Bad Jews and Other Stories Gerald Shapiro, 2004-01-01 Bad Jews and Other Stories is a nuanced and comic vision of life love and spiritual adventurism among the determinedly secular class of contemporary American Jews Separated from the character building hardships endured by their parents and grandparents unable to find a faith of their own or for that matter to believe in much of anything at all the characters of Bad Jews and Other Stories wander through the moral landscape of their lives in a loopy version of the Children of Israel's meandering way home Along the way they suffer a range of antic often absurd misadventures And as often as not they find redemption as well as disaster

Down East, 2003

Knock, Knock, Knock and Other Stories Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev, 2020-09-28 Lieutenant Tyeglev belonged precisely to the class of those fatal individuals though he did not possess the exterior commonly associated with them he was not for instance in the least like Lermontov's fatalist He was a man of medium height fairly solid and round shouldered with fair almost white eyebrows and eyelashes he had a round fresh rosy cheeked face a turn up nose a low forehead with the hair growing thick over the temples and full well shaped always immobile lips he never laughed never even smiled Only when he was tired and out of heart he showed his square teeth white as sugar The same artificial immobility was imprinted on all his features had it not been for that they would have had a good natured expression His small green eyes with yellow lashes were the only thing not quite ordinary in his face his right eye was very slightly higher than his left and the left eyelid drooped a little which made his eyes look different strange and drowsy Tyeglev's countenance which was not however without a certain attractiveness almost always wore an expression of discontent mingled with perplexity as though he were chasing within himself a gloomy thought which he was never able to catch At the same time he did not give one the impression of being stuck up he might rather have been taken for an aggrieved than a haughty man He spoke very little hesitatingly in a husky voice with unnecessary repetitions Unlike most fatalists he did not use particularly elaborate expressions in speaking and only had recourse to them in writing his handwriting was quite like a child's His superiors regarded him as an officer of no great merit not particularly capable and not over zealous The brigadier general a man of German extraction used to say of him He has punctuality but not precision With the soldiers too Tyeglev had the character of being neither one thing nor the other He lived modestly in accordance with his means He had been left an orphan at nine years old his father and mother were drowned when they were being ferried across the Oka in the spring floods He had been educated at a private school where he had the reputation of being one of the slowest and quietest of the boys and at his own earnest desire and through the good offices of a cousin who was a man of influence he obtained a commission in the horse guards artillery and though with some difficulty passed his examination first as an ensign and then as a second lieutenant
