Truth About Stories Thomas King:

The Truth About Stories Thomas King, 2003-11-01 Winner of the 2003 Trillium Book Award Stories are wondrous things award winning author and scholar Thomas King declares in his 2003 CBC Massey Lectures And they are dangerous Beginning with a traditional Native oral story King weaves his way through literature and history religion and politics popular culture and social protest gracefully elucidating North America's relationship with its Native peoples Native culture has deep ties to storytelling and yet no other North American culture has been the subject of more erroneous stories The Indian of fact as King says bears little resemblance to the literary Indian the dying Indian the construct so powerfully and often destructively projected by White North America With keen perception and wit King illustrates that stories are the key to and only hope for human understanding He compels us to listen well

The Anansi Reader Lynn Coady, 2007 In 1967 then unknown writers David Godfrey and Dennis Lee founded a small press they grandly named The House of Anansi after an African trickster spider god Their goal was to publish groundbreaking new Canadian work in three core genres literary fiction poetry and topical nonfiction Forty years later Anansi is not only going strong but enjoying a fascinating creative renaissance bolstered by both its important backlist and its renewed commitment to seeking out the best new writers and ideas to publish alongside its established ones Assembled by award winning writer Lynn Coady The Anansi Reader features excerpts from ten of the best books from each decade of the existence of the press for a total of 40 entries Samples from Lynn Crosbie's Queen Rat Northrop Frye's The Educated Imagination and Kevin Connelly's Drift are among the treasures included In a thoughtful coda Coady shows readers the future with selections from seven exciting works in progress coming from Anansi in the next two years

Thomas King Eva Gruber, 2012 Thomas King is one of North America's foremost Native writers best known for his novels including Green Grass Running Water for the Dreadful Water mysteries and for collections of short stories such as One Good Story That One and A Short History of Indians in Canada But King is also a poet a literary and cultural critic and a noted filmmaker photographer and scriptwriter and performer for radio His career and oeuvre have been validated by literary awards and by the inclusion of his writing in college and university curricula Critical responses to King's work have been abundant yet most of this criticism consists of journal articles and to date only one book length study of his work exists Thomas King Works and Impact fills this gap by providing an up to date comprehensive overview of all major aspects of King's oeuvre as well as its reception and influence It brings together expert scholars to discuss King's role in and impact on Native literature and its processes of canonization and to offer in depth analyses of his multifaceted body of work The volume will be of interest to students and scholars of literature English and Native American studies and to King aficionados

The Nature of Inquisitorial Processes in Administrative Regimes Laverne Jacobs, Sasha Baglay, 2016-03-03 Inquisitorial processes refers to the inquiry powers of administrative governance and this book examines the use of these powers in administrative law across seven jurisdictions The book brings together recent developments in mixed inquisitorial adversarial administrative decision making on a hitherto neglected area of comparative administrative process and institutional design Reaching important conclusions about their own jurisdictions and raising questions which may be explored in others the book's chapters are comparative They explore the terminology and scope of the concept of inquisitorial process justifications for the use of inquiry powers the effectiveness of inquisitorial processes and the implications of the adoption of such powers The book will set in motion continued dialogue about the inherent challenges of balancing policy goals fairness resources and institutional design within administrative law decision making by offering theoretical practical and empirical analyses This will be a valuable book to government policy makers administrative law decision makers lawyers and academics

The Truth about Stories Thomas King, 2005 Explores how stories shape who we are how we understand and interact with other people and how Native American culture ties into storytelling from creation stories to personal experiences historical anecdotes to social injustices racist propaganda to works of contemporary Native American literature

Indigenous Perspectives of North America Judit Nagy, Enikő Sepsi, Miklós Vassányi, 2014-08-20 The present volume brings to North American Native Studies with its rich tradition and accumulated expertise in the Central European region the new complexities and challenges of contemporary Native reality The umbrella theme Indigenous perspectives brings together researchers from a great variety of disciplines focusing on issues such as democracy and human rights international law multiculturalism peace and security economic and scientific development sustainability literature and arts and culture as well as religion The thirty five topical and thought provoking articles written in English French and Spanish offer a solid platform for further critical investigations and a useful tool for classroom discussions in a wide variety of academic fields

Rethinking Who We Are Paul U. Angelini, 2020-07-10T00:00:00Z Rethinking Who We Are takes a non conventional approach to understanding human difference in Canada Contributors to this volume critically re examine Canadian identity by rethinking who we are and what we are becoming by scrutinizing the totality of difference Included are analyses on the macro differences among Canadians such as the disparities produced from unequal treatment under Canadian law human rights legislation and health care Contributors also explore the diversities that are often treated in a non traditional manner on the bases of gender class sexuality disability and Indigeniety Finally the ways in which difference is treated in Canada's legal system literature and the media are explored with an aim to challenge existing orthodoxy and push readers to critically examine their beliefs and ideas particularly in an age where divisive racist and xenophobic politics and attitudes are resurfacing

[Re]Gained in Translation, Volume 1-2 Sabine Dievenkorn, Shaul Levin, 2024-02-26 Volume 1 Translations of the Bible take place in the midst of tension between politics ideology and power With the theological authority of the book as God's Word not focusing on the process of translating is stating the obvious Inclinations fluency and zeitgeist play as serious a role as translators person faith and worldview as do their vocabulary poetics and linguistic capacity History has seen countless retranslations of the Bible What are the considerations according to which

Biblical retranslations are being produced in current 21st century contexts From retranslations of the Hebrew Bible to those of the Old and New Testaments to mutual influences of Christian and Jewish translational traditions the papers collected here all deal with the question of what is to be re gained with the production of a new translation where at times many a previous one has already existed Volume 2 Times are changing and with them the norms and notions of correctness Despite a wide spread belief that the Bible as a sacred original only allows one translation if any new translations are constantly produced and published for all kinds of audiences and purposes The various paradigms marked by the theological political and historical correctness of the time group and identity and bound to certain ethics and axiomatic norms are reflected in almost every current translation project Like its predecessor the current volume brings together scholars working at the intersection of Translation Studies Bible Studies and Theology all of which share a special point of interest concerning the status of the Scriptures as texts fundamentally based on the act of translation and its recurring character It aims to breathe new life into Bible translation studies unlock new perspectives and vistas of the field and present a bigger picture of how Bible re translation works in society today

The Human in a Dehumanizing World Coblentz, Jessica, Horan, OFM, Daniel P., 2022-04-20 CTS annual volume focusing on dehumanization and theological anthropology in such areas as sexual harassment racial justice and decolonization

Stateless Law Helge Dedek, Shauna Van Praagh, 2016-03-03 This volume offers a critical analysis and illustration of the challenges and promises of stateless law thought pedagogy and approaches to governance that is understanding and conceptualizing law in a post national condition From common civil and international law perspectives the collection focuses on the definition and role of law as an academic discipline and hybridity in the practice and production of law With contributions by a diverse and international group of scholars the collection includes fourteen chapters written in English and three in French Confronting the transnational challenge posed to the traditional theoretical and institutional structures that underlie the teaching and study of law in the university the seventeen authors of Stateless Law Evolving Boundaries of a Discipline bring new insight to the ongoing and crucial conversation about the future shape of legal scholarship education and practice that is emblematic of the early twenty first century This collection is essential reading for academics institutions and others involved in determining the future roles responsibilities and education of jurists as well as for academics interested in Law Sociology Political Science and Education

[Re]Gained in Translation II Sabine Dievenkorn, Shaul Levin, 2024-02-26 Times are changing and with them the norms and notions of correct ness Despite a wide spread belief that the Bible as a sacred original only allows one translation if any new translations are constantly produced and published for all kinds of audiences and purposes The various paradigms marked by the theological political and historical correctness of the time group and identity and bound to certain ethics and axiomatic norms are reflected in almost every current translation project Like its predecessor the current volume brings together scholars working at the intersection of Translation Studies Bible Studies and Theology all of which share a special point of interest concerning the status of the Scriptures as texts fundamentally based on the act of translation and its recurring character. It aims to breathe new life into Bible translation studies, unlock new perspectives and vistas of the field, and present a bigger picture of how Bible re-translation works in society today.

The Church, Migration, and Global (In)Difference Darren J. Dias, Jaroslav Z. Skira, Michael S. Attridge, Gerard Mannion, 2021-01-21. The painful reality faced by refugees and migrants is one of the greatest moral challenges of our time, in turn becoming a focus of significant scholarship. This volume examines the global phenomenon of migration in its theological, historical, and socio-political dimensions, and of how churches and faith communities have responded to the challenges of such mass human movement. The contributions reflect global perspectives with contributions from African, Asian, European, North American, and South American scholars and contexts. The essays are interdisciplinary at the intersection of religion, anthropology, history, political science, gender, and post-colonial studies. The volume brings together a variety of perspectives inter-related by ecclesiological and theological concerns.

All Sky, Mirror Ocean Brad Necyk, 2024-01-04. All Sky Mirror Ocean weaves and knots autobiography, research, creation, and creative philosophy into an exploration of mental illness, healing, and visionary art. Looking to uncover and tell new stories about trauma and recovery, visual artist Brad Necyk explores his own histories with Bipolar Affective Disorder and childhood medical trauma alongside those of groups dealing with grief and loss: communities in Iqaluit aggrieved by suicide, head and neck cancer patients in Edmonton, and psychiatric inpatients at the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health in Toronto. These lived experiences intertwine with scholarship on research, creation, neuroscience, collaboration, and altered states to reveal the understanding and acceptance that comes from acknowledging our deep connections to ideas and emotions, to our environments, to art, and to each other. Filled with art and a stream of consciousness writing, the book celebrates the spontaneous emotional mode of creativity. Showing deep compassion and wisdom, All Sky Mirror Ocean hopes to be an exemplar for multimodal research, creation, exploration, and artistic fieldwork, and is for all readers looking to understand the complex issues around mental illness and healing.

When the Spirit Calls Edward J. Hedican, 2023-03-30. In January 1832, in the most southern part of Ontario's James Bay, an elderly Cree man by the name of Quapakay was told by the spirits of the shaking tent that, in order to survive the winter, he was required to spoil the post at Hannah Bay, a Hudson's Bay Company goose hunting station. Following the directions of the spirits, Quapakay and his sons carried out this ill-fated task, resulting in the deaths of sixteen occupants of the Hannah Bay post. Now known as the Hannah Bay Massacre, the victims included fur trader William Corrigal, the postmaster, and his wife and seven other Indigenous people. When the Spirit Calls explores the social, cultural, and historical context in which the Hannah Bay tragedy took place, as gleaned from the Hudson Bay Company's archival records and elucidations by Cree oral traditions. The research is the culmination of over forty years of investigation by Edward J. Hedican in Indigenous communities from the mid-1970s to the present day. In the book, Hedican aims to uncover the circumstances, behaviours, and attitudes that led to the slaughter. When the Spirit Calls sheds light on the racist attitudes held by the white settler population towards Indigenous people attitudes that were prevalent in our colonial past and that continue to this very day Storied Communities Hester Lessard, Rebecca Johnson, Jeremy Webber, 2011-01-01 Political communities are defined and often contested through stories Scholars have long recognized that two foundational sets of stories narratives of contact and narratives of arrival helped to define settler societies We are only beginning to understand how ongoing issues of migration and settlement are linked to issues of indigenous settler contact Storied Communities disrupts the assumption in many works that indigenous and immigrant identities fall into two separate streams of analysis The authors do not attempt to build a new master narrative they instead juxtapose narratives of contact and arrival as they explore key themes narrative and narrative form the nature and hazards of storytelling in the political realm and the institutional and theoretical implications of foundation narratives and storytelling By bringing to light the links between narratives of contact and narratives of arrival this volume opens up new ways to imagine sustain and transform political communities Native American and First Nations Humor Vibha Vasi, 2020-03-19 Humor is introduced into the new born Native American or First Nations life as a ceremony King s stories show that there are other helpers of humor like the trickster and the coyote who play important roles in teaching and transforming through laughter Native American and First Nations Humor Native American and First Nations Humor is a complete study of Thomas King s humor and its basis in the oral traditions of the Native American and First Nations tribes In this book while analyzing the humor in the writings of Thomas King the author explores the funny wise and helpful trickster of the Native American tradition Yes students of literature will find the book illuminating but the general reader too will be informed by these interpretations written in an easy style For those new to the subject the book has introductory sections on Native American and First Nations history the current realities and the oral traditional belief system The author pairs the insights on Native humor with familiar devices of humor like the parody and irony Here s a rare look at laughter Where Happiness Dwells Robin Ridington, Jillian Ridington, 2013-02-25 The Dane zaa people have lived in BC s Peace River area for thousands of years Elders documented their peoples history and worldview passing them on through storytelling Language loss however threatens to break the bonds of knowledge transmission At the request of the Doig River First Nations anthropologists Robin and Jillian Ridington present a history of the Dane zaa people based on oral histories collected over a half century of fieldwork These powerful stories not only preserve traditional knowledge for future generations they also tell the inspiring story of how the Dane zaa learned to succeed and flourish in the modern world Healing Home Vanessa Oliver, 2013-02-12 Based on research that was awarded the Governor General s Academic Gold Medal Healing Home is an exploration of the lives and health of young women experiencing homelessness Vanessa Oliver employs an innovative methodology that blends sociology and storytelling practices to investigate these women s access to health services their understandings of health and health care delivery and their health seeking behaviours Through their life stories Oliver demonstrates how personal and social experiences shape health outcomes In contrast to many previous studies that have focused on the deficits of these young people Healing Home is both youth centric and youth positive in its approach by foregrounding the narratives of the women themselves Oliver empowers a sub section of the population that traditionally has not had a voice in determining policies that shape their realities Applying a strong articulate and systemic analysis to on the ground narratives Oliver is able to offer fresh incisive recommendations for health and social service providers with the potential to effect real world change for this marginalized population

Qualitative Research Sandra G. Kouritzin, Nathalie A.C. Piquemal, Renee Norman, 2009-02-15 Evocative and provocative this book presents the points of view of often junior scholars in the social sciences who used non standard methods or writing practices to challenge the research as usual paradigm in the academy The authors discuss their lived personal experiences as well as their struggles and eventual successes

Stories of Our Living Ephemera Emily Legg, 2023-12-15 Stories of Our Living Ephemera recovers the history of the Cherokee National Seminaries from scattered archives and colonized research practices by critically weaving together pedagogy and archival artifacts with Cherokee traditional stories and Indigenous worldviews This unique text adds these voices to writing studies history and presents these stories as models of active rhetorical practices of assimilation resistance in colonized spaces Emily Legg turns to the Cherokee medicine wheel and cardinal directions as a Cherokee rhetorical discipline of knowledge making in the archives an embodied and material practice that steers knowledge through the four cardinal directions around all relations Going beyond historiography Legg delineates educational practices that are intertwined with multiple strands of traditional Cherokee stories that privilege Indigenous and matriarchal theoretical lenses Stories of Our Living Ephemera synthesizes the connections between contemporary and nineteenth century academic experiences to articulate the ways that colonial institutions and research can be Indigenized by centering Native American sovereignty By undoing the erasure of Cherokee literacy and educational practices Stories of Our Living Ephemera celebrates the importance of storytelling especially for those who are learning about Indigenous histories and rhetorics This book is of cultural importance and value to academics interested in composition and pedagogy the Cherokee Nation and a general audience seeking to learn about Indigenous rhetorical devices and Cherokee history
