Saint-Ulysse PhD MDiv, 2022-04-12 I write this book to do something that most would consider unwise as a current employee of the Seventh day Adventist Church I call or appeal for systematic change change in policies that have kept the financial support from tithe and other sources to Adventist elementary and other sources to Adventist schools at minimal Please don't think of me as a brave one who dares to go where many have not gone before I am not I speak out because we need policy changes at every level Fairness is not giving everyone the same thing but to give each person what he or she needs to succeed Many businesses are rethinking how to move forward post the pandemic We too as a church need to do the same In the Old Testament God instructed his people to pass on their faith to their children by intentionally teaching them God's statutes and commandments Deuteronomy 6 4 8 and Isaiah 54 13 Similarly the Christian Church receives its marching orders from Jesus in the Great Commission found in Matthew 28 16 20 Jesus directs the church to make disciples of all nations by baptizing and teaching Church schools are needed to partner with parents and the church as a whole to educate children Ellen G White cofounder of the Seventh day Adventist Church who earlier encouraged the Seventh day Church to focus on foreign missions stated in addressing church schools in the book Testimonies for the Church volume 6 that the children are not to be neglected She writes We cannot call ourselves true missionaries if we neglect those at our very doors who are at the most critical age and who need our aid to secure knowledge and experience that will fit them for the service of God Her solution to financing church schools is simple Let all share the expense Enrollment in Christian elementary and secondary schools have been dropping nationwide Many families in North America especially new immigrant families are not able to afford the tuition to send their children to church schools Several church schools have closed In this book Dr Sadrail Saint Ulysse an ordained minister and educator of the Seventh day Adventist Church addresses the challenges of operating Christian schools at the elementary and secondary levels after serving for nearly twenty five years as a pastor and educator with the hope that the burden of operating church schools can be shared by the entire church local state national and worldwide to alleviate this burden The book challenges parents teachers principals school boards church members and church leaders at every level to make the needed policy changes to ensure that church schools are financed in a sustainable manner

Augustus, 2018-08-09 If you are a Seventh day Adventist Christian you have no doubt heard of The Shepherd's Rod a message of present truth and reform first presented to leaders of the Seventh day Adventist Church in the years 1929 and 1930 It has created much controversy In What Every Seventh day Adventist Should Know about The Shepherd's Rod author Garrick D Augustus brings to light the historic and the theological reasons behind the rejection of The Shepherd's Rod message It exposes the systematic misinformation as well as the willful manipulations of the facts surrounding Victor Houteff and the movement he began more than eight decades ago. It provides clear and accurate answers to the questions raised against the Rod's message. And it answers the objections church leaders have historically offered as proof against its bearing the credentials of inspiration. Augustus fused the forensic methods of evidence analytics as well as the investigative method of internal evidence analysis to the claims brought against the message by the leaders of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. His research took him from the Heritage Library in Loma Linda, California, to The Biblical Research Committee in Silver Spring, Maryland, and beyond. What Every Seventh-day Adventist Should Know about The Shepherd's Rod journeys through the pages of history and helps to separate truth from propaganda. It takes a fresh look at an old controversy that began in eternity past and has played itself out in the rank and file of Seventh-day Adventism.

The Second Fifty: Answers to the 7 Big Questions of Midlife and Beyond Debra Whitman, 2024-09-10 Expert guidance for living a longer, healthier, more meaningful second half of life. As she approached her fiftieth birthday, Debra Whitman, a globally recognized expert on aging, wanted to delve deeper into why so many Americans struggled to live well as they aged. And she began to wonder what was in store for her own second fifty. Suddenly, the questions she'd been studying for years became personal: How long will I live? Will I be healthy? Will I lose my memory? How long will I work? Will I have enough money? Where will I live? How will I die? Americans are now living decades longer than previous generations. These added years offer exciting possibilities but also raise crucial questions. In her groundbreaking book, Whitman provides a roadmap for navigating and celebrating the second half of life. Drawing on compelling stories from her own family and people across the country, interviews with experts, and cutting-edge research, she shares insights on brain health, the contributions and concerns of an older workforce, caregiving, financing retirement, and more. Her findings are often surprising: Americans over fifty are a boon, not a drain, on the economy. Dementia rates have actually been declining as more people achieve higher levels of education and adopt healthier lifestyles. And while we've long known that staying connected to others is critical to mental health, it turns out it is also linked to a stronger immune system, lower blood pressure, and a longer life. Whitman presents practical steps we can take to help create a better second fifty for ourselves. But we can't do it alone. Whitman also calls for urgently needed changes that would make it easier for every American to enjoy a vital and meaningful second half of life. Whether you are approaching fifty, into your later years, or caring for someone who is, you'll find a wealth of wisdom in these pages. Informed by Whitman's unmatched expertise and her deep passion, The Second Fifty is an indispensable guide for living well in the twenty-first century.

The Gospel of Climate Skepticism Robin Globus Veldman, 2019-10-22 Why are white evangelicals the most skeptical major religious group in America regarding climate change Previous scholarship has pointed to cognitive factors such as conservative politics anti science attitudes aversion to big government and theology Drawing on qualitative fieldwork The Gospel of Climate Skepticism reveals the extent to which climate skepticism and anti environmentalism have in fact become embedded in the social world of many conservative evangelicals Rejecting the common assumption that evangelicals skepticism is simply a side effect of political or theological conservatism the book further shows that between 2006 and 2015 leaders and pundits associated with the Christian Right widely promoted skepticism as the biblical position on climate change The Gospel of Climate Skepticism offers a compelling portrait of how during a critical period of recent history political and religious interests intersected to prevent evangelicals from offering a unified voice in support of legislative action to address climate change Race and Social Policy Sandra Edmonds Crewe, 2022-11-10 Social policy is not blind It has been at the forefront of perpetuating structural inequality in many of the systems charged with serving and protecting The impact of race on social policy is linked to historical intended and unintended patterns of discrimination that have resulted in disparate impact for many across their life course This book uses critical race theory to examine key social policies The chapters give primacy to addressing the experiences of African Americans in navigating systems that are flawed by structural racism and yet too often attribute individual pathology rather than systemic injustice to the worsening life circumstances they find themselves in Using scholarship personal and professional experiences the contributors offer valuable insight on differential treatment and the resulting missed opportunities to address historical barriers that if not addressed will continue the cycle of harm for marginalized members in society The Covid 19 pandemic along with the loss of Black lives through carceral injustices have amplified the national discourse about race and social policy Additionally critical race theory has been championed by many as a framework for understanding the structural inequalities that plague our nation Others have assailed the theory as promoting hate guilt and divisiveness The contributors use critical race theory in combination with other theoretical frameworks to provide context for the persistent and pernicious injustices that have historically plagued society Their work offers context with the goal of policy changes aimed at eradicating systemic injustices that negatively impact quality of life Race and Social Policy is a significant new contribution to understanding and addressing systemic and structural racism and it will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of social work politics public policy and sociology This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Social Work in Public Health

E-Pedagogy for the Digital Age Dr. P. C. Nagasubramani, Adult learners have more options for enrolling in postsecondary education than ever before and they are able to use their learning style preference in deciding which program best meets their needs For some of these students those programs are fully online and for others there is minimal use of technology As technology grows and become more integrated into individual lives the unique learning styles and preferences of adults need to learn to be incorporated into instructional design Drawing on a regional sample of US colleges 545 adult learners in a graduate programs were surveyed about how to effectively build community in their online classes Results indicated some agreement with these instructional tools Mature adult learners however were found to have stronger agreement with strategies that included work outside of the formal online class These results suggest perhaps a greater comfort for adults in working in spaces where there is less likelihood of being judged or graded and that they might value relational work with other students in different ways than younger adults
