The Penguin Dictionary Architecture Landscape:

The Penguin Dictionary of Architecture and Landscape Architecture John Fleming, Hugh Honour, Nikolaus Pevsner, 1998
For more than thirty years The Penguin Dictionary of Architecture has been a standard work of reference Encyclopedic in breadth it describes key individuals styles movements materials and terms from Aalto to Zakharov from the Acropolis to ziggurats Major entries range up to several pages in length and include cross references and bibliographies for further reading Now renamed The Penguin Dictionary of Architecture and Landscape Architecture this new edition has been completely reworked by John Fleming and Hugh Honour All entries have been updated as necessary many new ones have been written and much greater prominence has now been given to landscape architecture one of the most dynamic and important growth fields of recent years

Last Landscapes Ken Worpole, 2004-10-03 Last Landscapes is an exploration of the cult and celebration of death loss and memory It traces the history and design of burial places throughout Europe and the USA ranging from the picturesque tradition of the village churchyard to tightly packed cities of the dead such as the Jewish Cemetery in Prague and Père Lachaise in Paris Other landscapes that feature in this book include the war cemeteries of northern France Viking burial islands in central Sweden Etruscan tombs and early Christian catacombs in Italy the 17th century Portuguese Jewish cemetery Beth Haim at Ouderkerk in the Netherlands Forest Lawns in California Derek Jarman's garden in Kent and the Stockholm Woodland Cemetery It is a fact that architecture began with the tomb yet as Ken Worpole shows us in Last Landscapes many historic cemeteries have been demolished or abandoned in recent times notably the case with Jewish cemeteries in Eastern Europe and there has been an increasing loss of inscription and memorialization in the modern urban cemetery Too often cemeteries today are both poorly designed and physically and culturally marginalized Worse cremation denies a full architectural response to the mystery and solemnity of death The author explores how modes of disposal burial cremation inhumation in mausoleums and wall tombs vary across Europe and North America according to religious and other cultural influences And Last Landscapes raises profound questions as to how in an age of mass cremation architects and landscape designers might create meaningful structures and settings in the absence of a body since for most of history the human body itself has provided the fundamental structural scale This evocative book also contemplates other forms of memorialization within modern societies from sculptures to parks most notably the extraordinary Duisburg Park set in a former giant steelworks in Germany's Ruhr Valley

Lateness and Modernity in Medieval Architecture, 2023-05-08. How have the concepts of lateness and modernity inflected the study of medieval and early modern architecture? This volume seeks to re-situate monuments from the 14th-16th centuries that are indebted to medieval building practices and designs within the more established narratives of art and architectural history. Drawing on case studies from Cyprus to the Dominican Republic, the book explores historiographical, methodological and theoretical concerns related to the study of medieval architecture, bringing to the fore the meanings and functions of the Gothic in specific contexts of use and display. The development of local styles relative to competing traditions and instances of coexistence and hybridization are considered in relation to workshop practices and design theory, the role of ornament, the circulation of people and knowledge, spatial experiences as well as notions of old and new. Contributors are Jakub Adamski, Flaminia Bardati, Costanza Beltrami, Robert Bork, Jana Gajdošová, Maile S. Hutterer, Jacqueline Jung, Alice Klima, Abby McGehee, Paul Niell, Michalis Olympos, Zachary Stewart, Alice Isabella Sullivan, Kyle G. Sweeney and Marek Walczak.
