ONLY ONE WOMAN HAD A MARK LIKE HERS Suharto R. E. Elson,2001-11-13 Suharto is synonymous with modern Indonesia He came to the leadership of Indonesia amidst extreme social upheaval and mass violence in 1966 and established an enduring regime known as the New Order He remained in command of the world s fourth most populous country until his dramatic fall from power in 1998 This book provides fascinating insights into a man who rose from humble beginnings to exert extraordinary power over a complex and volatile nation He presented himself as an infallible father of Indonesia yet he remained a mysterious and puzzling figure He sought to transform Indonesia into a strong united and economically prosperous nation but he is remembered today for human rights abuses and profound corruption The system of power he created collapsed with his decline and he left a problematic legacy for Indonesia s current leaders as they seek to create a new beginning for their country Confronted By His Love Cristy Sison,2023-06-01 What am I going say How do I do this

I whispered My shoulders went down I looked at my blue dust covered Bible the pages were stuck to each other My tears began to roll down once again I m desperate for an answer Lord and I know You have it all I need You help me Earlier I heard about Your promises And I know them to be true because I have received them I experienced Your promises my family did we felt them You have filled me with so much joy even as I grieve There is no doubt now that it was from You But how Why Why me I started with my eyes closed Why would You give Your promises to me To someone like me I honestly asked face up smiling I am just expecting to receive an answer I kept my eyes closed for a few more minutes Then I opened my Bible A

City Divided: Race, Fear and the Law in Police Confrontations David A. Harris,2020-01-10 A City Divided tells the story of the case involving 18 year old Jordan Miles and three Pittsburgh police officers David Harris a resident of Pittsburgh and the Sally Ann Semenko Chair at the University of Pittsburgh School of Law describes what happened explaining how a case that began with a young black man walking around the block in his own neighborhood turned Pittsburgh inside out resulted in two investigations of the police officers and two federal trials Harris who has written published and conducted research at the intersection of race criminal justice and the law for almost thirty years explains not just what happened but why what the stakes are and most importantly what we must do differently to avoid these public safety catastrophes Caring Enough to Confront David Augsburg,2010-10 How to Understand and Express Your Deepest Feelings Toward Others Conflict simply is Believing that we can somehow avoid it can only damage our relationships but when we learn to integrate our needs and wants with those of others it can be a catalyst in our relationships for deeper loving care This classic title in Christian peacemaking teaches the reader how to build trust cope with blame and prejudice and be honest about anger and frustration Dr Augsburg challenges readers to keep in mind that the important issue is not what the conflict is about but instead how the conflict is handled He offers a biblically based model for dealing with conflict to teach Christians how to confront with compassion and resolve issues in a healthy and healing way Whether in family church or work relationships Caring Enough to Confront gives readers the tools to make the most of every conflict

Malayan Emergency and Indonesian Confrontation Mark Lax, 2021-07-28 Australia's involvement in the Malayan Emergency from 1950 to 1960 and later in a confrontation with Indonesia in the 1960s is little remembered today Yet the deployment of over a third of the RAAF to support the British and Malayan governments in what became a long war of attrition against communist insurgents in the former case and against Indonesian regulars and militia in the latter kept the RAAF engaged for over 15 years Wars by another name these two events led to the birth of Malaysia and the establishment of an ongoing RAAF presence in South East Asia Until recent operations in Afghanistan the Malaya Emergency was Australia's longest conflict Malayan Emergency and Indonesian Confrontation recounts the story of the politics strategies and operations that brought these two conflicts to a close

Deep Cover, 2030-08-01 In the shadowy spaces between justice and corruption Deep Cover unravels the haunting journey of a woman with a past she can't outrun and a future built on deception At first glance she appears to be just another prisoner in the system but beneath the surface lies a dangerous secret that could destroy the entire criminal world or herself This is not just a story about going undercover It's about identity how it breaks how it hides and how it becomes a weapon The central character is thrust into a maze of crime loyalty and betrayal where every face hides a motive and every truth is layered in silence Haunted by memories she can't forget and entangled in relationships she can't trust she must learn to survive not only in the criminal world she's infiltrated but in the emotional crossfire that surrounds her At the heart of Deep Cover is a powerful exploration of family found lost and betrayed As our protagonist digs deeper into the criminal underworld she uncovers connections she never expected and wounds she never healed Behind every gunshot and whispered threat lies a deeper pain the kind of pain that only comes from people you once loved The further she moves into the darkness the more she risks losing herself to it Each character in Deep Cover carries a secret some deadly some tragic all pivotal From hardened criminals with broken hearts to those who wear badges but live lies no one is truly innocent and no one is exactly who they seem What begins as a covert mission transforms into a psychological reckoning forcing everyone to choose between who they were and who they've become With cinematic tension haunting performances and moral ambiguity woven into every frame Deep Cover is a slow burning thriller with the emotional intensity of a tragedy It is a story about masks why we wear them what they hide and what happens when they shatter Will the truth bring justice or will it burn everything in its path
