Quality of teaching, learning and assessment		Outstanding	5
Personal development, behaviour and welfare		Outstanding	5
Outcomes for children		Outstanding	5

Summary of key findings for parents

This provision is outstanding

- Managers are highly reflective and extremely passionate about continually raising the quality of service to the highest possible levels. Together with their dedicated staff team, they comprehensively evaluate all aspects of the provision to identify and consider areas where further targeted improvements.
- Staff recognise exceptionally effective observation and assessment methods that focus on children's individual needs and all aspects of their learning. They know precisely the progress and attainment of every child, meaning they can spot or plan for children's learning to really flourish and address it.
- Staff have high expectations of what children can achieve and teach with passion, energy and purpose. They help them to make excellent progress in their learning, including being well prepared for school.
- Staff are extremely successful in creating rich and well-resourced learning environments, both indoors and outside. Children consistently choose from the highly stimulating resources set out in a very relaxed and happy atmosphere. They have plenty of opportunities to explore and investigate indoors and outside, and their creativity is supported exceptionally well.
- Children's behaviour is superb. They show exceptional care and concern for their friends, the resources and the environment. For example, they use their hands of their provision when using shared tools, so they do not break into each other.
- Relationships with parents and other professionals are exceptionally strong. Parents feel valued by the staff in supporting their children's learning. The highly effective communication systems ensure that parents are fully aware of their children's experiences and how to continue this support when at home.

Ofsted Report On Nurseries:

The role and performance of Ofsted Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee, 2011-04-17 Additional written evidence is contained in Vol 3 available on the Committee's website at www.parliament.uk/education-committee

Who Needs Nurseries? Helen Penn, 2024-03-20 The role that nurseries play in supplementing family care is an important subject but in the UK there is currently little consensus about what nurseries should provide how they should be run and who should pay for them This topical book sets out to look at Who benefits from using nurseries Who can access nurseries Who should provide them How do children behave while they are in nurseries and after they leave them What do they learn as a result of these experiences in nurseries What are the myths and assumptions about bringing up children that make nurseries possible Some countries particularly in the Nordic regions have managed to deal with these issues coherently but the current blanket solutions in the UK which are geared towards fiscal priorities may need rethinking In this book Helen Penn attempts to answer the question Is there a more considered way ahead Essential Nursery Management ,

Narratives from the Nursery Jayne Osgood, 2012 This text builds upon and contributes to ongoing debates surrounding professionalism in the early years workforce Aspects of social class race and gender are linked using practitioners' experiences of being and becoming professional in a rapidly changing policy climate New Labour's Policies for Schools

Jim Docking, 2012-11-12 A sequel to Jim Docking's National School Policy which examined the Conservative Government's education reforms from 1979 onwards this text reviews New Labour's policies to improve pupils' performance The contributors examine the evidence concerning standards in schools look at the main directions of government policy explore particular policies in detail and provide clear expositions of New Labour's education policies and provide critical examinations of controversial issues

The Early Years Reflective Practice Handbook Avril Brock, 2014-07-17 What do early childhood practitioners need to know about reflection and reflective practice Ongoing reforms in early childhood care and education social policy affect all aspects of young children's and their families' lives Decisions are being undertaken at a rapid pace and there is a need for those working in the field of Early Years to consolidate and reflect on their knowledge and practice building on what they already know This timely new book aims to support reflective practice for those working with young children in everyday work and in the wider political context whatever their professional role and whatever level of qualification they hold It takes a fresh look at a breadth of issues relating to early childhood care and education reflecting on policy knowledge and practice Incorporating practical reflection activities case studies exemplar scenarios and questions in each chapter the book considers policy developments and how these have affected young children and their families issues around socio culturalism language ethnicity disposition gender inclusion and socio economics when working with families learning through play and the notions of quality observation and assessment and continuity contemporary issues that practitioners and students on placement may encounter in their everyday work deepening reflective thinking and practice through ongoing and continuing professional development With practical guidance to help the reader reflect on their own practice this text offers invaluable support to early years practitioners looking to develop their career and achieving higher qualification at both undergraduate and at Master s level The book is a must for students on early years courses including early childhood studies initial teacher training and early years teacher status

New Labour's Policies for Schools, 2000 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Childcare Act 2006 Ann-Marie McAuliffe, Alison Linsey, John Fowler, 2006-12-24 The Childcare Act 2006 imposes new obligations on childcare providers This highly accessible guide offers a straightforward explanation of the first piece of legislation to focus solely on young children and childcare Childcare Act 2006 the essential guide offers a simple and comprehensive commentary on the Act provides a clear explanation of how the Act will be implemented and explains how the new legislation will affect the planning and delivery of services It also explains the effects on the new registration and inspection of services and presents the historical background to the legislation The guide is for children s services and other local authority officers Ofsted inspectors and all professionals working in both strategic planning and delivery of services

Not Just a Nursery Virginia Makins, 1997-01-01 Looking at the work of ten early years centres from family centres combined nursery centres and purpose built centres to those serving rural and urban communities this book assesses the range of services they offer including parent support early education for babies and toddlers adult education nursery schooling and day care In concluding that such centres are not only life enhancing for parents and children but prevent expensive educational social and parenting failure Not Just a Nursery started the thinking around the establishment of children s centre s in the UK It will be invaluable reading for managers and policy makers concerned with education health and social services as well as those concerned with the early years such as nursery professionals primary head teachers health visitors and social workers

Childcare markets Eva Lloyd, Helen Penn, 2013 This highly topical book presents recent significant research from eight nations where childcare markets are the norm

Migration and the Education of Young People 0-19 Mabel Ann Brown, 2015-11-24 Migration and the Education of Young People 0 19 investigates migration from a number of perspectives to consider the changing dynamics of society within different countries Examining the data associated with global migration by focusing on case studies from a wide range of countries it provides detailed and balanced coverage of this politically sensitive topic to explore the educational needs of migrant young people the impact of large scale migration to and from countries and the policy challenges that individual countries face when ensuring adequate provision for migrant young people within their education systems Chapters cover The reasons why people might move Social and emotional learning in Britain a tool to guard against cultural pollution Migration into a global city the economic and educational success of London Latvian people on the move and the impact on education People s movement Greece Return migration in Lithuania incoming challenges for children s education The United States Latin America immigration and education Tanzanian street children victims ordinary lives or extraordinary survivors This book explores the changing social dynamics through an extensive range of case studies and will be an essential resource for students taking undergraduate and postgraduate courses in education sociology and international relations Good

Practice in Nursery Management Elizabeth Sadek, Jacqueline Sadek, 2004 Updated to account for computerized administration systems Provides suggestions for Continuing Professional Development of staff and managers Provides up to date case studies and examples which focus on key topics and help apply theory to practice The new CD ROM contains over 60 fully editable sample documents to help nursery managers develop practical and reliable systems for their workplace and can be easily adapted to fit individual requirements The CD ROM also provides sample job descriptions contracts and documents covering all aspects of nursery policy Child Care Alison Haynes, 2015-04-23 This book is primarily for parents looking for a source of information which compares the different types of childcare available in the UK It provides information on the financial consequences commitments and obligations that come with each of the different forms of childcare Employers should find the book useful because of the employment tax consequences of childcare benefits and the variety of childcare concerns brought to HR relating to a wide range of employees Employers who value their employees and seek to be both considerate and fair will want to know how they can help in childcare matters in the most cost effective and tax efficient manner Childcare professionals may find some aspects of this book useful such as the section on expenses and accounts for child minders Nannies may be interested in understanding how much their net salary package actually costs their employers The book should also help childcare providers to benchmark their service and understand the financial consequences for parents and themselves of certain payments and benefits Parents as employees with children face a dichotomy on the one hand they have a contractual obligation to their employer and frequently have a strong personal investment in their career or profession on the other hand the duty of care and the desire to do the best for their children is paramount Many parents are fully alive to their dual responsibilities and are extremely grateful for any support offered to them by their employer and indeed their colleagues If friction arises it is invariably when childcare arrangements break down or where there is a lack of understanding or communication This book seeks to set out not only the various options available to parents with the concomitant potential costs and obligations but also to discuss alternative and back up arrangements

Many sources of information on childcare focus on new parents and their babies While this is a critical time when parents seek advice the childcare arrangements suitable for a couple with a baby may be very different from those for a single parent with school aged children In this publication consideration is given to childcare for babies through to teenagers

The early years single funding formula Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Children, Schools and Families Committee,2010-03-24 The Early Years Single Funding Formula is intended to replace the different methods currently used to fund early years settings in the maintained sector and in the private voluntary and independent PVI sector Each local authority will in future use the same criteria for every setting in its area when allocating funds for education and care provided under the free entitlement for three and four year olds But the Formula has resulted in winners and losers and the greatest losers will be maintained nursery schools which provide a quality of education and care which is very high and sets the standard for others to follow Overall the difficulties encountered so far with the Single Funding Formula have arisen because of the way in which it has been implemented rather than because of the concept Local authorities were encouraged to offer settings a supplement to the basic hourly rate of funding to recognise high quality provision but many have not done so A quality supplement should be made mandatory The Government was correct in deciding to defer full implementation until April 2011 and the year s delay must be used to restore stability and to rework funding formulae where necessary Sir Jim Rose s proposals to encourage entry to primary school in the September following a child s fourth birthday will have far reaching consequences for early years funding but blur the distinction between early years and primary education The Government should examine whether a unified funding system should be introduced for all children aged from 2 to 11 years old
