Sex Education A Womans Awakening English Edition:

Women on the March, 1966 The Awakening of Women Frances Swiney, 1899 Women Artists in Interwar France

Paula J. Birnbaum, 2017-07-05 Women Artists in Interwar France Framing Femininities illuminates the importance of the Soci des Femmes Artists Modernes more commonly known as FAM and returns this group to its proper place in the history of modern art In particular this volume explores how FAM and its most famous members Suzanne Valadon Marie Laurencin and Tamara de Lempicka brought a new approach to the most prominent themes of female embodiment the self portrait motherhood and the female nude These women reimagined art s conventions and changed the direction of both art history and the politics of their contemporary art world FAM has been excluded from histories of modern art despite its prominence during the interwar years Paula Birnbaum s study redresses this omission contextualizing the group s legacy in light of the conservative politics of 1930s France The group s artistic response to the reactionary views and images of women at the time is shown to be a key element in the narrative of modernist formalism Although many FAM works are missing one reason for the lack of attention paid to their efforts Birnbaum s extensive research through archives press clippings and first hand interviews with artists families reclaims FAM as an important chapter in the history of art from the interwar years

Portraits of Women in International Law Immi Tallgren, 2023 This fascinating volume offers a set of biographies of women and gender non conforming people who made a difference in international law but who in most cases were never well known or have been forgotten These portraits describe each individual s engagement with international law the context in which they worked and the barriers they faced Learning While Black and Queer Ed Brockenbrough, 2024-07-08

Haunted Modernities

Anru Lee,2023 In 1973 twenty five young women drowned in a ferry accident on their way to work in factories in Taiwan s Kaohsiung Export Processing Zone Their remains were recovered and interred collectively in what came to be called the Twenty five Maiden Ladies Tomb Without a husband s ancestral hall where they would have been laid to rest the spirits of these unmarried women were considered homeless and possibly vengeful and so the Maiden Ladies Tomb was viewed as a place to be avoided especially by young men traveling alone fearful of encountering a female ghost searching for a husband Over the years numerous plans were made to revamp the tomb site finally in 2008 at the urging of local feminist communities the Kaohsiung City government renovated the Twenty five Maiden Ladies Tomb and renamed it the Memorial Park for Women Laborers Haunted Modernities interrogates the nature of shared expressions of history sentiments and memory as it investigates the role of these women and other female workers in the shifting public narrative during and after the Maiden Ladies Tomb renovation By exploring the ways in which the deceased young women were perceived to haunt the living and the diverse renovations recommended the book illuminates how women workers in Taiwan have been conceptualized in the last several decades In their proposals to renovate the tomb the interested parties forged specific accounts of history transforming the collective burial site according to varying definitions of heritage as Taiwan shifted to a postindustrial economy where factory jobs were no longer the main source of employment Their plans engaged with acts of remembering communal and individual to create new ways of understanding the present The Twenty five Maiden Ladies Tomb as a heritage site elucidates how history and memory are not simply about the past but part of a forward looking process that emerges from the social political and economic needs of the present legitimized and validated through its associations with the past

Daughters of Formosa Doris Ting-Ling Chang,2002 Abstract This dissertation is an attempt to link Taiwanese advocacy for women s rights in the Japanese colonial era 1895 1945 with its counterpart in the post World War II period As a case study of intellectual production derived from the interaction between an East Asian sociopolitical milieu and various strains of Western feminism this dissertation contributes to cross cultural feminist scholarship and to East Asian studies A

Return to Modesty Wendy Shalit,2000-01-24 Offering a persuasive alternative to modern morals Shalit argues for the revival of a code of modesty to guide the behavior of men and women alike Ageing, Gender, and Illness in

Anglophone Literature Heike Hartung,2015-12-07 This study establishes age as a category of literary history delineating age in its interaction with gender and narrative genre Based on the historical premise that the view of ageing as a burden emerges as a specific narrative in the late eighteenth century the study highlights how the changing experience of ageing is shaped by that of gender By reading the Bildungsroman as a coming of age novel the book asks how the telling of a life in time affects individual age narratives Bringing together the different perspectives of age and disability studies the book argues that illness is already an important issue in the Bildungsroman s narratives of ageing This theoretical stance provides new interpretations of canonical novels visiting authors such as Johann Wolfgang Goethe Frances Burney Maria Edgeworth Jane Austen Charles Dickens George Eliot Samuel Beckett and Jonathan Franzen Drawing on the link between age and illness in the Bildungsroman s age narratives the genre of dementia narrative is presented as one of the directions which the

Bildungsroman takes after its classical period Applying these theoretical perspectives to canonical novels of the nineteenth century and to the new genre of dementia narrative the volume also provides new insights into literary and genre history This book introduces a new theoretical approach to cultural age studies and offers a comprehensive analysis of the connection between narratology literary theory gender and age studies Women, Feminism, and Social Change in Argentina, Chile, and Uruguay, 1890-1940 Asuncion Lavrin, 1998-01-01 Feminists in the Southern Cone countries Argentina Chile and Uruguay between 1910 and 1930 obliged political leaders to consider gender in labor regulation civil codes public health programs and politics Feminism thus became a factor in the modernization of these geographically linked but diverse societies in Latin America Although feminists did not present a unified front in the discussion of divorce reproductive rights and public health schemes to regulate sex and marriage this work identifies feminism as a trigger for such discussion which generated public and political debate on gender roles and social change Asunci n Lavrin recounts changes in gender relations and the role of women in each of the three countries thereby contributing an enormous amount of new information and incisive analysis to the histories of Argentina Chile and Uruguay Riotous Flesh April R. Haynes, 2015-10-21 The claim that masturbation isn't good for you didn't just come out of nowhere As April Haynes shows a range of feminist reformers in nineteenth century America all agreed that the solitary vice caused untold suffering and death that women and girls masturbated as frequently as did men and boys that they did so because they lacked access to sexual information and that therefore female sex education would save lives Haynes in short shows that nascent feminists remade what might have been a puritanical crusade into a basis for envisioning their own sexual self mastery with mixed results for Haynes also tells the story of how before the advent of sexology or even the professionalization of medicine a great silent army of evangelical female reformers first popularized then institutionalized the normative sexual discourse of the nineteenth century
