Cataloging Collaborations and Partnerships Rebecca L. Mugridge, 2016-03-16 Cataloging Collaborations and Partnerships provides the reader with many examples of successful methods in which libraries have collaborated with each other to achieve common goals Addressing a variety of cataloging and managerial challenges in national public academic and international libraries and other organizations it will be enlightening to readers who are investigating new ways of meeting their patrons needs The collaborative efforts described in this book fall into a number of broad categories cooperative cataloging and authority initiatives cataloging partnerships merging and migrating online catalogs development of training and documentation and collaborative approaches to special projects Included are four chapters that address collaborative projects in Europe the West Indies the Galapagos Islands and South Sudan Catalogers managers and administrators will find inspiration in these important and in some cases historic collaborations They will understand how collaborations and partnerships in cataloging will help them achieve more by sharing resources and expertise sharing the burden of new projects and initiatives and fostering innovation and new ways of thinking This book was published as a triple special issue of Cataloging and Classification Quarterly Partisans and Partners Josh Pacewicz,2016-11-18 There s no question that Americans are bitterly divided by politics But in Partisans and Partners Josh Pacewicz finds that our traditional understanding of red blue right left urban rural division is too simplistic Wheels down in Iowa that most important of primary states Pacewicz looks to two cities one traditionally Democratic the other traditionally Republican and finds that younger voters are rejecting older timers strict political affiliations A paradox is emerging as the dividing lines between America s political parties have sharpened Americans are at the same time growing distrustful of traditional party politics in favor of becoming apolitical or embracing outside the beltway candidates Pacewicz sees this change coming not from politicians and voters but from the fundamental reorganization of the community institutions in which political parties have traditionally been rooted Weaving together major themes in American political history including globalization the decline of organized labor loss of locally owned industries uneven economic development and the emergence of grassroots populist movements Partisans and Partners is a timely and comprehensive analysis of American politics as it happens on the ground
