Everyday People Al Sullivan, 2001 In this time of ever shorter news stories telling us everything that's wrong with the world it's a nice change of pace to read about someone like Felix Addeo who takes time out of his busy schedule to teach middle school kids what it's like to be an accountant Or biomedical engineer Lois Ross who twice a year leads a group of volunteers to clean up a local pond These are just two of the ordinary yet extraordinary people profiled in this collection of feature articles by New Jersey reporter Al Sullivan Through richly detailed stories a kind of writing that has all but disappeared from our local newspapers about small town people in extraordinary situations Sullivan depicts the characters that enliven life in the Garden State While his stories always have a strongly local feel each contains an element of the universal that draws in readers whose interest lies not in a specific location but in the diverse experiences and stories of people who live in and shape a community Sullivan has written about people from nearly every walk of life from minister to prostitute from jail warden to undercover cop Everyday People takes readers to the funeral of AIDS activist Ronald West Jr and to the office of James Delson owner and operator of Jersey City's Toy Soldier Company You'll follow Sullivan from the Hoboken workshop of violin maker Jon Van Kouwenhoven to the rooftops that are the office of chimney sweep Ron Simpson You'll go on a ride with the Glen Ridge Volunteer Ambulance Squad and along the Hackensack River with Captain Bill Sheehan founder of the Hackensack Estuary and River Tenders Corporation which monitors the river's ecology You don't have to live in New Jersey to recognize the people in Sullivan's stories They are the librarians and tax assessors attorneys and hotdog vendors firefighters and bee keepers poets and politicians that make every American town special In Everyday People Sullivan records their stories for us all to read and remember

Hassenzahl, 2012-12-17 Raven's 8th edition of Environment offers more detailed content than the Visualizing text for a better understanding and integration of the core environmental systems and to view and analyze the role those systems play. Shorter but still comprehensive coverage focuses on ethical decision making and key local environmental science issues requiring readers to think critically about the course material outside of the classroom. Other features include brief text in the comprehensive segment, extensive chapter pedagogy to help reinforce the systems approach, more opportunities to think critically about how systems intersect and fit together, and new data interpretation questions at the end of each chapter.

Against the Current Kim Trevathan, 2023-08-18 In August 1998 Kim Trevathan summoned his beloved 45 pound German shepherd mix Jasper and paddled a canoe down the Tennessee River, an adventure chronicled in Paddling the Tennessee River: A Voyage on Easy Water. Twenty years later in Against the Current: Paddling Upstream on the Tennessee River he invites readers on a voyage of light-hearted rumination about time, memory, and change as he paddles the same river in the same boat but this time going upstream, starting out in early spring instead of late summer. In sparkling prose Trevathan describes the life of the river before and after the dams, the sometimes daunting condition of its environment, its banks, host of evolving communities, and also the joys and follies of having a new puppy, 65 pound Maggie, for a shipmate. Trevathan discusses the Tennessee River's varied contributions to the cultures that hug its waterway. Kentuckians refer to it as a lake but Tennesseans call it a river, and the writer's intimate style proves a perfect lens for the passageway from Kentucky to Tennessee to Alabama and back to Tennessee. In choice observations and chance encounters along the route Trevathan uncovers meaningful differences among the Tennessee Valley's people and not a few differences in himself, now an older, wiser adventurer. Whether he is struggling to calm his land-loving companion, confronting his body's newfound aches and pains, craving a hard-to-find cheeseburger, or scouting for a safe place to camp for the night, Trevathan perseveres in his quest to reacquaint himself with the river and to discover new things about it. And owing to his masterful sense of detail, cadence, and narrative craft, Trevathan keeps the reader at the heart of the journey. The Tennessee River is a remarkable landmark, and this text exhibits its past and present qualities with a perspective only Trevathan can provide. Keeping the Chattahoochee Sally Sierer Bethea, 2023-07-15 Sally Sierer Bethea was one of the first women in America to become a riverkeeper, a vocal defender of a specific waterway who holds polluters accountable. In Keeping the Chattahoochee she tells stories that range from joyous and funny to frustrating, even alarming, to illustrate what it takes to save an endangered river.

Her tales are triggered by the regular walks she takes through a forest to the Chattahoochee over the course of a year finding solace and kinship in nature For two decades Bethea worked to restore the neglected Chattahoochee which provides drinking water and recreation to millions of people habitat for wildlife and water for industries and farms as it cuts through the heart of the Deep South Pairing natural and political history with reflective writing she draws readers into her watershed and her memories Bethea s passion for the natural world and for defending it with a strong informed voice animates this instructive memoir Offering lessons on how to fight for our fundamental right to clean water Bethea and her colleagues take on powerful corporate and government polluters They strengthen environmental policies and educate children reviving the great river from a century of misuse A New Map of the River Thames from Oxford to London Henry Taunt,1872
