WORLD'S ECONOMIC AND COMMERCIAL GEOGRAPHY Dr. Haridas B. Jogdankar, Handbook of Research on Sustainable Development and Governance Strategies for Economic Growth in Africa Teshager Alemu, Kassa, Abebe Alebachew, Mulunesh, 2018-02-09 Despite increasing reports across the globe on renewable development and maintenance little is known regarding what strategies are required for improved economic growth and prosperity in Africa Improving an understanding of the methods for promoting growth through reusable resource development and administration is a vital topic of research to consider in assisting the continent's development. The Handbook of Research on Sustainable Development and Governance Strategies for Economic Growth in Africa provides emerging research on the strategies required to promote growth in Africa as well as the implications and issues of the expansion of prosperity. While highlighting sustainable education, pastoral development pathways and the public sector role, readers will learn about the history of sustainable development and governmental approaches to improving Africa's economy. This publication is a vital resource for policy makers, research institutions, academics, researchers, and advanced level students seeking current research on the theories and applications of development in societal and legal institutions. International Social Work David Cox, Manohar Pawar, 2012-12-04

International Social Work: Issues, Strategies, and Programs, Second Edition, draws together the practice wisdom emerging within the broad scope of international social work practice and its role in contributing to the international community's efforts in combating the major global social problems of poverty, conflict, and postconflict reconstruction; the development of countries and disadvantaged populations; migration and displacement; and the needs of specific populations such as child soldiers and AIDS orphans. Utilizing an integrated perspectives approach incorporating global, human rights, ecological, and social development perspectives, the International Social Work 2e is designed to prepare social workers, human services professionals, development practitioners who desire to play significant roles in responding to modern global challenges that are critical to the well-being of people, communities, nations, and ultimately of us all. Development Management Justice Nyigmah Bawole, Farhad Hossain, Asad K. Ghalib, Christopher J. Rees, Aminu Mamman, 2016-10-04. Despite significant financial investments, the rate of development and pace of poverty reduction in developing and transitional countries has not always matched expectations. Development management typically involves complex interactions between governmental and non-governmental organisations, donors, and members of the public and can be difficult to navigate. This volume brings together a group of international contributors to explore the theoretical and empirical underpinnings of development management and to consider the prospects and challenges associated with it in the context of both developing and transitional countries. Referring to dominant norms and values in public and developmental organisations, development management is tied up with the attitudes and perceptions of various stakeholders including government officials, public sector managers, aid workers, donors, and members of the public. Attempting to make sense of complex interactions between these actors is highly problematic and calls for new approaches, models, and insights. Based on cutting-edge research, the chapters challenge much of the previous discourse on the subject and evaluate the challenges and opportunities that it presents. Development Management offers academics, researchers, and practitioners of public administration, business, and management, international development, and political science a comprehensive and state-of-the-art review of current research on development management in the context of developing and transitional countries. Financial Performance of

Microfinance Institutions in Ghana and Uganda Johannes Flosbach, 2015 This book examines the determinants of financial performance of microfinance institutions MFIs in Ghana and Uganda against the backdrop of the public and academic debate over the financial and social implications of microfinance In the absence of a conceptual model the study chooses an inductive research approach with the objective of defining and developing a conceptual model with the capacity to explain quantify and compare the performance of MFIs The research is particularly relevant in the African context where microloan interest rates regularly exceed 100% per annum and where the microfinance industry is lacking behind its global peers in regard to financial and social performance Series Contributions to the Africa Research Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung Vol 59 Subject Economics Finance African Studies

Urban Informality Ahmed M. Soliman, 2021-04-26 This professional book introduces an analytical framework of urban informality perspectives in the Middle East that is aligned with the Global South The context of Egypt Lebanon and Jordan in the Middle East is the transregional focus of this book In these contexts the book opens a new arena of academic discussion on the theory and practice of urban informality Urban Informality Experiences and Urban Sustainability Transitions in Middle East Cities questions urban informality as a site of transitions interrelated and interlinked with urban sustainability transitions in speedy changes in a given environment The book presents urban informality sustainability transitions regarding resilience and adaptability that require shifts in urban systems Shifts from a static process to a dynamic process that eradicates the fragmentation between the tensions anxieties and pressures of four modes of production reproduction consumptions and distribution of goods and services in the city and its practices Finally through eleven chapters the concluding remarks explore to what extent and how can urban informality transitions be sustainable

Powered by Faith Tapiwa Praise Mapuranga, 2018-11-30 This book investigates the impact of Pentecostalism on the participation of women in business in Harare Zimbabwe Chapters in this volume trace the history of women s participation in business and highlight how Pentecostalism serves as a major motivating factor The central argument is that there is a way in which selected women s businesses are powered by the Spirit Contributors to the volume utilize case studies of selected Pentecostal churches and ministries to highlight how the religious ideologies of these churches galvanize them to engage in business They also draw patterns of similarity and difference across the different Pentecostal churches The volume demonstrates how Pentecostalism both facilitates and militates against women s participation in business concerning a specific setting in Zimbabwe with export oriented long run investment Foreign Direct Investment inflows as a necessary condition for economic transformation as it fits with Indonesia s manufacturing sector which is critical to the country Further the book thoroughly explains Indonesia s bilateral economic relations from its production networks with Indonesia s major partners to their impacts It highlights the products which will provide enormous potential benefits for the country The book also covers regional and mega regional aspects of Indonesia s economy Focusing on the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN it emphasises the regional organisation s three essential principles for economic integration openness convergence and inclusiveness In doing so research in the book also includes perspectives on how ASEAN sees Asia and the Indo Pacific framework It also argues that ASEAN needs centrality in enlarging its economic cooperation with other countries or regions and how a member state s unilateral and bilateral liberalisation are building blocks for ASEAN

Heterodox

Macroeconomics Robert A. Blecker, Mark Setterfield, 2019 p p1 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 10 0px Arial The last few decades have witnessed an outpouring of literature on macroeconomic models in the broad heterodox tradition of Marx Keynes Robinson Kaldor and Kalecki These models yield an alternative analytical framework in which the big questions of our day such as how inequality is related to growth or stagnation and whether long run growth is stable or unstable can be fruitfully addressed Heterodox Macroeconomics provides an accessible pedagogically oriented treatment of the leading models and approaches in heterodox macroeconomics with clear step by step presentations of core models and their solutions properties and implications

The Relevance of Philosophy Professor Sylvanus Nnoruka, 2022-12-14 The Relevance of Philosophy By Professor Sylvanus Ifeanyichukwu Nnoruka The Relevance of Philosophy defends the assertion that philosophy is not a theoretical irrelevant enterprise Philosophy is relevant to life and this book makes use of phenomenological and hermeneutical methods to offer solutions to the social political and economic problems in Africa specifically Nigeria With regard to Nigeria many are of the opinion that the problem is simply and uniquely that of leadership Others think it is ethnicity while some opine that it is lack of authentic education method The articles in the book tackle these and other relevant problems The authors recommend this book to all Nigerians and indeed every African The authors believe it is not enough to keep bemoaning the regrettable events of the past which have crippled Africa s development Rather through critical reasoning they aim to generate unique solutions to Nigeria s problems

Bangladesh's Leather Industry

Joseph Strasser, 2015-09-03 This study provides an overview of how the Bangladeshi leather value chain is organised and governed It analyses how the leather processing and leather goods footwear subsectors are integrated into the global market and to what extent informal arrangements including illicit practices are conducive to global market entry Power relations are dissected along the value chain in order to analyse how local producers adapt to upholding competitiveness The results of the work show the need to devise upgrading strategies which pay heed to the reality of informal dynamics in a global value chain GVC to improve the local producers competitiveness The GVC perspective was combined with considerations on upgrading subcontracting middlemen and informality to adequately analyse the complexity of the transactions in the chain The data of this study are drawn from empirical field studies in Dhaka Bangladesh and other sections of the international leather value chain during the time period of 2010 to 2014 A qualitative research approach was complemented with quantitative methods
