Resources in Education ,1998      Research in Education ,1971      An Ecological Approach To the Study of Child Care
Miriam K. Rosenthal,2014-05-22 A new type of childhood is experienced these days by many children in industrial societies that provide child care services The studies summarized in this book stem from a conceptual model based on an ecological approach to the study of development The family day care system in Israel is presented as a case study for the discussion of issues derived from this conceptual model issues which are of central concern to the investigation of child care in any society This book establishes how historical and socio economic processes influence the values and goals set by the society for its children and its social policy concerning child care service are interpreted by parents and early childhood educators relate to different definitions of quality care Unique in its integrative analysis of the daily experiences of infants and toddlers in family day care this volume examines cultural and social policy issues family background and parental beliefs caregiver s background and beliefs the nature of the child care environment and the child s personal characteristics Its theoretical and applied orientation is important to researchers interested in the study of out of home care for young children as well as educators developmental psychologists sociologists and social workers interested in the study of environmental influences on the child development The ecological model and the applied implications of the study are of special relevance to practitioners in the field of early childhood      Model Child Care Standards Act ,1985      The Oxford Handbook of Infant, Child, and Adolescent Sleep and Behavior Amy R. Wolfson,Hawley Montgomery-Downs,2013-11 A compendium of the state of the art for empirically based basic and applied science and treatment information about infant child and adolescent sleep and behavior for behavioral scientists educators policymakers and clinicians      Power and Emotion in Infant-Toddler Day Care Robin Lynn Leavitt,1994-07-01 A provocative ethnography of the lived experiences of infants and toddlers in day care centers      Child Care in Context Michael E. Lamb,Kathleen J. Sternberg,Carl-Philip Hwang,Anders G. Broberg,2014-01-02 Child care is an integral part of the web of influences and experiences that shape children s development Utilizing an interdisciplinary approach that covers both historic and economic contexts this unique book characterizes child care in 18 countries on five continents Specific historical roots and the current social contexts of child care are delineated in industrialized as well as in developing countries To increase the depth of crosscultural analysis and integration commentators from countries and disciplines other than the authors comment on the issues raised in each chapter      Mothering and Mother(Work) in the Times of Black Lives Matter Haile Eshe Cole,Shana Calixte Pitawanakwat,Luciane O. Rocha,2025-03-01 Mothering and Mother work in the Times of Black Lives Matter is an edited collection that sprouted alongside the beginnings of the Black Lives Matter movement but seeks to root itself in the historic and ongoing fight against anti Black state sanctioned violence Utilizing research personal narratives poetry and art this book explores the experience of mothering and motherwork alongside these movements and efforts to protect and value Black life

Centering the voices of Black mothers Black other mothers and Black birthing people the collection also seeks to explore the just world that Black mothers hope to create for their futures and the futures of their families and communities
