

The Crucible

Act IV

Arthur Miller

REVIEW AND ANTICIPATE

"Is every defense an attack upon the court?" Hale asks in Act III. Danforth observes, "A person is either with this court or he must be counted against it." Such remarks stress the powerlessness of people like John Proctor and Giles Corey against the mounting injustices in Salem. In pursuing justice, their efforts backfire, and their own names join the list of those accused. What do you think the final outcome will be? Who will survive, and who will perish? Read the final act to see if your predictions are correct.

1. A cell in Salem jail, that fall.
2. At the back is a high barred window; near it, a great, heavy door. Along the walls are two benches.
3. The place is in darkness but for the moonlight seeping through the bars. It appears empty. Presently footsteps are heard coming down a corridor beyond the wall, keys rattle, and the door swings open. MARSHAL HERRICK enters with a lantern.
4. He is nearly drunk, and heavy-footed. He goes to a bench and nudges a bundle of rags lying on it.
5. Herrick: Sarah, wake up! Sarah Good! He then crosses to the other benches.

Imaginative Writing Janet Burroway, 2011 Janet Burroway's bestselling Imaginative Writing: The Elements of Craft explores the craft of creative writing in four genres: Fiction, Poetry, Drama, and Creative Nonfiction. A trade author as well as a professor of creative writing, Burroway brings her years of teaching and writing to this book. Try This exercises appear throughout each chapter. Provocative and fun, these exercises help writers develop the specific writing skills discussed within the text. Working toward a draft: exercises encourage writers to develop their ideas into complete drafts. In response to reviewer requests, the preface Invitation to the Writer has been expanded into a full chapter. This new chapter introduces writers to important skills such as reading like a writer, journaling, and participating in the writer's workshop. This book offers lots of ideas and encouragement at a great price.

The Contract of Carriage Paula Bäckdén, 2019-01-28 The Contract of Carriage: Multimodal Transport and Unimodal Regulation provides a new perspective on how to approach the question of multimodal transport regulation regarding liability for goods carried. Unlike previous literature which has approached the issue of applicability from a strict interpretation of the convention angle, this book will analyse the issue from a law of contracts perspective. If goods are damaged during international transport, the carrier's liability is governed by rules laid down in international conventions such as the CMR convention, the Hague-Visby Rules, and the Montreal Convention. Such rules apply to certain modes of transport to contracts for unimodal carriage. When goods are carried under a multimodal contract of carriage which provides for carriage by more than one mode of transport, the question is whether these rules are applicable to transport under multimodal contracts of carriage. This book investigates the rules of carrier's liability applicable to unimodal transport and whether these rules are applicable to carriage under multimodal contracts of carriage with focus on the actual contract of carriage. This unique text will be of great interest to students, academics, industry professionals, and legal practitioners alike.
