Industrials, 1918 PRWRA-GNEC, 1962 Poor's Manual of Industrials; Manufacturing, Mining and Miscellaneous Companies, 1918 Human Dignity and Liberal Politics Patrick Riordan, 2023 This book pursues two goals in the context of resurgence of interest in the common good as a topic in political philosophy and Christian ethics The first goal is the clarification of the notion of common good elaborating it through the three lenses of Aristotelian practical philosophy twentieth century Catholic Social Thought and political liberalism The second goal is to make the case that the espousal of the common good does not entail a rejection of liberalism but that a commitment to liberal politics is compatible with faithful adherence to the Catholic tradition The first goal is warranted by the fact that many authors such as Michael Sandel who invoke the common good do not explain the concept The second is necessitated by the tendency among many contemporary Catholic authors to polarize liberalism and the common good presenting readers with a stark choice Instead of exacerbating divisions this book explores what is common even where there is difference and division The Second Vatican Council's Gaudium et spes invites all to a dialogue about the common good as the set of economic political legal and cultural conditions for the flourishing of human beings whether as individuals or as communities The challenge of dialogue is taken up through the three lenses identifying a heuristic concept of the common good along with two criteria for its application First no systematic exclusion of any person or group and second no systematic exclusion of any genuine dimension of the human good These criteria have their counterparts in the principles of solidarity and subsidiarity They prove their usefulness in discussion of democracy human rights and religious liberty accepting a political liberalism that can facilitate the collaboration in political life by exponents of many different worldviews and religious doctrines The Production of

Knowledge of Normativity in the Age of the Printing Press, 2024-01-22 This volume explores the production of knowledge of normativity in the age of early modern globalisation by looking at an extraordinarily pragmatic and normative book Manual de Confessores by the Spanish canon law professor Martín de Azpilcueta 1492-1586 Intertwining expertise methods and questions of legal history and book history this book follows the actors and analyses the factors involved in the production circulation and use of the Manual both in printed and manuscript forms in the territories of the early modern Iberian Empires and of the Catholic Church It convincingly illustrates the different dynamics related to the materiality of this object that contributed to global knowledge production Contributors are Samuel Barbosa Manuela Bragagnolo Christiane

Reid,2025-04-28 Leslie Hoppe OFM has had a distinguished career in biblical studies He is known for his work on the book of Deuteronomy and the Deuteronomistic History but his interests have ranged over many areas of the Scriptures including the prophets biblical geography archaeology history and biblical perspectives on poverty In his writing and research he has broken new ground and advanced the discipline time and again For many years Hoppe served as the editor of the Catholic Biblical Quarterly and he oversaw the publication of numerous articles that have impacted the study of both the Old and New Testaments A capstone to Hoppe s illustrious career his editorship of the CBQ is reflected in the design of this volume which comprises works by scholars of both testaments The chapters here range from Genesis to the Gospels and Pauline letters Leslie Hoppe s colleagues have given him a fitting tribute a Festschrift with breadth as well as depth

The Catholic Case against War David Carroll Cochran,2024-03-01 The Catholic Case against War demonstrates how the Catholic mantra Never again war reflects a set of powerfully realistic teachings on war and peace Over the last five decades the Catholic Church has emerged as a powerful critic of war and as an advocate for its alternatives At the same time researchers of armed conflict have produced a considerable body of scholarship on war and its prevention The Catholic Case against War compares these seemingly disparate lines of thought and finds a remarkable harmony between the two Drawing on years of Vatican documents and papal statements political scientist David Carroll Cochran clearly presents the key elements of the Church s case against war Far from a na ve optimistic call for peace these teachings are consistent with the empirical research on the realities of contemporary warfare The result is a look not only at the explicit moral case against war developed by the Vatican but also at its remarkable realism and relevance to world conflict today
