The Philosopher Lobbyist:

The Philosopher-Lobbyist Mordecai Lee, 2015-01-08 John Dewey 1859 1952 was a preeminent American philosopher who is remembered today as the founder of what is called child centered or progressive education In The Philosopher Lobbyist Mordecai Lee tells the largely forgotten story of Dewey's effort to influence public opinion and promote democratic citizenship Based on Dewey's 1927 book The Public and Its Problems the People's Lobby was a trailblazing nonprofit agency an early forerunner of the now common public interest lobbying group It used multiple forms of mass communication grassroots organizing and lobbying to counteract the many special interest groups and lobbies that seemed to be dominating policymaking in Congress and in the White House During the 1930s Dewey and the People's Lobby criticized the New Deal as too conservative and championed a social democratic alternative including a more progressive tax system government ownership of natural monopolies and state operation of the railroad system While its impact on historical developments was small the story of the People's Lobby is an important reminder of a historical road not traveled and a policy agenda that was not adopted but could have been

Šárka Laboutková,Vít Šimral,Petr Vymětal,2020-02-04 The authors come up with some innovative tools namely the Catalogue of transparent lobbying They look at and evaluate the impact on both key stakeholders lobbyists and targets of lobbying monitoring of lobbying activities and sanctioning for breaches of rules This tool holds out benchmarking capacity of sound framework for understanding of lobbying in the context of democracy legitimacy of decision making and accountability David Ondr ka member of global Board of Transparency International head of Transparency International Czech Republic Transparent Lobbying and Democracy provides a comprehensive view into the phenomenon of lobbying As a well established scientist specializing in democracy civil society and the public sphere I see it as a useful and enriching contribution to the debate on lobbying its necessary transparency and its role in the democratization process This book has the potential to reach an international audience of experts and interested lay persons and both complement and compete with publications on similar issues Karel B M ller University of Economics in Prague Czech Republic This book deals with the current as yet unsolved problem of transparency of lobbying In the current theories and prevalent models that deal with lobbying activities there is no reflection of the degree of transparency of lobbying mainly due to the unclear distinction between corruption lobbying in general and transparent lobbying This book provides a perspective on transparency in lobbying in a comprehensive and structured manner It delivers an interdisciplinary approach to the topic and creates a methodology for assessing the transparency of lobbying its role in the democratization process and a methodology for evaluating the main consequences of transparency The new approach is applied to assess lobbying regulations in the countries of Central Eastern Europe and shows a method for how lobbying in other regions of the world may also be assessed

Hearings Before the House Select Committee on Lobbying Activities, House of Representatives, Eighty-first Congress, Second Session, Created Pursuant to H. Res. 298 United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Lobbying Activities,1950 Introducing a statutory register of lobbyists Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Political and Constitutional Reform Committee,2012-07-13 The proposals in the Government s consultation paper Introducing a Statutory Register of Lobbyists Cm 8233 ISBN 9780101823326 focused the register on those who undertake lobbying activities on behalf of a third party client Under the proposals a lobbyist who worked in house for a large company such as News International would not be required to register whereas a one man band lobbyist would be and have to name their clients and pay for the privilege There is no evidence to suggest that third party lobbyists are a particular problem within the lobbying community the Government s own records of ministerial meetings suggest that third party lobbyists make up less than 1% of all meetings with Ministers The Government should abandon its plans and introduce regulation to cover all those who lobby professionally in a paid role including those who lobby on behalf of charities trade unions and think tanks The Committee specifically recommends the Government publish information about ministerial meetings no more than a month after the month in which the meeting occurred improve the level of detail in meeting disclosures so that the actual topic of a meeting is disclosed rather than obscure terms like general discussion publish where applicable the company or charity number of any organisation that meets with Ministers or officials so that the identity of the organisation can be properly verified standardise the format of meeting data with a view to publishing all ministerial and official meetings on one website rather than on many different Government websites gaining and maintaining my freedom al anon family groups - May 03 2022

the freedom i receive in al anon doesn't mean i'm always happy in every area of my life or that other people's choices don't sometimes disturb and concern me but this freedom does mean that in spite of other people's choices i feel at peace with myself and i am given the strength to live my life in a way that's congruent with my values
