

The Crucible- Lesson Plan #1

GRADE LEVEL / AGE GROUP	11 th grade/ Juniors
CONTENT AREA	English 11- American literature
FOCUS AREA / CENTRAL FOCUS	Introduction to McCarthyism , historical information on The Crucible, and background information on the correct way to read a drama.
STANDARDS CONNECTION
Common Core Standards:
RL. 11-12.9 Demonstrate knowledge of 18 th , 19 th , and early 20 th century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes. Students should be familiar with different forms of fiction and genres (novel, drama, etc.)
GOAL/SUBJECTIVES
The goal of this lesson is to provide students with background information on the age of McCarthyism and to provide them with information that is necessary to know prior to reading a play that is meant to be acted out on a stage. The play will be clearer and stage directions can be taken into consideration when students are reading. Students will also become familiar with The Salem Witch Trials of the 17 th century in the newly founded American colonies.
Academic Language Concepts and Vocabulary
In order to read a play successfully and understand the full meaning of the text, the students will use the terms "act", "scene", and "rising action". These terms were presented in the presentation attached to this lesson.
PRE-REQUISITE KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS
Students in this class have already completed their studies on two different eras in American literature prior to the study of McCarthyism. Those two eras include: Realism (students read The Declaration of Independence) and the Romantic era along with the dark side of Romantic literature, gothic American literature (students read The Devil and Tom Walker and The Legend of Sleepy Hollow by Washington Irving). As well as the reading of these texts, students have studied this time period in American history in both their 8 th grade history class as well as in their 10 th grade history class. They are familiar with the events that the United States were founded upon as well as the movement into a democratic nation.
Rationale of Learning Activities / Tasks
Content Pedagogy- Research shows that quickwrites are a way for students to let their thoughts flow without stopping to make revisions or correct misspelled words. The focus for a quickwrite is to generate ideas and reflect what they know on a topic. In this lesson, the quickwrite at the beginning of the lesson will allow students to write what they already know about the Salem Witch Trials (Tompkins 99).
INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS, RESOURCES, EQUIPMENT
For this lesson, the required materials are: teacher computer, YouTube link to the video for the hook of the lesson, dry erase board for pre-assessment, SmartBoard, projector, PowerPoint presentation of the material (saved electronically on the computer), and a copy of the presentation for student with 504 plan.
USE OF TECHNOLOGY
Technology will be first introduced into this lesson when the hook is presented, a video clip recapping the events of The Salem Witch trials on YouTube. In this lesson, technology will also be used to present the necessary material over the age of McCarthyism, the historical background on The Salem Witch Trial, and the proper way to read a text that was written to be performed on a stage via a PowerPoint presentation created on the computer and
