Consuming Urban Culture in Contemporary Vietnam Lisa Drummond, Mandy Thomas, 2005-07-25 Vietnam is currently undergoing a metamorphosis from a relatively closed society with a centrally planned economy to a rapidly urbanising one with a global outlook These changes have been the catalyst for an exciting ferment of activity in popular culture This volume contains contributions from scholars engaged in the most up to date social research in Vietnam as well as some of Vietnam's most popular cultural producers who are forging new ways of imagining the present whilst at the same time engaging actively in reinterpreting the past The diverse ways that Vietnam is culturally and socially negotiating the future are examined as the book addresses issues of indigenisation of cultural influences ambivalence surrounding change and the consistent blurring of boundaries between informal non state cultural activities and formal institutional structures in the evolution of a civil society in Vietnam

Communion Kim Fay, 2010 Living in Vietnam for four years in the 1990s Seattle native Kim Fay fell in love with the romantic landscapes the rich culture and the uninhibited warmth of the people A decade later she grew hungry for more Inspired by the dream of learning to make a Vietnamese meal for her friends and family in America Kim returned to Vietnam and embarked on an unforgettable five week culinary journey from Hanoi to Saigon Joined by her sister and best Vietnamese girlfriend Kim set off to taste as much as possible while exploring rituals and traditions street cafés and haute cuisine famine and feast and Communism and the legacy of war Together the three women discovered a society shaped by its ever changing relationship with food Every encounter serves up an enticing morsel from uncovering the secret world of ragu in the French hill town of Dalat to bonding with the Julia Child of Vietnam in Saigon Epicures and culture buffs will delight in markets restaurants farms fisheries and cooking classes as Kim assembles her dream meal and shares recipes such as banana flower salad and clay pot fish Examining how we eat reflects who we are as individuals and as communities Communion A Culinary Journey Through Vietnam offers a feast for armchair gourmets as well as a colorful guide for travelers hungering for their next adventure

The Next Frontier: National Development, Political Change, and the Death Penalty in Asia David T Johnson, Franklin E Zimring, 2009-01-02 Today two thirds of the world s nations have abolished the death penalty either officially or in practice due mainly to the campaign to end state executions led by Western European nations Will this success spread to Asia where over 95 percent of executions now occur Do Asian values and traditions support capital punishment or will development and democratization end executions in the world s most rapidly developing region David T Johnson an expert on law and society in Asia and Franklin E Zimring a senior authority on capital punishment combine detailed case studies of the death penalty in Asian nations with cross national comparisons to identify the critical factors for the future of Asian death penalty policy The clear trend is away from reliance on state execution and many nations with death penalties in their criminal codes rarely use it Only the hard line authoritarian regimes of China Vietnam Singapore and North Korea execute with any frequency and when authoritarian states experience democratic reforms the rate of executions drops sharply as in Taiwan and South Korea Debunking the myth of Asian values Johnson and Zimring demonstrate that politics rather than culture or tradition is the major obstacle to the end of executions Carefully researched and full of valuable lessons The Next Frontier is the authoritative resource on the death penalty in Asia for scholars policymakers and advocates around the world

The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred, 2014 Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions including worship theology spirituality inter religious relations interventions in society and mission The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization decolonization modernization democratization identity construction of social groups and various social movements With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia

The Urban Vernacular in Southeast Asia Nor Zalina Harun, Shireen Jahn Kassim, 2025-05-16 This book constructs a number of discourses dialectics and analyses across the disciplines of urban form architecture and urban experience thus incorporating both conservation and design issues It bridges the gap between practice and theory by reconstructing the role of the village or vernacular in the discourses and trends of the twenty first century post Covid19 environment Bringing together for the first time the confluences of theory and practice in the urban vernacular and the urban village the contributors use vernacular concepts and settings as a common framework serving as cultural bridges connecting traditional forms ecologies and habitats to new global ideas industrial economies and access to developing urban sustainability design planning and services in Asia s rising megacities The book begins with concerns of urban layout and morphology aiming to establish discourse shared principles and terminology around conventional ideas of the village or traditional settlements apparently organic and disordered nature It then moves into architectural dimensions capturing formal cases of how the vernacular or traditional indigenous local concepts have inspired new ideas in award winning architecture and hence the importance of re examining the vernacular in light of the ongoing need to produce a more sustainable and place conscious fit in modern architecture and urban planning The book will be of interest to researchers in the fields of architecture urban planning and design urban geography design studies landscape architecture history of architecture urbanism and Asian Studies in particular those concerning Southeast Asia
