Connecting Across Disciplines Susan Chenelle,Audrey Fisch,2016-02-10 While the Common Core has made informational text a focal point in English language arts classrooms around the country it has also made literacy a key concern in other subjects Teaching literacy in the disciplines and navigating informational texts are challenging prospects How can content area teachers find high quality informational texts that will enhance their curriculum How do they go about working with these new texts Most importantly how do teachers balance their responsibility towards their subject matter with the new charge to incorporate disciplinary literacy The key is to connect communicate and collaborate Teachers can meet these challenges together and enhance student literacy engagement and motivation along the way This volume offers a practical model that teachers in any discipline can use to incorporate informational texts into their classrooms on their own or in collaboration with colleagues in other content areas We also share suggestions and ideas for initiating and implementing collaboration between teachers of any discipline even those working at the secondary level with complex schedules and curricula Fostering Comprehension in English Classes Raymond Philpott, Michael F.

Graves, 2009-01-01 This valuable research based guide gives middle and secondary English teachers the tools they need to improve the comprehension skills of all their students Core chapters explain specific practices for fostering learning from texts leading students to a thorough lasting understanding of subject matter nurturing meaningful responses to literature explicitly teaching comprehension strategies and engaging students in higher order thinking An additional chapter highlights vocabulary instruction Throughout attention is given to building comprehension skills in a diverse range of students from high achievers to struggling readers and English language learners A wealth of hands on materials are featured including lesson plans scaffolded reading experiences and a richly detailed example of a teaching unit that shows how all facets of comprehension instruction can be brought together in the classroom Southern by the Grace of God Megan

Hunt, 2024-11-01 Like the media coverage of the civil rights era itself Hollywood dramas have reinforced regional stereotypes of race class and gender to cleanse and redeem the wider nation from the implications of systemic racism As Southern by the Grace of God reveals however Hollywood manipulates southern religion in particular to further enhance this pattern of difference and regional exceptionalism consistently displacing broader American racism through a representation of the poor white southerner who is as religious as he and it is always a he is racist By foregrounding the role of religion in these characterizations Megan Hunt illuminates the pernicious intersections between Hollywood and southern exceptionalism a long standing U S nationalist discourse that has assigned racial problems to the errant South alone enabling white supremacy to not only endure but reproduce throughout the nation Southern by the Grace of God examines the presentation and functions of Protestant Christianity in cinematic depictions of the American South Hunt argues that religion is an understudied signifier of the South on film used with varying degrees of sophistication to define the region's presumed exceptionalism for regional national and international audiences Rooted in close textual analysis and primary research into the production and reception of more than twenty Hollywood films that engage with the civil rights movement and or its legacy this book provides detailed case studies of films that use southern religiosity to negotiate American anxieties around race class and gender Religion Hunt contends is an integral trope of the South in popular culture and especially crucial to the divisions essential to Hollywood storytelling Discussion Questions: Literature BookCaps, 2014-01-23

If you are having trouble getting students engaged in books or need essay topics try this book of discussion questions Topics are included for the following books The Adventures of Tom Sawyer Romeo and Juliet The Grapes of Wrath A Separate Peace Walden The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Fahrenheit 451 Moby Dick Hamlet A Tale of Two Cities To Kill a Mockingbird This is a
