

THE RAPHAEL AFFAIR

The background of the entire cover is a classical painting of a woman's face and upper torso. The woman has dark hair and is looking slightly to the left. She is wearing a dark garment with a white ruffled collar and a necklace of dark beads. The painting is in a warm, golden-brown color palette.

The Raphael Affair:

The Raphael Affair Iain Pears, 2007 Art dealer Jonathan Argyll and Art Theft officer Flavia di Stefano are on the trail of a lost art work but on the hunt must face vandalism and murder

The Raphael Affair Iain Pears, 2001-02-01 Deliciously literate Kirkus Reviews and filled with articulate characters and erudite art commentary The New York Times Book Review this acclaimed series of novels by Iain Pears combines art and history literature and mystery fiction with the same passion for detail he displayed in his New York Times bestseller An Instance of the Fingerpost In The Raphael Affair the first book in the series we are introduced to Jonathan Argyll an enthusiastic young art scholar from England who has followed his suspicions about a long lost Raphael painting to a small church in Rome Not only is the painting in question gone from the site it has been swiftly purchased restored auctioned and installed in Rome's National Museum But when the recovered Raphael is just as swiftly destroyed in a fire Argyll begins to suspect its authenticity and the innocence of every person in its path

The Immaculate Deception Iain Pears, 2005-06-24 From internationally bestselling author Iain Pears comes the seventh in his Jonathan Argyll series an intriguing mystery of love loss and artistic license For newlywed and Italian art theft squad head Flavia di Stefano the honeymoon is over when a painting borrowed from the Louvre and en route to a celebratory exhibition is stolen Desperate to avoid public embarrassment and to avoid paying a ransom the Italian prime minister leans hard on Flavia to get it back quickly and quietly Across town her husband art historian Jonathan Argyll begins an investigation of his own tracing the past of a small Renaissance painting an Immaculate Conception owned by Flavia's mentor retired general Taddeo Bottando Soon both husband and wife uncover astonishing and chilling secrets and Flavia's investigation takes a sudden turn from the search for an art thief to the hunt for a murderer

The Boston Raphael Belinda Rathbone, 2014-10-01 The discovery of a previously unknown painting by an Italian Renaissance master and how it went from media sensation to career ending scandal On the eve of its centennial celebrations in December 1969 the Boston Museum of Fine Arts announced the acquisition of an unknown and uncatalogued painting attributed to Raphael Boston's coup made headlines around the world Soon afterward an Italian art sleuth began investigating the details of the painting's export from Italy challenged the museum's right to ownership Simultaneously experts on both sides of the Atlantic lined up to debate the artwork's very authenticity While these contests played themselves out on the international stage the crisis deepened within the museum as its charismatic director Perry T Rathbone faced the most challenging crossroads of his thirty year career The facts about the forces that converged on the museum and how they led to Rathbone's resignation as director is only now fully revealed in this compelling behind the scenes story that reveals how the art world media and museums work This is for anyone who relishes stories of the business of art Praise for The Boston Raphael Perhaps the most exciting book on the art world since Jonathan Harr's The Lost Painting The Boston Globe In the compelling story of her father Perry Rathbone and the years when he was the elegant and revolutionary director of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts Belinda Rathbone evokes our

Subcommittee on Terrorism, Narcotics, and International Operations, 1992 The Figure of the Detective Charles Brownson, 2014-01-23 This book begins with a history of the detective genre coextensive with the novel itself identifying the attitudes and institutions needed for the genre to emerge in its mature form around 1880 The theory of the genre is laid out along with its central theme of the getting and deployment of knowledge Sherlock Holmes the English Classic stories and their inheritors are examined in light of this theme and the balance of two forms of knowledge used in fictional detection cool or rational and warm or emotional The evolution of the genre formula is driven by changes in the social climate in which it is embedded These changes explain the decay of the English Classic and its replacement by noir hardboiled and spy stories to end in the cul de sac of the thriller and the nostalgic Neo Classic Possible new forms of the detective story are suggested The Spectator, 1835 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art Bodies of Art Marie Lathers, 2001-01-01 To the time honored myth of the artist creating works of genius in isolation with nothing but inspiration to guide him art historians have added the mitigating influences of critics dealers and the public Bodies of Art completes the picture by adding the model This lively look at atelier politics through the lens of literature focuses in particular on the female model with special attention to her race ethnicity and class The result is a suggestive account of the rise and fall of the female model in nineteenth century realism with a final emphasis on the passage of the model into photography at the turn of the century This history of the model begins in nineteenth century Paris where the artist model dynamic was regularly debated by writers and where the most important categories of models appear to be Jewish Italian and Parisian women Bodies of Art traces an evolution in the representation of this model in realist and naturalist literary works from her birth in Balzac to her death in Maupassant in the process revealing how she played a key role in theories of representation advanced by writers Throughout the book Marie Lathers connects the artist's work to the social realities and actual bodies that surround and inhabit the atelier Her work shows how much the status of the model can tell us about artistic practices during the century of the birth of modernity ART THEFT AND FORGERY INVESTIGATION Robert E. Spiel, 2000-01-01 The goal of this unique manual is to arm criminal investigators with tools and weapons that are suitable and effective against art theft and forgery The author with over 25 years experience in the art theft investigation field presents comprehensive techniques tips and ideas to help diminish the level of frustration experienced by criminal investigators required to handle the growing number and magnitude of art crimes The structure of the manual is simple and direct The first part guides the reader in the use of the text and introduces the art world environment The second part discusses the investigator's interaction with the victim including interviewing crime scene investigation and identifying and developing suspects Part three deals with offenders and covers such topics as art theft methods forgery techniques methods of distribution and investigative countermeasures The final section presents a comprehensive review of solutions and recoveries including chapters on legal weapons insurance and rewards the use of experts universal and variable contact group classifications object bulletins art criminal photo albums informant development undercover methods unidentified victims and recovery and seizure of stolen or fake art In addition the book is complemented by an extensive glossary and bibliographic resources This exceptionally unique manual is intended to function at an intensely practical level and is intended for both study and immediate reference

Writing and Seeing Rui Manuel G. de Carvalho Homem, Maria de Fátima Lambert, 2006 The essays in this volume are informed by a variety of theoretical assumptions and of critical methodologies but they all share an interest in the intersections of word and image in a variety of media This unifying rationale secures the present collection's central position in the current critical context defined as it predominantly is by ways of reading that are based on a relational nexus The intertextual the intermedial the intersemiotic are indeed foregrounded and combined in these essays conceptually as much as in the critical practices favoured by the various contributions Studies of literature in its relation to pictorial genres enjoy a relative prominence in the volume but the range of media and of approaches considered is broad enough to include photography film video television comic strips animated film public art material culture The backgrounds of contributors are likewise diverse culturally academically linguistically The volume combines contributions by prominent scholars and critics with essays by younger scholars from a variety of backgrounds The resulting plurality of perspective is indeed a source of new insights into the relations between writing and seeing and it contributes to making this collection an exciting new contribution to word and image studies

Figures of Authority in Nineteenth-Century Ireland Raphaël Ingelbien, Susan Galavan, 2020-11-25 This interdisciplinary collection investigates the forms that authority assumed in nineteenth century Ireland the relations they bore to international redefinitions of authority and Irish contributions to the reshaping of authority in the modern age At a time when age old sources of social political spiritual and cultural authority were eroded in the Western world Ireland witnessed both the restoration of older forms of authority and the rise of figures who defined new models of authority in a democratic age Using new comparative perspectives as well as archival resources in a wide range of fields the essays gathered here show how new authorities were embodied in emerging types of politicians clerics and professionals and in material extensions of their power in visual oral and print cultures These analyses often eerily echo twenty first century debates about populism suspicion of scholarly and intellectual expertise and the role of new technologies and forms of association in contesting and recreating authority Several contributions highlight the role of emotion in the way authority was deployed by figures ranging from Daniel O Connell to W B Yeats foreshadowing the perceived rise of emotional politics in our own age This volume demonstrates that many contested forms of authority that now look traditional emerged from nineteenth century crises and developments as did the challenges that undermine authority
