Africa, Empire and Fleet Street Jonathan Derrick, 2018-03-15 For decades before and after African independence the London weekly West Africa was a well known source of news analysis and comment on the region especially the former British territories Jonathan Derrick who worked on the magazine's staff in the 1960s and again in its final years before closure in 2003 here studies the earlier history of West Africa through the story of its largely forgotten editor Albert Cartwright from the magazine's founding in 1917 to Cartwright's retirement in 1947 Before editing West Africa Cartwright spent twenty years in South Africa making the headlines in 1901 when as editor of Cape Town's South African News during the Boer War he was jailed for a year for a war crimes allegation against Lord Kitchener Exploring Cartwright family papers and memories Derrick reveals the complex nature of a man who for three decades ran a colonial magazine but was appreciated by Africans as someone who genuinely understood them Derrick places the story of colonial era West Africa which would reach its greatest heights during the independence period within the wider landscape of British periodicals dealing with Africa in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Takemura: Dynamism in African Languages and Literature, 2023-06-27 The book provides novel perspectives towards conceptualisation of African Potentials It explores diverse and dynamic aspects of linguistic communications in Africa ranging from convivial multilingual practices to literal and musical arts The book reflects the diversity and ever changing dynamism in the African sociolinguistic sphere that is metalinguistic discourse in East Africa sociolinguistic dynamism in Angola conflict reconciliation speech performed in Ethiopia and syncretic urban linguistic code called Sheng in Kenya The volume also explores multi dimensional relationships between literary arts and the society by investigating such topics as traditional Swahili poetry publication of children books in Benin and transformation and reconstruction of Yoruba popular music The book elucidates dynamic process of creation through mixing of traditional and foreign elements of culture African Publishing Review, 2001

Tyloch, 1985-11-21 Although African literatures in English and French are widely known outside Africa those in the African languages themselves have not received comparable attention In this book a number have been selected for survey by fourteen specialist writers providing the reader with an introduction to this very wide field and a body of reference material which includes extensive bibliographies and biographical information on African authors Theoretical issues such as genre divisions are discussed in the essays and the historical social and political forces at work in the creation and reception of African literature are examined Literature is treated as an art whose medium is language so that both the oral and written forms are encompassed This book will be of value not only to readers concerned with the cultures of Africa but to all those with an interest in the literary phenomena of the world in general
