University of Waterloo , Compressed Sensing with Side Information on the Feasible Region Mohammad Rostami,2013-05-15 This book discusses compressive sensing in the presence of side information Compressive sensing is an emerging technique for efficiently acquiring and reconstructing a signal Interesting instances of Compressive Sensing CS can occur when apart from sparsity side information is available about the source signals The side information can be about the source structure distribution etc Such cases can be viewed as extensions of the classical CS In these cases we are interested in incorporating the side information to either improve the quality of the source reconstruction or decrease the number of samples required for accurate reconstruction In this book we assume availability of side information about the feasible region The main applications investigated are image deblurring for optical imaging 3D surface reconstruction and reconstructing spatiotemporally correlated sources The author shows that the side information can be used to improve the quality of the reconstruction compared to the classic compressive sensing The book will be of interest to all researchers working on compressive sensing inverse problems and image processing Minerals Yearbook, 2008, V. 3, Area Reports, International, Asia and the Pacific ,2010-10-25 NOTE NO FURTHER DISCOUNT FOR THIS PRINT PRODUCT OVERSTOCK SALE Significantly reduced list price Provides an annual review of mineral production and trade and of mineral related government and industry developments in Asia and the Pacific Each report includes sections on government policies and programs environmental issues trade and production data industry structure and ownership commodity sector developments infrastructure and a summary outlook American citizens investors commodity traders business executives and students pursuing coursework in statistics and comparative governments may be interested in this volume Related products Social Security Programs Throughout the World Asia and the Pacific 2012 can be found here <https://bookstore.gpo.gov/products/sku/053070000337> Other print volumes in the Minerals Yearbook series collection can be found here https://bookstore.gpo.gov/catalog/science/technology/minerals/metals/minerals_yearbook OECD Territorial Reviews: Toronto, Canada 2009 OECD,2010-03-11 This OECD Territorial Review of Toronto proposes a new sustainable competitiveness agenda to enhance productivity focusing on innovation cultural diversity and infrastructure as well as on green policies for this key economic region of Canada Standard & Poor's Stock Reports ,2010-03 Report of Activities Manitoba.
