Tobias Wolff The Liar:

The Liar Tobias Wolff, 1989      A Study Guide for Mary Karr's "The Liar's Club" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016

James Baldwin's "Sonny's Blues" Tom Jenks, 2024-07-17 A close reading of James Baldwin's short story Sonny's Blues that provides insight into his life and ideas about art Tom Jenks's reading of James Baldwin's Sonny's Blues follows a scene by scene sometimes line by line discussion of the pattern by which Baldwin indelibly writes Sonny's Blues into the consciousness of readers It provides ongoing observations of the aesthetics underlying the particulars of the story with references to Edward P Jones whose magnificent story All Aunt Hagar's Children bears a knowing relationship to Sonny's Blues to Charlie Parker's music and to Billie Holiday's I Am a Blues Woman and John Coltrane's A Love Supreme as part of the musical progression Baldwin creates and with attention to Baldwin's oratorical gifts and the biblical references in the story to its time structure characterizations dramatic action and most of all its totality of effect Drawing on Baldwin's book length essay The Fire Next Time which Baldwin published six years after the publication of the short story Tom Jenks offers insight on some of the sources in Baldwin's life for Sonny's Blues and on the logic and passion by which life may be meaningfully transformed into art

Encyclopedia of the American Short Story Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Two volume set that presents an introduction to American short fiction from the 19th century to the present

Introduction to the Short Story Robert W. Boynton, Maynard Mack, 1992 A classic since its original publication twenty five years ago Introduction to the Short Story is now revised and expanded with the addition of six stories new to this fourth edition The text opens with a new section devoted to examining how readers of short stories or any kind of literature can and do approach such reading

A Theology of Criticism Michael P. Murphy, 2008-01-09 A number of critics and scholars argue for the notion of a distinctly Catholic variety of imagination not as a matter of doctrine or even of belief but rather as an artistic sensibility They figure the blend of intellectual emotional spiritual and ethical assumptions that proceed from Catholic belief constitutes a vision of reality that necessarily informs the artist's imaginative expression The notion of a Catholic imagination however has lacked thematic and theological coherence To articulate this intuition is to cross the problematic interdisciplinary borders between theology and literature and although scholars have developed useful methods for undertaking such interdisciplinary border crossings relatively few have been devoted to a serious examination of the theological aesthetic upon which these other aesthetics might hinge In A Theology of Criticism Michael Patrick Murphy proposes a new framework to better define the concept of a Catholic imagination He explores the many ways in which the theological work of Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905-1988 can provide the model content and optic for distinguishing this type of imagination from others Since Balthasar views art and literature precisely as theologies Murphy surveys a broad array of poetry drama fiction and film and sets it against central aspects of Balthasar's theological program In doing so Murphy seeks to develop a theology of criticism This interdisciplinary work recovers the legitimate place of a distinct theological imagination in critical theory showing that Balthasar's voice both challenges and complements contemporary developments Murphy also contends that postmodern interpretive methodology with its careful critique of entrenched philosophical assumptions and reiterated codes of meaning is not the threat to theological meaning that many fear On the contrary by juxtaposing postmodern critical methodologies against Balthasar's visionary theological range a space is made available for literary critics and theologians alike More important the critic is provided with the tools to assess challenge and celebrate the theological imagination as it is depicted today Trickster Makes this World Lewis Hyde, 2008 Social sciences Cambridge Checkpoints VCE Text Guides: This Boy's Life by Tobias Wolff Nick Konstantatos, 2014-06-06 Cambridge Checkpoints VCE Text Guides are an invaluable digital resource for all students of senior English This guide for Area of Study 1 will help you develop the confidence you need to write essays throughout the year and to build your skills in reading and responding in readiness for the end of year exam Cambridge Checkpoints VCE Text Guides for Area of Study 1 offer you Detailed character analysis Discussion of themes ideas and values A focus on the language features and conventions of your text Revision questions Sample topics Practice essays and essay writing tips Comprehensive reference lists Lying, Cheating & Stealing Sara Nicklès, 1997 With over 25 page turning excerpts from this century's wildest and most entertaining American writers Lying Cheating Stealing brings back the days when getting rich and getting even were more important than multitasking working out and recycling This priceless collection reminds readers how good it feels to get what you want in bed in the bank and just in the nick of time The Substance of Things Hoped for, 1987-12 Sharing the basic human theme of good versus evil these 21 short stories from contemporary Catholic writers confront the limitations of weakness and sinfulness and celebrate the open ended mysteries of life death and God English Now International Association of University Professors of English. Conference, 2008

Fragments of a Mortal Mind Donald Anderson, 2021-04-06 We are where we've been and what we've read aren't we Where else do we get the experience we need to evocatively live At once a memoir a reading journal and a novel Fragments of a Mortal Mind is a daring contemporary commonplace book Donald Anderson critically acclaimed author of Gathering Noise from My Life and Below Freezing shows us how the disparate elements of our lives collect to construct our deepest selves and help us to make sense of it all Anderson layers his personal experiences and reflections with those of others who have wrestled with inner and outer social cultural and political memories that are not as accurate as history might suggest but that each of us believe nonetheless He challenges the reader's sense of memory and fact downplaying the latter in explaining how each of us crafts our own personal histories As Anderson weaves his voice among numerous other voices and ideas that rest upon other ideas we are faced with larger issues of human existence war memory trauma mortality religion fear joy ugliness and occasional beauty What we have here is a meditation on living in America We are shown how the world we consume becomes us as we metabolize it How we as humans through our own fragments of memories influences and experiences become our true selves By charting fragments of thoughts over a lifetime Anderson exposes a way of thinking and perceiving the world that is refreshingly intuitive and desperately needed Fragments of a Mortal Mind is a powerful masterpiece that closely resembles our lived experiences and is a vivid reflection of our time The Rockies in First Person Ron McFarland, 2014-01-10 The autobiography has not always been acknowledged as true literature Since 1970 however American memoirs have revealed themselves as a respectable literary genre distinct with an inimitable literary voice and a unique capacity to intersect narration and reflection This study focuses critical attention on ten memoirs from the northern U S Rockies including Utah Colorado Wyoming Montana and Idaho By comparing memoirs representing states that share similar demographic ecological and socio economic characteristics this historic and literary analysis reveals both commonalities and divergences among American Western memoirs Each chapter compares two books of similar thematic concerns ranging from regional values and rural evolution to dynamic landscapes and the experiences of American Indians
