The Smell Culture Reader Jim Drobnick, 2024-11-01 Smell is fundamental to experience but mired in paradox Stigmatized as animalistic it nonetheless feeds a vast fragrance and marketing industry Considered ephemeral scents have survived throughout the ages in a number of religious practices The Smell Culture Reader provides a much needed overview of what is arguably the most elusive sense From hygiene to aromatherapy the fetid to the fragrant smells are shown to be much more than just an adornment or a nuisance Addressing this engaging sense in redolent detail The Smell Culture Reader demonstrates how essential smell is to sexuality social status personal identity and cultural tradition

Enjoying the Operatic Voice: A Neuropsychanalytic Exploration of the Operatic Reception Experience Carlo Zuccarini, 2019-03-30 There has been a long standing and mutually informing association between psychoanalysis literature and the arts Surprisingly given the oral aural basis of the talking cure music has largely been overlooked by psychoanalysis Notably neuroscientific research investigating music reception and production has been steadily increasing in range and scope over the years However in order to avoid confounding factors empirical studies have focused primarily on non vocal music Remarkably operatic vocal music has not featured prominently in either field Yet the multi dimensional multi layered nature of opera which fuses together a number of different arts would appear to provide fertile soil for both disciplines This book aims to fill that gap providing a stepping stone for further research It leverages the individual strengths of psychoanalysis and neuroscience both separately and jointly as the inter discipline of neuropsychanalysis By combining various theories of mind with knowledge about music processing in the brain this book comprehensively examines the operatic reception experience providing an account in subjective as well as objective terms It explores the bittersweet enjoyment of operatic vocal music which can literally move an operaphile to tears The explanation for this may be found in a number of subjective dynamics that are unique to the reception of opera rather than in any distinct objective neural processes which are common to the reception of all music These subjective dynamics which are recruited during neural processing are triggered by the equally unique features of the operatic voice in combination with a number of auxiliary elements that are specific to opera This book will be of interest to academics in a broad range of science and arts disciplines related to music perception and performance such as music psychology and operatic performance It may also appeal to passionate operaphiles who wish to understand what drives their addiction

The Hysteric's Revenge Rachel Mesch, 2006 Brings into relief a critical relationship between the female mind and body that is essential to understanding the discursive position of the turn of the century woman writer This book includes novels that confront this mind body problem through a wide variety of styles and genres that challenge conventional fin de siecle notions of femininity

Readers and Reading Andrew Bennett, 2014-07-15 Much literary criticism focuses on literary producers and their products but an important part of such work considers the end user the reader It asks such questions as how far can the author condition the response of the reader and how much does the reader create the meaning of a text Dr Bennett s collection includes important essays from such writers and critics as Wolfgang Iser Mary Jacobus Roger Chartier Michel de Certeau Shoshana Felman Maurice Blanchot Paul de Man and Yves Bonnefoy It looks in turn at deconstructionist feminist new historicist and psychoanalytical response to the school The book then considers the act of reading itself discussing such issues as the uniqueness of any reading and the difficulties involved in its analysis

The Problem with Pleasure Laura Frost, 2013-07-09 Aldous Huxley decried the horrors of modern pleasure or the proliferation of mass produced widely accessible entertainment that could degrade or dull the mind He and his contemporaries including James Joyce T S Eliot Gertrude Stein D H Lawrence and Jean Rhys sought to radically redefine pleasure constructing arduous and indirect paths to delight through their notoriously daunting work Laura Frost follows these experiments in the art of unpleasure connecting modernism s signature characteristics such as irony allusiveness and obscurity to an ambitious attempt to reconfigure bliss In The Problem with Pleasure Frost draws upon a wide variety of materials linking interwar amusements such as the talkies romance novels the Parisian fragrance Chanel no 5 and the exotic confection Turkish Delight to the artistic play of Joyce Lawrence Stein Rhys and others She considers pop cultural phenomena and the rise of celebrities such as Rudolph Valentino and Gypsy Rose Lee against contemporary sociological scientific and philosophical writings on leisure and desire Throughout her study Frost incorporates recent scholarship on material and visual culture and vernacular modernism recasting the period s high low elite popular divides and formal strategies as efforts to regulate sensual and cerebral experience Capturing the challenging tensions between these artists commitment to innovation and the stimulating amusements they denounced yet deployed in their writing Frost calls attention to the central role of pleasure in shaping interwar culture

Dark Eden David Miller, 1989 An important though little understood aspect of the response of nineteenth century Americans to nature is the widespread interest in the scenery of swamps jungles and other wastelands Dark Eden focuses on this developing interest in order to redefine cultural values during a transformative period of American history Professor Miller shows how for many Americans in the period around the Civil War nature came to be regarded less as a source of high moral insight and more as a sanctuary from an ever more urbanised and technological environment In the swamps and jungles of the South a whole range of writers and artists found a set of strange and exotic images by which to explore changing social realities of the times and the deep seated personal pressures that accompanied them

Il Don Gioavnni Lorenzo Da Ponte, 1860 Il Don Giovanni. Don Juan: a Grand Serious Opera, in Two Acts ... Performed at Her Majesty's Theatre, Haymarket. Authorized Edition, 1820

Senses Regina Bendix, Donald Brenneis, 2005 The essays in this volume present deeply contextualized cases of sensory experience They link senses to each other and to event sentiment emplacement identity and the ongoing shaping of social life In doing so they make a strong Joint case for the importance of taking the senses seriously not in isolation but as integral elements of culture and interaction The Plague of Fantasies Slavoj Zizek,2020-05-05 Modern audiovisual media have spawned a plague of fantasies electronically inspired phantasms that cloud the ability to reason and prevent a true understanding of a world increasingly dominated by abstractions whether those of digital technology or the speculative market Into this arena enters Zizek equipped with an agile wit and the skills of a prodigious scholar he confidently ranges among a dazzling array of cultural references explicating Robert Schumann as deftly as he does John Carpenter to demonstrate how the modern condition blinds us to the ideological basis of our lives

Architectures of Chance Yeoryia Manolopoulou,2017-03-02 Architectural discourse and practice are dominated by a false dichotomy between design and chance and governed by the belief that the architect s role is to defend against the indeterminate In Architectures of Chance Yeoryia Manolopoulou challenges this position arguing for the need to develop a more creative understanding of chance as aesthetic experience and critical method and as a design practice in its own right Examining the role of experimental chance across film psychoanalysis philosophy fine art and performance this is the first book to comprehensively discuss the idea of chance in architecture and bring a rich array of innovative practices of chance to the attention of architects Wide ranging and through a symbiotic interplay of drawing and text Architectures of Chance makes illuminating reading for those interested in the process and experience of design and the poetics and ethics of chance and space in the overlapping fields of architecture and the aleatoric arts Scheming Women Cynthia Hogue,1995-09-14 This book uses post structuralist psychoanalytic and feminist theories to read the poetry of Dickinson Moore H D and Rich

Perfume on the Page in Nineteenth-Century France Cheryl Krueger,2023-06-26 Despite long standing assertions that languages including French and English cannot sufficiently communicate the experience of smell much of France s nineteenth century literature has gained praise for its memorable evocation of odours As French perfume was industrialized democratized cosmeticized and feminized in the nineteenth century stories of fragrant scent trails aligned perfume with toxic behaviour and viewed a woman s scent as something alluring but also something to be controlled Drawing on a wealth of resources Perfume on the Page in Nineteenth Century France explores how fiction and related writing on olfaction meet permeate and illuminate one another The book examines medical tracts letters manuscripts posters print advertisements magazine articles perfume manuals etiquette books interviews and encounters with fragrant materials themselves Cheryl Krueger explores how the olfactory language of a novel or poem conveys the distinctiveness of a text its unique relationship to language its style and its ways of engaging the reader its signature scent Shedding light on the French perfume culture that we know today Perfume on the Page in Nineteenth Century France follows the scent trails that ultimately challenge us to read perfume and literature in new ways Freaks in Late Modernist American Culture Nancy Bombaci,2006 Freaks in Late

Modernist American Culture explores the emergence of what Nancy Bombaci terms late modernist freakish aesthetics a creative fusion of high and low themes and forms in relation to distorted bodies Literary and cinematic texts about freaks by Nathanael West Djuna Barnes Tod Browning and Carson McCullers subvert and reinvent modern progress narratives in order to challenge high modernist literary and social ideologies These works are marked by an acceptance of the disteleology anarchy and degeneration that racist discourses of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries associated with racial and ethnic outsiders particularly Jews In a period of American culture beset with increasing pressures for social and political conformity and with the threat of fascism from Europe these late modernist narratives about freaks defy oppressive norms and values as they search for an anarchic and transformational creativity Reading Boyishly Carol Mavor,2007 Study of nostalgic representations of the maternal the home and childhood in the literature and photographs of early 20th century artists The Colour of Angels Constance Classen,2002-01-04 The Colour of Angels uncovers the gender politics behind our attitude to the senses Using a wide variety of examples ranging from the sensuous religious visions of the middle ages through to nineteenth century art movements this book reveals a previously unexplored area of womens history
