The Shadows Zabus, 2021-08-10 To apply for asylum Refugee 214 must tell his story With him in the room are a man from his new country and the shadows of four loved ones who did not survive the journey 214 reveals how he and his younger sister fled their homes and set off toward the border how they met and suffered with friends and lost them and how the plight of the refugee is an experience that erases differences between individuals even as it threatens to erase the individuals themselves The only one left to tell the tale 214 swallows his fears and relates what he and the shadows saw and did in the hope that his life and the lives of the others won't have been in vain Creators Zabus Hippolyte present an intimate and heartrending look at one fictional refugee's story while encompassing the larger plight of displaced people

Cultural Dissemination and Translational Communities Katja Krebs, 2014-06-03 The early twentieth century is widely regarded as a crucial period in British theatre history it witnessed radical reform and change with regard to textual conceptual and institutional practices and functions Theatre practitioners and cultural innovators such as translators Harley Granville Barker William Archer and Jacob Thomas Grein amongst others laid the foundations during this period for what is now regarded to be modern British theatre In this groundbreaking work Katja Krebs offers one of the first extended attempts to integrate translation history with theatre history by analyzing the relationship between translational practice and the development of domestic dramatic tradition She examines the relationship between the multiple roles inhabited by these cultural and theatrical reformers directors playwrights critics actors and translators and their positioning in a wider social and cultural context Here she takes into consideration the translators as members of an artistic network or community the ideological and personal factors underlying translational choices the contemporaneous evaluative framework within which this translational activity for the stage occurred as well as the imprints of social and cultural traces within specific translated texts Krebs employs the examples from this period in order to raise a series of wider issues on translating dramatic texts which are important to a variety of periods and cultures Cultural Dissemination and Translational Communities demonstrates that an analysis of stage translational practices allows for an understanding of theatre history that avoids being narrowly national and instead embraces an appreciation of cultural hybridity The importance of translational activity in the construction of a domestic dramatic tradition is demonstrated within a framework of interdisciplinarity that enhances our understanding of theatrical translational as well as cultural and social systems at the international level      Shadows of Empire in West Africa John Kwadwo Osei-Tutu, Victoria Ellen Smith, 2017-09-06 These essays reexamine European forts in West Africa as hubs where different peoples interacted negotiated and transformed each other socially politically culturally and economically This collection brings together scholars of history archaeology cultural studies and others to present a nuanced image of fortifications showing that over time the functions and impacts of the buildings changed as the motives missions allegiances and power dynamics in the region also changed Focusing on the fortifications of Ghana the authors discuss how these structures may be interpreted as connecting Ghanaian and West African histories to a multitude of global histories They also enable greater understanding of the fortifications contemporary use as heritage sites where the Afro European experience is narrated through guided tours and museums      Encyclopedia of American Indian Literature Jennifer McClinton-Temple, Alan Velie, 2010-05-12 American Indians have produced some of the most powerful and lyrical literature ever written in North America Encyclopedia of American Indian Literature covers the field from the earliest recorded works to some of today s most exciting writers This encyclopedia features the most respected widely read and influential American Indian writers to date publisher description      The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996 Survey of twentieth century English language writers and writing from around the world celebrating all major genres with entries on literary movements periodicals more than 400 individual works and articles on approximately 2 400 authors      Coming to Light Stanford University. Diehl, 2024-01-02 A critical introduction to how the Nagasaki atomic bombing has been remembered especially in contrast to that of Hiroshima In the decades following the atomic bombing of Nagasaki on August 9 1945 the city s residents processed their trauma and formed narratives of the destruction and reconstruction in ways that reflected their regional history and social makeup In doing so they created a multi layered urban identity as an atomic bombed city that differed markedly from Hiroshima s image Shadows of Nagasaki traces how Nagasaki s trauma history and memory of the bombing manifested through some of the city s many post atomic memoryscapes such as literature religious discourse art historical landmarks commemorative spaces and architecture In addition the book pays particular attention to how the city s history of international culture exemplified best perhaps by the region s Christian especially Catholic past informed its response to the atomic trauma and shaped its postwar urban identity Key historical actors in the volume s chapters include writers Japanese Catholic leaders atomic bombing survivors known as hibakusha municipal officials American occupation personnel peace activists artists and architects The story of how these diverse groups of people processed and participated in the discourse surrounding the legacies of Nagasaki s bombing shows how regional history culture and politics rather than national ones become the most influential factors shaping narratives of destruction and reconstruction after mass trauma In turn and especially in the case of urban destruction new identities emerge and old ones are rekindled not to serve national politics or social interests but to bolster narratives that reflect local circumstances

Where the New World Is Martyn Bone,2018-01-15 Where the New World Is assesses how fiction published since 1980 has resituated the U S South globally and how earlier twentieth century writing already had done so in ways traditional southern literary studies tended to ignore Martyn Bone argues that this body of fiction has over the course of some eighty years challenged received readings and understandings of the U S South as a fixed place largely untouched by immigration or even internal migration and economic globalization The writers discussed by Bone emphasize how migration and labor have reconfigured the region s relation to the nation and a range of transnational scales hemispheric Jamaica the Bahamas Haiti transatlantic Black Atlantic Denmark England Mauritania and transpacific global southern Australia China Vietnam Writers under consideration include Zora Neale Hurston Nella Larsen John Oliver Killens Russell Banks Erna Brodber Cynthia Shearer Ha Jin Monique Truong Lan Cao Toni Morrison Peter Matthiessen Dave Eggers and Laila Lalami The book also seeks to resituate southern studies by drawing on theories of scale that originated in human geography In this way Bone also offers a new paradigm in which the U S South is thoroughly engaged with a range of other scales from the local to the global making both literature about the region and southern studies itself truly transnational in scope
