British Women's Writing from Brontë to Bloomsbury, Volume 3
Adrienne E. Gavin, Carolyn W. de la L. Oulton, 2024-07-27 This five-volume series British Women's Writing From Brontë to Bloomsbury 1840-1940 historically contextualizes and traces developments in women's fiction from 1840 to 1940. Critically assessing both canonical and lesser-known British women's writing decade by decade, it redefines the landscape of women's authorship across a century of dynamic social and cultural change. With each of its volumes devoted to two decades, the series is wide in scope but historically sharply defined. Volume 3, 1880s and 1890s, analyses confluences and developments in women's writing across two fin de siècle decades. Its 16 original essays reconsider fiction by canonical and lesser-known women writers redefining the landscape of female authorship during these decades. By exploring women's fiction within the social and cultural contexts of the 1880s and 1890s, the collection distils in terms of women's writing how these decades discretely build on earlier work that is identifiably Victorian. The last two decades of the century in distinctive ways witnessed literary experiment, reflection on the limits of realism, and a fruitful sense of confusion about what was ending and what was about to begin.
