

CHAPTER 4

- A whole year passes, and Scout is disenchanted with school life. The mystery of the Radley place deepens as the children begin to find small gifts in a tree outside. As yet, Scout does not suspect that these come from Boo. Dill arrives, and the children invent a new game re-enacting the drama of Boo Radley's life. Scout rolls inside a tyre into the Radley garden. Afterwards, Scout is apprehensive partly because she sense that Atticus disapproves of their game, partly because - unknown to the boys –she heard laughter coming from behind a shutter at the Radley place.
