

SUGGESTIONS FOR BEING A GREAT MYSTERY SHOPPER

- 1 Always read & follow instructions and report forms carefully before you begin the shop.
- 2 Call or email your scheduler and ask questions if you are unsure about anything before you begin the shop.
- 3 Keep in touch with the schedulers and let them know as soon as possible if you can't make the due date or will be late submitting your report.
- 4 Begin each shop with an open mind - try not to bring any preconceptions or expectations.
- 5 Unless it's specifically requested, don't compare the shop with previous visits you've completed. Each shop should reflect a 'stand-alone' experience.
- 6 Use your mobile phone to record voice notes immediately after your shop. This is a great memory aid for when you're writing your report later.
- 7 Answer each question clearly. Use paragraphs to break up long narratives to make it easier to read.
- 8 When writing your reports, stick to the facts unless specifically asked for your opinion.
- 9 Make it clear who you're referring to in your reports. For example, use "Associate 1" or "John" rather than "the young lady" or "the associate".
