

Tuesdays with Morrie

The most important thing in life is to learn how to give out love, and to let it come in

We think we don't deserve love, we think if we let it in we'll become too soft. But love is only rational act

Wilcox, 2019-01-16 Mother Teresa said to have courage for whatever comes in life everything lies in that When people think about courage they often think about those who put their lives on the line for us every day like first responders firefighters or police officers But there are so many others who quietly endure with steadfast courage whatever comes their way in life These people are like the anawhim in the Old Testament the good kind people whom very few know about but who trust in the Lord He is their strength It is because of their faith in him that they live their lives with courage to face whatever comes their way In over thirty years as a psychotherapist and spiritual director Wilcox has often been amazed at the strength and courage of so many of his clients Some have faced physical disabilities others struggle with mental emotional or psychological problems still others with personal family or career issues These people are what he calls the hidden faces of courage Often they are not well known They certainly receive no notoriety or press Yet they are always there doing the best they can each day This book is an invitation to understand and appreciate the unnoticed courage and strength of ordinary people If we can walk in their shoes it will help us to be courageous for whatever comes to us in life

Walking Each Other Home Peter C. Wilcox, 2017-05-23 The English writer G K Chesterton once wrote Nothing taken for granted everything received with gratitude everything passed on with grace These reflections are the author's effort as an older father to pass on to his daughter with grace what he believes is truly important in life When his daughter was young he used to tell her that his constant prayer was to live long enough so that I can get you raised Thankfully that prayer has been answered But parenting is a life long process that evolves as we and our children grow older Through the years Dr Wilcox has discovered that being an older father has advantages and disadvantages If age gives one more life experience and wisdom then hopefully these reflections will be a way that he can share his life and wisdom with her and others Throughout thirty years as a psychotherapist and spiritual director Dr Wilcox counseled many fathers who were genuinely trying to be good parents This book is intended to help fathers influence in a positive way the life choices their daughters will make It is an invitation to explore how we can continue to help our daughters grow spiritually and psychologically into the person God is calling them to become
