The Problem with Education Technology (Hint: It's Not the Technology) Ben Fink, Robin Brown, 2016-02-01 Education is in crisis at least so we hear And at the center of this crisis is technology New technologies like computer based classroom instruction online K 12 schools MOOCs massive open online courses and automated essay scoring may be our last great hope or the greatest threat we have ever faced In The Problem with Education Technology Ben Fink and Robin Brown look behind the hype to explain the problems and potential of these technologies Focusing on the case of automated essay scoring they explain the technology how it works and what it does and doesn t do They explain its origins its evolution both in the classroom and in our culture and the controversy that surrounds it Most significantly they expose the real problem the complicity of teachers and curriculum builders in creating an education system so mechanical that machines can in fact often replace humans and how teachers students and other citizens can work together to solve it Offering a new perspective on the change that educators can hope organize and lobby for The Problem with Education Technology challenges teachers and activists on our side even as it provides new evidence to counter the profit making labor saving logics that drive the current push for technology in the classroom
