Seven Plus Seven Mysterious Life Rituals In Bali:

Seven Plus Seven Katharane Edson Mershon,1971 Seven Plus Seven Jonathan A. Cunitz,1971 Seven Plus Seven Katharane Edson Mershon,1971 Cosmogony and Creation in Balinese Tradition C. Hooykaas,2013-12-01 Life is stranger than fiction Considerably so Judge from this The Javanese develop a feeling towards their afterbirth which is not thrown away at birth in the heathenish Western way but which gets a decent burial and has the name ari ari younger brother sister I know of a Javanese schoolgirl who wrote in an essay How couldn't I have tender feelings towards the spot where my ari ari lies buried The Balinese are in the happy position of having no less than four elder brothers sisters The concomitants of physical birth being the amniotic fluid the blood the vernix caseosa and the afterbirth together are the baby's kanda mpat bis four elder brothers or her elder sisters in the case of a girl Though the first three due to their liquid state mostly disappear and receive little care the ari ari is carefully buried under a round riverstone of about one foot in diameter for a boy at the one side of the steps leading to the sleeping house for a girl at the other side The innumerable writings partially or completely dealing with the kanda mpat do not weary from inculcating their readers that the four are helpful as long as one gives them the material food and reverential thoughts they are entitled to in which case they from their side behave as true elder brothers You however one neglects and ignores them they punish their younger brother Religion in Bali C. Hooykaas,2025-02-10 Bali in the Early Nineteenth Century Helen M. Creese,2016-05-30 In Bali in the Early Nineteenth Century Helen Creese examines the nature of the earliest sustained cross cultural encounter between the Balinese and the Dutch through the eyewitness accounts of Pierre Dubois the first colonial official to live in Bali From 1828 to 1831 Dubois served as Civil Administrator to the Badung court in southern Bali He later recorded his Balinese experiences for the Batavian Society of Arts and Sciences in a series of personal letters to an anonymous correspondent This first ethnography of Bali provides rich perceptive descriptions of early nineteenth century Balinese politics society religion and culture The book includes a complete edition and translation of Dubois's Lege de Balie en 1830 Sketch of Bali in 1830 Women of the Kakawin World Helen Creese,2015-01-28 In this fascinating study the lives and mores of women in one of the least understood but most densely populated areas of the world are unveiled through the eyes of generations of court poets For more than a millennium the poets of the Indic courts of Java and Bali composed epic kakawin poems in which they recreated the court environment where they and their royal patrons lived Major themes in this poetry form include war love and marriage It is a rich source for the cultural and social history of Indonesia Still being produced in Bali today kakawin remain of interest and relevance to Balinese cultural and religious identities This book draws on the epic kakawin poetry tradition to examine the institutions of courtship and marriage in the Indic courts Its primary purpose is to explore the experiences of women belonging to the kakawin world although the texts by nature reveal more about the discourses concerning women sexuality and gender than of the historical experiences of individual women For over a thousand years these royal courts were major patrons of the arts The court sponsored epic works that have survived provide an ongoing literary testimony to the cultural and social concerns of court society from its earliest recorded history until its demise at the end of the nineteenth century This study examines the idealized images of women and sexuality that have pervaded Javanese and Balinese culture and provides insights into a number of cultural practices such as sati or bela self immolation of widows Desire, Divine and Demonic Michele Stephen, 2005-03-31 This original and innovative book challenges many of our long held assumptions about traditional Balinese religion Drawing on data from visual art mythology esoteric texts and public rituals Michele Stephen identifies a core of important mystical themes at the heart of Balinese religion and demonstrates the striking parallels between these and Indian Tantric thought Desire Divine and Demonic begins with an introduction to the problems of defining mysticism in Bali a discussion of prevailing scholarly views concerning the nature of Balinese religion and a brief description of the link between art and religion in Balinese culture What follows is an intriguing analysis of two series of paintings by contemporary Balinese artists I Ketut Budiana and I Gusti Nyoman Mirdiana who specialize in mystical and mythological scenes The Life of a Balinese Temple Hildred Geertz, 2004-06-30 Should a temple be seen as a work of art its carvers as artists its worshipers as art critics and patrons What is a temple and its art to the people who make and use it Noted anthropologist Hildred Geertz attempts to answer these and other questions in this unique look at transformations in material culture and social relations over time in a village temple in Bali Throughout Geertz offers insightful glimpses into what the statues structures and designs of Pura D sa Batuan convey to those who worship there deepening our understanding of how a village community evaluates workmanship and imagery Following an introduction to the temple and villagers of Batuan Geertz explores the problematics of the Western concept of art as a guiding framework in research She goes on to outline the many different kinds of work ideational as well as physical undertaken in connection with the temple and the social institutions that enable constrain and motivate their creation Finally the art works themselves are presented set within the intricate sociocultural contexts of their making Using the history of Batuan as the main framework for discussing each piece Geertz looks at the carvings from the perspective of their makers each generation occupying a different social situation She confronts concepts such as aesthetics representation sacredness and universality and the dilemmas they create in field research and ethnographic writing Recent temple carvings from the tumultuous and complex period that followed the expulsion of the Dutch and the increasing globalization and commercialization of Balinese society demonstrate yet again that any anthropology of art must also be historical Tales From a Charmed Life Hildred Geertz, Ida Bagus Madé Togog, 2005-03-31 Tales from a Charmed Life is the last in a trilogy of works by Hildred Geertz exploring the complexity of Balinese history religion and society A landmark study by one of the most distinguished anthropologists of Indonesia it centers around the stories and paintings of Ida Bagus Mad Togog 1913 1989 an artist and ritual specialist who played a significant role in the history of Balinese ethnography In the 1930s Togog was central to Mead and Bateson's pioneering studies of Balinese character and came under the influence of expatriate artists Walter Spies and Rudolf Bonnet to emerge as a major representative of the Batuan style of painting. Togog's art and anecdotal stories of his most memorable life experiences are here interwoven with Geertz's illuminating commentary to construct an innovative framework for understanding Balinese culture. Togog shares stories of his early life relating dilemmas from his childhood and youth. Growing up in the wake of Dutch colonization, he came into contact with new languages, customs, and economic opportunities that presented him with puzzling and poignant experiences. He tells of his association with Spies and Bonnet and later Mead and Bateson and his role in the creation of a genre of painting for which Bali is now famous. This is a view of Bali from the inside, a vivid, highly personal look at a world where spirits, ancestors, and sorcerers have the power to intervene in one's life. According to Togog, who narrowly escaped death numerous times, his was indeed a charmed life. The other volumes in the trilogy are The Life of a Balinese Temple Artistry: Imagination and History in a Peasant Village (2004) and Images of Power: Balinese Paintings Made for Gregory Bateson and Margaret Mead (1994).

Bali and the Tourist Industry

David Shavit, 2019-07-18. The island of Bali's sensational image was created by the tourists, artists, and scholars who visited the tiny nation between the two world wars. A Dutch colony from 1908, Bali was a source of revenue for the Dutch government, which began to develop its image as the ultimate vacation spot. The tourism industry spread the idea of Bali as a paradise in which noble, happy, spiritual Balinese, all prodigiously creative artists, lived in innocence. Sensual images of beautiful people on an enchanted isle, unspoiled by modernity, predominated. Bali also acquired a reputation as a homosexual paradise. A host of books and articles fed these images of Bali until it evolved into one of the most romantic stops on the tourist itinerary. The Balinese people, however, made little profit from the tourist traffic. This history of the development of tourism in Bali stretches from the Dutch occupation in 1906 to the Japanese occupation in 1942. After exhaustive research in published records and in unpublished letters, diaries, and oral histories left by many of the American and European visitors to the island, as well as the Balinese residents, the author explores the reasons for Bali's popularity among Westerners and their effects on the native culture.

Women and Households in Indonesia

Juliette Koning, Marleen Nolten, Janet Rodenburg, Ratna Saptari, 2013-11-19. Critically examines the usefulness of the household concept within the historically and culturally diverse context of Indonesia, exploring in detail the position of women within and beyond domestic arrangements. So far, classical household and kinship studies have not studied how women deal with two major forces which shape and define their world: local kinship traditions and the universalising ideology of the Indonesian regime, which both provide prescriptions and prohibitions concerning family, marriage, and womanhood. Women are caught between these conflicting notions and practices. How they challenge or accommodate such forces is the main issue in this book.

The Potent Dead Anthony Reid, 2020-08-20. The dead are potent and omnipresent in modern

Indonesia Presidents and peasants alike meditate before sacred graves to exploit the power they confer and mediums do good business curing the sick by interpreting the wishes of deceased forebears Among non Muslims there are ritual burials of the bones of the dead in monuments both magnificent and modest By promoting dead heroes to a nationalist pantheon regions and ethnic groups establish their place within the national story Although much has been written about the local forms of the scriptural religions to which modern Indonesians are required by law to adhere Islam Christianity Hinduism and Buddhism this is the first book to assess the indigenous systems of belief in the spirits of ancestors Sometimes these systems are condemned in the name of the formal religions but more often the potent dead coexist as a private dimension of everyday religious practice A unique team of anthropologists historians and literary scholars from Europe Australia and North America demonstrate the continuing importance of the potent dead for understanding contemporary Indonesia At the same time they help us understand historic processes of conversion to Islam and Christianity by examining the continuing interactions of the spirit world with formal religion

Journeys of Desire A. Vickers, 2021-10-25 From the late seventeenth century until the Dutch conquest of the early twentieth Century Bali was ruled by a set of competing kingdoms This study of the Balinese text Kidung Malat is the first work in Indonesian historical studies to analyse the main ideology of these Balinese kingdoms It does so by demonstrating how the performance and presentation of the text presented an image of the ideal prince to both rulers and subjects The Kidung Malat exemplifies courtly ideology through its descriptions of the adventures of kings and princes from the era of the medieval kingdoms of East Java It is one of the longest and most complex of a set of narratives called Pa ji stories which originated in East Java and spread throughout Southeast Asia This book is also the first extensive historical analysis of a Pa ji story combining textual analysis with the study of the gambuh dance drama in which the Malat is performed and comparing these forms with paintings and other manifestations of the text

Cultural Conceptions of Mental Health and Therapy Anthony J. Marsella, G. White, 1982-04-30 Within the past two decades there has been an increased interest in the study of culture and mental health relationships This interest has extended across many academic and professional disciplines including anthropology psychology sociology psychiatry public health and social work and has resulted in many books and scientific papers emphasizing the role of sociocultural factors in the etiology epidemiology manifestation and treatment of mental disorders It is now evident that sociocultural variables are inextricably linked to all aspects of both normal and abnormal human behavior But in spite of the massive accumulation of data regarding culture and mental health relationships sociocultural factors have still not been incorporated into existing biological and psychological perspectives on mental disorder and therapy Psychiatry the Western medical specialty concerned with mental disorders has for the most part continued to ignore socio cultural factors in its theoretical and applied approaches to the problem The major reason for this is psychiatry's continued commitment to a disease conception of mental disorder which assumes that mental disorders are largely biologically caused illnesses which are universally represented in etiology and manifestation

Within this perspective mental disorders are regarded as caused by universal processes which lead to discrete and recognizable symptoms regardless of the culture in which they occur However this perspective is now the subject of growing criticism and debate The Kecak and Cultural Tourism on Bali Kendra Stepputat,2021 The Kecak is one of the most well known dramatic dance performance practices on Bali It is based on stories from the Old Indian epic Ramayana performed by an ensemble of male and female solo dancers and accompanied by a group consisting of approximately 100 men who function both as musical accompaniment and living scenery that can be flexibly choreographed Since its genesis in the 1930s the Kecak has been almost solely performed in a tourist context This book gives a thorough analysis and description of the Kecak in its present form and explores how the Kecak became and stayed a tourist genre for more than 80 years The book is divided into two parts The first part focuses on the Kecak in its present form including musical choreographic and dramatic elements The connection between cultural tourism on Bali and Kecak performance practice is analyzed in detail including the dependency between tourism professionals and artists and ways of promoting the kecak Tourists perspectives on the Kecak are addressed separately The second part deals with the genesis and development of the Kecak from the 1930s onward

Performance in Java and Bali B. Arps,2005-06-27 The studies in this book examine traditional performance genres in the Indonesian islands of Java and Bali They cover puppet and human theatre dance sung narrative narrative temple reliefs and vocal and instrumental music span a period of more than a thousand years and range over four cultural complexes Sundanese in western Java Javanese in central and eastern Java Chinese in eastern Java and Balinese in Bali The Greatest Shows on Earth Professor of Psychology John Freeman,2011-11-01 What makes a particular performance great The Greatest Shows on Earth offers an address that focuses sharply on theatre as performance as an event that can stir the blood the spirit and the brain like nothing else The result is a book about fourteen outstanding theatre events from a dozen countries In discrete production focused chapters work from Peter Brook s King Lear through to the Sydney Olympics Opening Event is approached by a team of international scholars and practitioners each describing in print that which existed in time and space and most significantly within specific contexts What binds these chapters together is the conviction that whilst liveness disappears in a moment spectatorship can translate into documentation that adds something to a work s value even as so much else can never be captured in words In wrestling with ephemerality and memory The Greatest Shows on Earth does more than make a case for what makes certain theatre great it foregrounds analysis with emotion and writing with the type of first person engagement that is usually edited out rather than invited in John Freeman lectures in Performance Studies at Curtin University Perth Western Australia He has written extensively on theatre art pedagogy and research for numerous international journals newspapers magazines books government and funding agencies galleries festivals and consultancy panels The Greatest Shows on Earth is his fifth book The Flaming Womb Barbara Watson Andaya,2006-07-31 The Princess of the Flaming Womb the Javanese legend that introduces this pioneering study symbolizes the many ambiguities attached to femaleness in Southeast Asian societies Yet despite these ambiguities the relatively egalitarian nature of male female relations in Southeast Asia is central to arguments claiming a coherent identity for the region This challenging work by senior scholar Barbara Watson Andaya considers such contradictions while offering a thought provoking view of Southeast Asian history that focuses on women s roles and perceptions Andaya explores the broad themes of the early modern era 1500 1800 the introduction of new religions major economic shifts changing patterns of state control the impact of elite lifestyles and behaviors drawing on an extraordinary range of sources and citing numerous examples from Thai Vietnamese Burmese Philippine and Malay societies In the process she provides a timely and innovative model for putting women back into world history Andaya approaches the problematic issue of Southeast Asia by considering ways in which topography helped describe a geo cultural zone and contributed to regional distinctiveness in gender construction She examines the degree to which world religions have been instrumental in re constructing conceptions of gender an issue especially pertinent to Southeast Asian societies because of the leading role so often played by women in indigenous ritual She also considers the effects of the expansion of long distance trade the incorporation of the region into a global trading network the beginnings of cash cropping and wage labor and the increase in slavery on the position of women Erudite nuanced and accessible The Flaming Womb makes a major contribution to a Southeast Asia history that is both regional and global in content and perspective
