04-01 This book situates Nee s view within the rich heritage of the Protestant Catholic and Eastern Orthodox spiritual traditions and thus renders Nee s thought more intelligible to Christians of both evangelical and more liberal persuasions In this book Dongsheng John Wu examines Watchman Nee s thought on the spiritual life focusing on the relationship between spiritual formation and spiritual knowledge Different ways of acquiring spiritual understanding are explored including the respective roles of divine illumination intellectual studies and life circumstances Understanding Watchman Nee begins by synthesizing strategic aspects of Nee s teachings as well as formative events and sources in the development of Nee s own spirituality and theology It then utilizes the critical work of contemporary theologian Mark McIntosh to bring Nee s voice into dialogue with some important figures in the history of Christian spirituality Such interactions reveal that Nee s crucial theological convictions exhibit strong parallels with related themes found in the church s spiritual or mystical treasures Development of Chinese Church Leaders Otto

Lui,2013-06-14 Confucianism and its influence on culture in East Asia has profoundly impacted Chinese churches and the development of their leaders As a cultural force it continues to affect the perceptions and practices of Chinese pastors and how they lead This work seeks to build an indigenous approach to developing church leaders by understanding the theoretical and the situational foundations of relational leadership from both cultural and biblical perspectives The research is further enriched through case studies and interviews observing the practices of leadership in contemporary Chinese churches Modern Chinese Theologies Chloë Starr,2023-10-31 The majority of Christians in China over the course of the last century have worshipped not in missionary founded churches or in congregations affiliated with the contemporary Three Self Patriotic Movement or Chinese Catholic Patriotic Association but in independent and unregistered churches often labeled house churches From the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements within the mission church landscape of the early twentieth century to the Calvinist Reformed movement in the present day Protestant church the vibrant faith life and extraordinary church growth of this sector of Chinese Christianity offer a fascinating witness and lesson to the world church Yet despite the size of their congregations and the spread of their teachings the theologies of these independent and unregistered churches have drawn much less academic attention than those of mission church or state church theologians This volume presents a selection of new studies on house church theologians and theologies These begin in the early twentieth century with studies of the Spiritual Gifts movement in Shandong and the nature of Pentecostalism in Hong Kong and arrive in the present with essays on the changing role of women s leadership in the church given the spread of Reformed thought and the theological implications of Westminsterian Neo Calvinism in China The second section of the volume is devoted to the theological writings and lives of the two most prominent independent church figures of the twentieth century Wang Mingdao and Ni Tuosheng Watchman Nee These chapters include studies of spiritual theology of Ni s doctrine of humanity his views on salvation and his prison letters and of Wang Mingdao s life and moral thought his Confucian beliefs and his understanding of the relationship of Christians to the state The third section of the volume foregrounds church voices like the fundamentalist Samuel Lamb and the mediating figure Yang Shaotang and considers local developments in Roman Catholicism in light of Vatican reforms
