More Important Than the Music Bruce D. Epperson, 2013-10-01 Today jazz is considered high art, America's national music, and the catalog of its recordings, its discography, is often taken for granted. But behind jazz discography is a fraught and highly colorful history of research fanaticism and the intense desire to know who played what where and when. This history gets its first full-length treatment in Bruce D. Epperson's More Important Than the Music. Following the dedicated few who sought to keep jazz's legacy organized, Epperson tells a fascinating story of archival pursuit in the face of negligence and deception, a tale that saw curses and threats regularly employed with fisticuffs and lawsuits, only slightly rarer. Epperson examines the documentation of recorded jazz from its casual origins as a novelty in the 1920s and 30s through the overwhelming deluge of 12-inch vinyl records in the middle of the twentieth century to the use of computers by today's discographers. Though he focuses much of his attention on comprehensive discographies, he also examines the development of a variety of related listings such as buyer's guides and library catalogs, and he closes with a look toward discography's future. From the little black book to the full-featured online database, More Important Than the Music offers a history not just of jazz discography but of the profoundly human desire to preserve history itself.

The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide, sponsored by the W. E. B. Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts, offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America.

Blue Note Records Richard Cook, 2004 Insightful scenes abound in the first full history of the most noted label in jazz history. With record collector zeal, Cook analyzes everything from Sidney Bechet's 78s to Norah Jones' recent chart topper.

Transcription Sam Morgan's Jazz Band, 2012-01-01 Book URL <https://www.areditions.com/rrrra/a073.html> This edition consists of musical transcriptions of all eight recordings of Sam Morgan's Jazz Band made in New Orleans in 1927 These are among the first recordings of black New Orleans jazz bands made in their home city and as the band consisted of musicians who stayed on in New Orleans after the Great Exodus to Chicago and New York in the early 1920s the recordings preserve a purer form of the collectively improvised ensemble of the earliest black jazz bands It is a loosely integrated purely linear ensemble mass a collective projecting of melodic lines close to the unassimilated heterophonic singing of the Black Primitive Baptist and Sanctified Churches This proto jazz style was being rapidly eclipsed in the 1920s by more flamboyant and technically brilliant forms of New Orleans jazz being recorded by Louis Armstrong Sidney Bechet and Jelly Roll Morton The scores contained herein are the first complete transcriptions of this rare and distinctive music to appear in print
