A Local Church Planning Guide

The New Testament honors vocational ministry as one of God's highest callings. First Thessalonians 5:13-14 asks church members "to respect those who work hard among you, who are over you in the Lord and who admonish you. Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work." Ephesians 4:11-12 says God gave the Church pastors and other ministry leaders "to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up." Pastors are God's gifts to His people and are worthy of recognition for their willing and faithful service.

Pastor Appreciation Sunday is an opportunity for local congregations to give thanks to God for their pastors. It is a time to demonstrate to their pastor's genuine appreciation for their service. It is a time to esteem the role of the vocational Christian ministers who provide churches with spiritual direction. It is a time to stress the need for others to answer God's call to full-time ministry.

When the Apostle Paul remembered with joy the people in the church at Philippi, he spoke of their "partnership in the gospel (Philippians 1:5)." Ministry is a partnership of ministers and lay people—each helping the other to be effective in witness and work for Christ. The church cannot function effectively unless both do their part to build up each other. When churches honor their pastor, they strengthen the team God has put together to serve Him in their community. By showing appreciation they return some of the love, concern and ministry their pastor has given to them.

Planning a Pastor Appreciation Sunday should be a joy. Form a committee, divide the work, and you'll have a great day.

Included in this planning guide are suggestions and ideas for arranging an impressive and inspiring program. You will not find a rigid outline here. The purpose of this planning guide is simply to start your own creative juices flowing. Adapt what you read and tailor it to your local situation. Use your imagination and do things that will genuinely honor those God has called to lead ministry in your church.
