This Precious Life:

This Precious Life Khandro, 2005-02-15 Using the traditional Tibetan Buddhist framework of the Four Reminders the preciousness of human birth the truth of impermanence the reality of suffering and the inescapability of karma Khandro Rinpoche explains why and how we could all better use this short life to pursue a spiritual path and make the world a better place The book includes contemplative exercises that encourage us to appreciate the tremendous potential of the human body and mind

Wild and Precious Life Deborah Ziegler, 2017-09-19 Written by Deborah Ziegler the mother of Brittany Maynard a twenty nine year old woman with a terminal brain tumor this touching and beautiful memoir captures and celebrates her daughter's spirit and the mostly untold story of Brittany's last year of life as she chose her right to die with dignity a journey that inspired millions Brittany's story will have a ready audience and Deborah's frank account of their struggles will be comforting to others facing this difficult decision Booklist In this poignant powerful book Deborah Ziegler makes good on the promise she made to her only child that she would honor her daughter and carry forward her legacy by sharing their story and offering hope empowerment and inspiration to the growing tens of millions of people who are struggling with end of life issues

Buddhism for Busy People David Michie, 2017-05-16 In this simple and accessible but beautifully written book David Michie opens the door to the core teachings of Tibetan Buddhism and shows us how he himself first began incorporating Buddhist practices into his daily life What does it take to be happy We've all asked ourselves this question at some point but few of us have found the path to lasting fulfillment David Michie thought he had achieved his life's goals the high level job the expensive city apartment the luxury car the great vacations but a small voice was telling him he wasn't really happy A chance remark from a naturopath sent him to his local Buddhist center There he began the most important journey of his life In Buddhism for Busy People Michie explains how he came to understand the difference between the temporary pleasures of ordinary life and the profound sense of well being and heartfelt serenity that comes from connecting with our inner nature

The Nectar of Bodhicitta Lama Zopa Rinpoche, 2021-09-12 LYWA director Nick Ribush writes The story behind this book is that in the early Kopan Monastery courses Lama Zopa Rinpoche would start his day's teachings by quoting a verse from Shantideva's or Khunu Lama Rinpoche's seminal texts giving a short teaching on it and then suggesting that students use it to generate a bodhicitta motivation for the day's activities mainly teachings meditations and discussion groups but also ordinary activities such as eating talking walking around and so forth Since those days I've always thought that a compilation of these short teachings would make a great book and finally here it is Editor Gordon McDougall has assembled Rinpoche's teachings into two parts sorted by author of the verses and arranged thematically In Part One Lama Zopa Rinpoche teaches on selected verses from Khunu Lama Rinpoche's Jewel Lamp now published as Vast as the Heavens Deep as the Sea Lama Zopa Rinpoche advises Understanding and constantly reminding ourselves of the skies of benefits that bodhicitta brings is unbelievably worthwhile This is the overall purpose of Khunu Lama

Rinpoche's book to cause us to feel inspired and joyful that such a mind is possible In Part Two Rinpoche teaches on verses from the first chapter of Shantideva's Guide to the Bodhisattva's Way of Life These verses describe the amazing benefits of developing the precious mind of bodhicitta the supreme cause of happiness for all sentient beings

Women and Buddhist Philosophy Jin Y. Park, 2017-02-28 Why and how do women engage with Buddhism and philosophy The present volume aims to answer these questions by examining the life and philosophy of a Korean Zen Buddhist nun Kim Iry p 1896 1971 The daughter of a pastor Iry p began questioning Christian doctrine as a teenager In a few years she became increasingly involved in women's movements in Korea speaking against society's control of female sexuality and demanding sexual freedom and free divorce for women While in her late twenties an existential turn in her thinking led Iry p to Buddhism she eventually joined a monastery and went on to become a leading figure in the female monastic community until her death After taking the tonsure Iry p followed the advice of her teacher and stopped publishing for more than two decades She returned to the world of letters in her sixties using her strong distinctive voice to address fundamental questions on the scope of identity the meaning of being human and the value of existence In her writing she frequently adopted an autobiographical style that combined her experiences with Buddhist teachings Through a close analysis of Iry p's story Buddhist philosophy and practice in connection with East Asian new women's movements and continental philosophy this volume offers a creative interpretation of Buddhism as both a philosophy and a religion actively engaged with lives as they are lived It presents a fascinating narrative on how women connect with the world whether through social issues such as gender inequality a Buddhist worldview or existential debates on human existence and provides readers with a new way of philosophizing that is transformative and deeply connected with everyday life Women and Buddhist Philosophy Engaging Zen Master Kim Iry p will be of primary interest to scholars and students of Buddhism Buddhist and comparative philosophy and gender and Korean studies

Peaceful Death, Joyful Rebirth Tulku Thondup, 2006-12-12 The author of The Healing Power of Mind draws on Buddhist scripture firsthand

accounts and other sources to present an overview of Tibetan Buddhist teachings on facing death with openness and insight Buddhism teaches that death can be a springboard to enlightenment yet for all but the most advanced meditators it will be the gateway to countless future lives of suffering in samsara Tulku Thondup wrote this guide to help us heal our fear and confusion about death and strengthen our practice in anticipation of this transition and to help us realize the enlightened goal of ultimate peace and joy not only for death and rebirth but for this very lifetime In simple language he distills a vast range of sources including scriptures classic commentaries oral teachings and firsthand accounts The book includes An overview of the dying process the after death bardo states and teachings on why where and how we take rebirth Accounts by Tibetan near death experiencers delogs who returned from death with amazing reports of their visions Ways to train our minds during life so that at death all the phenomena before us will arise as a world of peace joy and enlightenment Simple meditations prayers and rituals to benefit the dead and dying Advice for caregivers helpers and survivors of the dying By becoming intimate with this practice while we re alive we can alleviate our fear of death improve our appreciation of this life and prepare for death in a very practical way while planting the seeds for rebirth in the Pure Land

The Complete Works of Charles Sumner Charles Sumner, 2020-09-28 The speeches of Charles Sumner have many titles to endure in the memory of mankind They contain the reasons on which the American people acted in taking the successive steps in the revolution which overthrew slavery and made of a race of slaves freemen citizens voters They have a high place in literature They are not only full of historical learning set forth in an attractive way but each of the more important of them was itself an historical event They afford a picture of a noble public character They are an example of the application of the loftiest morality to the conduct of the State They are an arsenal of weapons ready for the friends of Freedom in all the great battles when she may be in peril hereafter They will not be forgotten unless the world shall attain to such height of virtue that no stimulant to virtue shall be needed or to a depth of baseness from which no stimulant can arouse it Mr Sumner held the office of Justice of the Peace and that of Commissioner of the Circuit Court to which he was appointed by his friend and teacher Judge Story He was a member of the convention held in 1853 to revise the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts With these exceptions his only official service was as Senator in Congress from Massachusetts from the 4th of March 1851 when he was just past forty years of age until his death March 9 1874 If his career could have been predicted in his earliest childhood he could have had no better training for his great duties than that he in fact received He was one of the best scholars in the public Latin School in Boston He received the Franklin medal from the hands of Daniel Webster who told him that the state had a pledge of him His school life was followed by four years in Harvard College and a course at the Harvard Law School where he was the favorite pupil of Judge Story He was an eager student of the Greek and Roman classics But his special delight was in history and international law After his admission to the bar he was reporter of the decisions of his beloved master and edited twenty volumes of the equity reports of Vesey Jr which he enriched with copious and learned notes A little later when he was twenty six years old he spent a month in Washington tarrying a short time in New York on his way In that brief period he made life long friendships with some famous men including Chancellor Kent Judge Marshall and Francis Lieber He had a rare gift for making friendships with men especially with great men and with women With him in those days an acquaintance with any person worth knowing soon ripened into an indissoluble friendship A few years later he spent a little more than two years in Europe coming home when he was just past twenty nine years old That time was spent in attending courts lectures of eminent professors and in society No house which he desired to enter seems to have been closed to him Statesmen judges scholars beautiful women leaders of fashionable society welcomed to the closest intimacy this young American of humble birth with no passport other than his own character and attainment It is hardly too much to say that the youth of twenty nine had a larger and more brilliant circle of friendship than any other man on either continent The list of his friends and correspondents would fill many pages He says in a letter to Judge Story what would seem like boasting in other men but with him was modest and far within the truth I have a thousand things to say to you about the law circuit life and the English judges I have seen more of all than probably ever fell to the lot of a foreigner I have had the friendship and confidence of judges and of the leaders of the bar Not a day passes without my being five or six hours in company with men of this stamp My tour is no vulgar holiday affair merely to spend money and to get the fashions It is to see men institutions and laws and if it would not seem vain in me I would venture to say that I have not discredited my country I have called the attention of the judges and the profession to the state of the law in our country and have shown them by my conversation I will say this that I understand their jurisprudence
