English as a Lingua Franca: Perspectives and Prospects

Marie-Luise Pitzl, Ruth Osimk-Teasdale, 2016-07-11 In the past 15 years English as a lingua franca ELF has evolved from a niche topic of a relatively small group of specialists to a highly productive research area that now has a firm place on the map of linguistics Looking back as well as forward this edited volume addresses perspectives and prospects of ELF in connection with other areas of linguistics It is the first volume that brings together ELF scholars with experts from a wide range of areas in linguistics such as corpus linguistics sociolinguistics historical linguistics language pedagogy language policy intercultural communication Adopting an inter transdisciplinary approach the book traces the impact that discussions about ELF have had or may have beyond the study of ELF as such for the conceptualization description methodology pedagogy and politics of English As the book combines external perspectives on ELF provided by well known scholars in diverse fields with a smaller number of internal perspectives provided by prominent ELF scholars it will be of interest not only to students and researchers interested in ELF but also to students and scholars in Applied Linguistics Sociolinguistics and Intercultural Communication

Perspectives on Translation Anna Bączkowska, Anna Drogosz, 2016-05-11 This volume offers a selection of issues currently encountered by scholars working within the broadly understood discipline of Translation Studies The contributions here discuss topical and recurrent issues which have long been at the forefront of this discipline such as phraseology corpora quality of interpreting translator training censorship style proper names and receptor oriented translation In addition they also deal with relatively recent developments such as humour and multimodality in audiovisual translation and those problems rarely conclusively addressed in the context of translation namely impoliteness and paratexts Bringing together authors from eight countries namely the UK Spain Germany Austria Poland Italy the USA and New Zealand the volume offers research into translation from a variety of methodological solutions and conducted across eight languages English Spanish Catalan Polish German Italian Chinese and Greek Despite the diversity of themes presented the main research areas emerging from all the contributions fall into four thematic groups 1 lexicological issues and corpora in translation studies 2 quality and translator training 3 audiovisual translation and 4 literary translation

New Perspectives on Narrative Perspective Willie van Peer, Seymour Benjamin Chatman, 2001-03-29 Offers an interdisciplinary approach to

New Perspectives on Witchcraft, Magic, and Demonology: Witchcraft in the British Isles and New England Brian P. Levack, 2001 New Perspectives On British Authors Rama Kundu, 2006 The irresistible and eternal attraction of an island has surfaced in literature as a varied range of tropes the domain of strange fantastic creatures flora and fauna an Other since the ancient times epitome of the charm of the distant in the romantic era real geographical spaces since the era of sea voyaging discovery and re mapping of islands with the emergence of imperialism new meanings arising from the new imperial discourse in the postcolonial era the islanders themselves writing back to the mainstream canon Today we have a great harvest of island literature arising out of various discourses including postcolonial postimperial feminist ecological cultural etc in addition to unique work s on island arising from individual perceptions philosophical imaginative emotional nostalgic etc A study of island literature across ages and lands thus can introduce us not only to a vast spectrum of ideas approaches contemplation ideation discourses and counter discourses But also to a wide network of inter references in which authors across lands and ages from Homer to Shakespeare Defoe Swift Ballantyneto Golding Coetzee Virginia Woolf to Margaret Atwood Rhys Walcottto Eco Saramago seem to reach out to one another and shake hands A basic perceptual difference between the outsider and the insider as they behold their encircled space has contributed to great counterpoints compulsive confinement challenge of survival thrill of discovery satisfaction of possession love claustrophobia desire to escape desire to return and repossess etc which writers have brought to correspond to a wide range of contrapuntal discourses It has been envisioned as the exclusive space for the artist the woman as time s backwater as the magic realm of the surreal hyperreal fantasia etc Island has come to semiotize a wide range of tropes and significations It appears that if island is a signifier then the signified are endless Indeed the island paradigm seems to be like a magic crystal reflecting innumerable strands and shades of meanings depending on the way you looked at it The subject involves an area of oceanic vastness starting from the coast of the ancient ages right into the ports of the modern and postmodern times The area has been ever spreading and vibrant texts have been sprawling all the time sprouting newer branches accumulating newer layers of meaning and striking newer depths of perception and insight This book an outcome of the UGC Emeritus Fellowship has been an attempt to scoop up a few of these infinite infinities of islands as they are presented and projected in texts across ages and spaces starting from Valmiki and Homer and continuing into the postmodern islands of Jose Saramago and Umberto Eco Perspectives on Phonological Theory and Development Ashley W. Farris-Trimble, Jessica A. Barlow, 2014-04-15 Any theory of phonology must be able to account for the acquisition and development of a phonological system and studying acquisition often leads to reciprocal advances in the theory This volume explores the link between phonological theory and linguistic development from a variety of angles including phonological representation individual differences and cross linguistic approaches Chapters touch on the full spectrum of phonological development from childhood to adult second language learning and from developing dialects to language death Contributors are leading researchers in the fields of linguistics speech pathology and cognitive psychology A tribute to Daniel A Dinnsen the papers in this volume complement his research career by highlighting significant contributions of acquisition research to the development of phonological theory Sociology in Perspective Mark Kirby, 2000 This text specifically for AQA specifications is designed to be easy and encouraging for students to use The book contains updated material and activities together with a new chapter on study skills It also indicates clearly where activities meet the new evidence requirements for key skills Evaluating the Evaluator Hansjörg Bittner, 2019-11-28 This book offers a theoretical framework for assessing translation quality grounded in supportive argumentation The volume outlines a systematic framework for translators and translation critics to substantiate their decisions and judgments on a translation s quality and in the case of negative criticism put forward a more effective translation solution The book traces the decision making process underpinning translation practice considering the different factors surrounding a particular translation to inform the most appropriate translation strategy such as the temporal and geographical relationship between source and target texts special provisions required by clients timeframe qualifications and sociocultural and political issues The framework posits that such factors should underpin any arguments used by the translator in adopting a given strategy and in turn that any criticism of a translation s quality must be in line with the same argumentative structure Applied to a corpus of translation examiners reports of translation the book demonstrates how this framework can act as a tool to be scaled to fit the needs of the different actors of a translation translators critics and scholars This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies and practicing translators New Perspectives in Media Translation Loukia Kostopoulou, Parthena Charalampidou, 2024-08-12 This edited book explores the practice of transcreation in a variety of contexts from audiovisual material to digital and marketing material Drawing on the latest developments in translation and media studies the volume promotes an understanding of the transcreation process and the way it challenges the concept of translation Chaume 2018 and impacts on training for translators localizers and content creators Chapters include both theoretical and experimental research contributions that investigate facets of transcreation in diverse media and genres and offer constructive insights in the discipline This book covers the theoretical aspects and practices of transcreation in audiovisual and digital media and will appeal to scholars researchers and professionals working in the fields of translation especially audiovisual translation transcreation localization and new media Information Structure in a Cross-Linguistic Perspective ,2016-08-29 The present volume draws together contributions from a number of scholars with an interest in empirical cross linguistic description Most of the papers were first presented at the symposium Information Structure in a Cross linguistic Perspective held in Oslo in November December 2000 The descriptions are functionally oriented and their common focus is how information structure in a broad sense can be compared across languages Information structure has been approached in a variety of ways by the authors so as to give a broad picture of this fundamental principle of text production involving the way in which a speaker writer chooses to present a message in terms of given new information focus cohesion and point of view Central to much of the research is the problem of establishing criteria for isolating linguistic constraints on language use from cultural linguistic conventions in text production The linguistic comparison includes English German and or one of the Scandinavian languages with sidelights to other languages Most of the papers are text or corpus based and the ongoing work on parallel corpora in Scandinavia is reflected in several contributions Teaching and Researching Translation Basil A. Hatim,2014-04-23 Teaching Researching Translation provides an authoritative and critical account of the main ideas and concepts competing issues and solved and unsolved questions involved in Translation Studies This book provides an up to date accessible account of the field focusing on the main challenges encountered by translation practitioners and researchers Basil Hatim also provides readers and users with the tools they need to carry out their own practice related research in this burgeoning new field This second edition has been fully revised and updated through out to include The most up to date research in a number of key areas A new introduction as well as a new chapter on the translation of style which sets out a new agenda for research in this field Updated examples and new concepts Expanded references bibliography and further reading sections as well as new links and resources Armed with this expert guidance students of translation researchers and practitioners or anyone with a general interest in this fast developing field can explore for themselves a range of exemplary practical applications of research into key issues and questions Basil Hatim is Professor of Translation Linguistics at the American University of Sharjah UAE and theorist and practitioner in English Arabic translation He has worked and lectured widely at universities throughout the world and has published extensively on Applied Linguistics Text Linguistics Translation Interpreting and TESOL Feminist Perspectives on The Foundational Subjects of Law Anne Bottomley,1996-03-13 The essays in this volume fall within a chapter on one of the foundational law subjects on the degree syllabus and aim to provide an account of feminist approaches to each of the following areas contracts torts land law equity and trusts criminal law public law and European law New Advances in Legal Translation and Interpreting Junfeng Zhao,Defeng Li,Victoria Lai Cheng Lei,2023-03-02 This book describes interdisciplinary exploration of matters related to the translation and interpreting of legal texts Translation of legal texts has grown exponentially since the beginning of new millennium in response to the fast increasing volume of international trade and business as well as all sorts of other transnational activities in a myriad of spheres International trade demands translation of trade laws and business contracts immigration leads to rise in court interpreting services and countries may seek to enhance their international influence through translating and making known to the world their laws and or other legal documents These legal translation activities occurred mostly between languages officially used in international or regional organizations such as the United Nations and the European Union and between the languages of major countries who exert or seek influence on international economy and law On the other hand rapid advances in computer technology and artificial intelligence in recent years have also brought about changes in the practices of legal translation With changes also come problems in both theory and practice that merit our immediate attention This edited volume highlights the newest developments in the theory practice and training of legal translation with contributions from international leading researchers in this area It will be a standard reference for anyone who is to embark on research and practice of legal translation in the twenty first century It is also adaptable as teaching materials for translation and interpreting training Chapter Translating Legal Terms at International Organisations Do Institutional Term Banks Meet Translators Needs is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link.springer.com
