This personal collection of memories covers the period from William's early life in the late 1920s early 30s working on farms with horses and dogs in the North Yorkshire Dales and through to his moves to North Lancashire and to Cumbria. The book captures the life and often harsh environment of farming during the 1930s 40s and focuses on the events which revolved around the special relationship he had working with horses and sheepdogs. A unique insight to a time where changes in farming were moving from horse driven to machine driven and of the local characters of that time. It's a very personal collection however for anyone interested in farming horses dogs and local history it's a real gem.

The Unraveling Meredith Keller, 2021-06-28 A hand scripted letter arrives in a rural mailbox on a vineyard in Northern California saying I think you may be my grandmother. This shocking statement instantly dredges up shattering memories flashbacks at blinding speed of sexual assault isolation pain severance and shame. There was the promise of closure to a nightmare that also held the pain of reliving each and every episode of a tragic drama with secrets well hidden for 52 years. Will she respond to the letter?
