Eminently Eminence

Guitar speakers... an integral ingredient in the recipe for great guitar tones... Chris Rose runs Eminence, and as a guitar player, he is intimately familiar with the speakers made by Eminence and their importance in the sounds we crave as guitarists. Join us as we dig deep into the history of the company and the speakers they make, plus new reviews of sixteen Eminence speakers.

TQR: Let's begin with a brief history of Eminence, Chris. When was the company founded by Bob Gault and what was his background that enabled him to build speakers?

Bob Gault grew up in Deloit, Ohio, a town so small that his high school class consisted of 13 students. After one semester at Ohio State University he joined the Navy, aspiring to become a pilot.

Unfortunately, his vision would not allow him to do that, so he became a line officer in the Navy. After leaving the service he returned to Ohio State University for a while, but ultimately, he got his degree in physics from the University of Georgia. His first job after college, however, was as Chief Chemist of a small chemical company, which points to the versatility of Bob's extensive knowledge.
