Handbook of Speech-Language Therapy in Sub-Saharan Africa Ulrike M. Lüdtke, Edward Kija, Mathew Kinyua
Karia, 2023-02-03 This book synthesizes research on language development and communication disability in Sub Saharan Africa and highlights best practices for providing speech and language therapy services to individuals with language communication and hearing disorders across the lifespan. The book brings together a wide range of international contributions from various disciplines such as speech language pathology, audiology, developmental psychology, language education, social work, neurology, neuropsychology, pediatrics, linguistics, pedagogy, and phonetics to provide perspectives on problems, challenges, ideas, concepts, and models to serve the people in Sub Saharan Africa. Key areas of coverage include Challenges for speech language therapists in the health sector, Community awareness and the sustainable delivery of services, Culture specific support of communication and language development in early childhood, Malnutrition, dysphagia, feeding difficulties, pediatric HIV, and related issues. Communication disability treatments including assessment and intervention, augmentative and alternative communication, AAC, and issues specific to bilingualism and biliteracy. Inclusive education of children with communication disorders with case studies from Rwanda, Tanzania, Kenya, and South Africa. The Handbook of Speech Language Therapy in Sub-Saharan Africa is an essential reference for researchers, professors, and graduate students, as well as clinicians, therapists, and other professionals in developmental psychology, speech language pathology, and therapy, social work, neuropsychology, pediatrics, special education, community based rehabilitation, and all related disciplines.

South Africa's Insurgent Citizens Doctor Julian Brown, 2015-07-15 Twenty years on from South Africa's first democratic election, the post-apartheid political order is more fractured and more fractious than ever before. Police violence seems the order of the day whether in response to a protest in Ficksburg or a public meeting outside a mine in Marikana. For many, this has signalled the end of the South African dream. Politics they declare is the preserve of the corrupt, the self-interested, the incompetent and the violent. They are wrong. Julian Brown argues that a new kind of politics can be seen on the streets and in the courtrooms of the country. This politics is made by a new kind of citizen one that is neither respectful nor passive but instead insurgent. The collapse of the dream of a consensus politics is not a cause for despair. South Africa's political order is fractured and in its cracks new forms of activity, new leaders and new movements are emerging.

Tone and Inflection Enrique L. Palancar, Jean Léonard, 2016-03-07 Tone is about melody and meaning; inflection is about grammar and this book is about a bit of both. The contributions to this volume study possible and sometimes complex ways in which the tones of a language engage in the expression of grammatical categories. There is a widespread conception that tone is a lexical phenomenon only. This is partly a consequence of the main interest in tone coming from phonology while the main interest in inflection has stemmed from segmental morphology Similarly textbooks on inflection and textbooks on tone give very few examples of the inflectional use of tone and such examples are often the same ones or too similar This volume aims to broaden our understanding of the link between tone and inflection by showing that there is more to tone than meets the eye The book includes general chapters as well as case studies on lesser known languages of Asia Africa and Papua New Guinea with a special focus on the Oto Manguean languages a large and diverse linguistic stock of Mexico that inspired Kenneth Pike's 1948 seminal work on tone Most of the contributions to this volume provide first hand data from recent fieldwork that stems from important language documentation activities Setswana exam study guide Refilwe Ramagoshi-Malimabe,2009
