Sexual Morality John Piderit, 2012-11-03 Informal customs have become the norm for most young adults in matters of sexual intimacy Unfortunately the sexual revolution has not proven to be as beneficial to women as was hoped and society offers young men little preparation for future roles as husbands and fathers In this book Father Piderit argues that a natural law approach to morality provides a grounded pathway toward marriage and shows why these fairly traditional practices help young people find a partner whom they can realistically promise to love until death do them part Offering theory but focusing on practice this book helps young adults understand why sexual intimacy should be reserved for marriage The first two sections develop the natural law basis for behavior Father Piderit points out that natural law relies primarily on reason not religion and his explanation provides a way to understand a Christian approach to morality as grounded in nature The final third of the book explores what religious practice and membership in a Christian denomination adds to the natural law approach Father Piderit uses clear practical examples to show that positive goals are what motivate human beings By breaking down the potentially abstract concept of morality into a set of intuitive practices guided by natural law Father Piderit provides young people and students with the tools to create a positive courtship and ultimately a solid marriage based on strong shared values and mutual respect Talk Time Handbook Marilyn Bentson, Elisabeth Mitchell, 1995 This manual is based on the concept that group based conversational opportunity for newly arrived refugees using volunteer facilitators could be replicated Talk Time programs flourish in different settings Most commonly a volunteer ESL tutor program decides to add a Talk Time component to its existing services However sometimes the need to start a Talk Time program emerges from another type of organization or the community For example some classroom based adult education programs have decided to begin a Talk Time with volunteers on campus as a supplement for the ESL classes Strategies to Improve Access to Medicaid Home- and Community-based Services United States.
