Rodriguez,2013-07-18 Since test items are the building blocks of any test learning how to develop and validate test items has always been critical to the teaching learning process As they grow in importance and use testing programs increasingly supplement the use of selected response multiple choice items with constructed response formats This trend is expected to continue As a result a new item writing book is needed one that provides comprehensive coverage of both types of items and of the validity theory underlying them This book is an outgrowth of the author s previous book Developing and Validating Multiple Choice Test Items 3e Haladyna 2004 That book achieved distinction as the leading source of guidance on creating and validating selected response test items Like its predecessor the content of this new book is based on both an extensive review of the literature and on its author s long experience in the testing field It is very timely in this era of burgeoning testing programs especially when these items are delivered in a computer based environment Key features include Comprehensive and Flexible No other book so thoroughly covers the field of test item development and its various applications Focus on Validity Validity the most important consideration in testing is stressed throughout and is based on the Standards for Educational and Psychological Testing currently under revision by AERA APA and NCME Illustrative Examples

The book presents various selected and constructed response formats and uses many examples to illustrate correct and incorrect ways of writing items. Strategies for training item writers and developing large numbers of items using algorithms and other item generating methods are also presented. Based on Theory and Research: A comprehensive review and synthesis of existing research runs throughout the book and complements the expertise of its authors. Advancing Human Assessment Randy E. Bennett, Matthias von Davier, 2017-10-17. This book is open access under a CC BY-NC 2.5 license. This book describes the extensive contributions made toward the advancement of human assessment by scientists from one of the world's leading research institutions, Educational Testing Service. The book's four major sections detail research and development in measurement and statistics, education policy analysis and evaluation, scientific psychology and validity. Many of the developments presented have become de facto standards in educational and psychological measurement, including in item response theory, IRT linking and equating, differential item functioning, DIF, and educational surveys like the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP), the Programme of International Student Assessment (PISA), the Progress of International Reading Literacy Study (PIRLS), and the Trends in Mathematics and Science Study (TIMSS). In addition to its comprehensive coverage of contributions to the theory and methodology of educational and psychological measurement and statistics, the book gives significant attention to ETS work in cognitive, personality, developmental, and social psychology and to education policy analysis and program evaluation. The chapter authors are long-standing experts who provide broad coverage and thoughtful insights that build upon decades of experience in research and best practices for measurement, evaluation, scientific psychology, and education policy analysis. Opening with a chapter on the genesis of ETS and closing with a synthesis of the enormously diverse set of contributions made over its 70-year history, the book is a useful resource for all interested in the improvement of human assessment.

The Secrets of Picking a College (and Getting In!) Lynn F. Jacobs, Jeremy S. Hyman, Jeffrey Durso-Finley, Jonah T. Hyman, 2015-09-28. Two award-winning professors, a former admissions officer at a major university, now a counselor at a prestigious high school, and a gifted high school senior, now in the throes of the college admissions process, himself team up to offer you over 600 tips, techniques, and strategies to help you get in to the college of your choice. Comprehensive yet easy to read, this book will teach you how to size up the colleges you're considering and come up with a coherent list. What are college nights, college fairs, and college rep visits, and how you can use each to your advantage? What are holistic, contextualized, and legacy admissions, and how each can work for you? How do some schools count demonstrated interest, and how you can take advantage of this little-known fact? What are Early Decision, Early Action, and Single Choice Early Action, and whether any is right for you? How to figure out the true costs of college and what is the difference between need and merit-based aid? What it means when colleges say they meet 100% of demonstrated financial aid, and what loan-free means. When and how to make campus visits, and what to do on each. How to prepare for each section of the ACT or SAT, and how to increase your scores. What admissions officers are looking for in your application, and how to give it to them How to write the all important Common App essay and present your extra curricular activities How to prepare for an alumni interview and present yourself in the best light Whom to ask for letters of recommendation and how to help them write the best possible letter How to compare your final offers and in some cases substantially improve them When it's good to wait out the wait list and when not and much much more When you understand the college admissions process you can maximize your chance of success Why not put yourself ahead of the pack SAT For Dummies Geraldine
