Academic and Occupational English Needs of Tourism and

Hotel Management Students. Oral Communication Skills in Focus Yeneneh Wubetu, 2023-03-01 Master's Thesis from the year 2017 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Pedagogy Literature Studies grade 3 97 on a 4 0 scale Haramaya University School of Foreign Languages and Journalism course Teaching English as a Foreign Language language English abstract The purpose of this study was to identify the oral communication skills that Tourism and Hotel Management students THMS at Haramaya University need for their academic and career purposes Particularly this study aimed to assess the value of specific oral communication skills within occupational contexts identify oral communication problems of THMS and explore the communicative events that arise during oral interactions To attain the objectives this research employed cross sectional survey design and explanatory method for data analysis The practitioners questionnaire was distributed to 110 tourism and hospitality guest facing practitioners and THMS n 70 filled in THMS questionnaire A semi structured interview was conducted with 3 subject area lecturers The quantitative data were processed by using SPSS 20 while the qualitative ones were coded based on semantic affinity for analysis The study revealed that listening skills such as comprehending colloquial and idiomatic expressions understanding guests multifarious English accents recognizing meaning shift because of change in intonation and stress are worthwhile for THMS prospective careers in tourism and hospitality sector Effective communication with guests on the phone clear and direct speech interpretation without meaning distortion and appropriate responses to guests requests and complaints were found to be equally important speaking skills Similarly eye contact facial expressions gesture tone and pitch volume were found to be the salient non verbal communication behaviors that should comply with the communicative contexts during oral interactions. The research indicated that most THMS lacked spoken production skills spoken interaction skills and nonverbal communication skills It also showed that the communicative events that arise during oral communication in occupational and academic contexts require THMS to have good command of oral proficiency Therefore it can be concluded that THMS current oral proficiency may adversely affect their academic performance and employability skills Based on the findings the researcher recommends oral communication trainings that can enhance THMS academic involvements and employability skills and the inclusion of oral communication courses in THM curriculum for prospective use Tourist Health, Safety and Wellbeing in the New Normal Jeff Wilks, Donna Pendergast, Peter A. Leggat, Damian Morgan, 2021-11-29 The COVID 19 pandemic has changed the face of international and domestic tourism and sharply focused attention on the importance of tourist health safety and wellbeing like never before This book offers a unique perspective on the challenges facing the world's largest service industry to protect and care for customers in a rapidly evolving environment where borders have closed social distancing rules apply and personal hygiene has become a key focus in everyday life Yet tourism is a very resilient industry and history shows there is always an immediate surge toward recovery after a crisis has passed Humans want to travel and see the world While we appreciate that the pandemic is far from over already there are reports of pent up demand for travel as restrictions ease at some destinations and borders begin to open As we move hopefully toward the recovery phase and people begin to move around for business and pleasure this book presents the reader with key information and insights in both traditional and emerging areas of tourist health safety and wellbeing recognising that the world is now shaped by this pandemic bringing change potentially enduring benefits and lasting legacies Resources in Education ,1988 English Language Arts, Grade 12 Module 1 PCG Education, 2015-11-05 Paths to College and Career Jossey Bass and PCG Education are proud to bring the Paths to College and Career English Language Arts ELA curriculum and professional development resources for grades 6 12 to educators across the country Originally developed for EngageNY and written with a focus on the shifts in instructional practice and student experiences the standards require Paths to College and Career includes daily lesson plans guiding
