The Proper Charlie My Autobiography:

The Proper Charlie Charlie Miller, Scott McDermott, 2014-11-17 Charlie Miller was the best young Scottish footballer of his generation. He made his Rangers debut under Walter Smith aged just seventeen and became a vital part of the Ibrox club's legendary nine in a row squad. Miller won four league titles, two Scottish Cups and one League Cup with Rangers, as well as being named the Scottish PFA Young Player of the Year in 1995. Yet many believe he was a wasted talent. Here Miller reveals how he's spent his entire life not knowing who his father is and relives his colourful upbringing in Castlemilk, one of Glasgow's toughest housing estates. He explains how the gang culture he was involved in almost ended his Rangers career before it had started and speaks openly about the impact drugs, alcohol and gambling has had on his life. Miller takes you inside the Ibrox dressing room where he mixed with iconic figures like Ally McCoist, Brian Laudrup and Paul Gascoigne and explains how he went from Rangers hero to rock bottom. A Proper Charlie Christopher Stock, 2017-07-07

A Proper Charlie Louise Wise, 1900 Charlie Wallis has everything a girl could wish for: A loving boyfriend, a nice flat and a fantastic job as a journalist for London Core. Trouble is Charlie's boyfriend isn't at all loving, her job title really reads office assistant and her flat at the top of a high rise isn't that nice either. Her new boss Ben is a huge bear of a man, a gentle giant with chocolate brown eyes that hold a secret. While London Core investigates the disappearances of local prostitutes, Charlie wants in on the action, deciding that dressing as a hooker and walking the streets is good research. Bumping into Ben was the last thing she expected. A Life in Time, My Story Joe Barfield, 2010-11-28

As a child I was called Tiger because I was always into things. As a teenager the death of my father died and we began to move around. I became angry, a rebel. I had conflicts with religion. When my children were four and six I became a single parent. I learned a lot from them. I hope my stories will keep you laughing. Some that are sad but that is life. My Autobiography the Prequel: Volume 1, the Conception of "thy Death Valley House" for Beatty, Nevada Martin J. Blahnik, MD, the Desert Doc, 2024-07-24 This is the first of a three volume memoir in the author's provocative tell-all journey to feature the artistic side of the human condition. As such there are matters that go well beyond Dr Blahnik's professional career as a physician and scientist. Yet they are the unbreakable rules of the Scientific Method that guide our deep understanding of the Darwinian evolution of the human mind, the DNA-driven emergence of the psychotic mental illnesses and what we call human creativity. In this first volume the lively narrative quickly connects us to the author's True Love for the American desert lands; indeed the desert is his mistress in particular Death Valley National Park. Then the whimsical adventure travels to Europe to Paris and Berlin but also elsewhere along the way, always with a keen interest and focus on thought-provoking matters of history. All three books have the words in their titles: thy Death Valley House for Beatty Nevada. It is the artist's legacy objective to build this house in the small historic mining town certified as the Gateway to Death Valley called Beatty. Given the author's decades of experience in Death Valley as a professional landscape photographer, his very long Chapter Six dramatically profiling the 1960s Charles Manson hippie cult.

in Death Valley Country is something whereby Dr Blahnik has been duly authorized to make the claim with confidence No one can tell this story of Charles Manson in Death Valley in the manner that I have Furthermore it is decidedly engaging and indeed surprising to observe the extent to which the history of some members of the cult serves as a foil to the author's character Imagine that It's My Story - I'll Tell It My Way James M. Wahl,2010-12-20 My Story is a reflection on the events of my life from my birth in 1926 until my marriage in 1949 at the age of 23 My experiences in growing up on a poor hilly farm without electricity or inside plumbing during the depression years of the 1930s then the difficult war years of the early 1940s followed by the growing prosperity after WW II all helped to shape the kind of person that I wished to become These events helped me to progressively establish three main goals for my life Build a meaningful relationship with my Creator get a worthwhile education and find a Special Girl to share my life In those 23 years I accomplish two of my goals The one remaining goal my first and oldest objective was still a work in progress at the end of My Story My efforts to find an acceptable way of worshipping my God would not be realized until a few more years had passed I had also determined that my Special Girl and I would reach this goal together If time allows I will complete that account in Our Story All the Way in the near future My initial purpose in writing this account has been to preserve that heritage for my two sons Steve and Jeff and for their families If My Story proves to be of any interest to others so much the better Jim Wahl text should be Amazon BT for Jim Wahl

A Thousand Shall Fall Murray Peden,2003-04-01 One of the finest war memoirs ever written During World War II Canada trained tens of thousands of airmen under the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan Those selected for Bomber Command operations went on to rain devastation upon the Third Reich in the great air battles over Europe but their losses were high German fighters and anti aircraft guns took a terrifying toll The chances of surviving a tour of duty as a bomber crew were almost nil Murray Peden's story of his training in Canada and England and his crew's operations on Stirlings and Flying Fortresses with 214 Squadron has been hailed as a classic of war literature It is a fine blend of the excitement humour and tragedy of that eventful era

The Last Best of All Times Robert A. Semenza, 2007

Robert Semenza has always considered himself fortunate to have been brought up in what may have been in his mind the last best of all times an era that spanned only a little more than a decade and a half from the early forties to the midfifties from World War II to the Korean police action from FDR to Harry the buck stops here Truman to Ike He was even more blessed to be raised in an environment where he was surrounded by a wealth of love and warmth from our parents and a seemingly unlimited number of relatives and piasians however the adults in our lives were there only when we needed them sort of a Charlie Brown type of existence but without his anxiety He felt that all his wonderful memories would be lost forever and wanted to preserve them for the generations to follow His tale is told in a self effacing way and from the perspective of a young boy being raised in the West a neighborhood in New Rochelle New York of Italians and colored people you never called them blacks or African Americans unless you were prepared for a fight and the rest of civilization referred to simply as the Americans It tells of his Tom Sawyer Huck Finn type of youthful adventures and mishaps centered around a cast of colorful and unforgettable characters that roamed the streets of the West from the likes of the Goat Man who would proudly parade his goats down Union Avenue and whose route was undeniably marked by a trail of small round soft black pellets which the goats expelled as they merrily strolled to their noonday repast presumably to make more pellets to the Iron Horse to Louie Chicken Breast and to a whole host of other characters As he explains they were just there and accepted as they were except that they like everyone else in the neighborhood had a nickname which was generally linked to their physical appearance which in each case was obvious He has attempted the impossible task of trying to list all of these nicknames his nickname was Chesty the reader will learn why His personal memories transport the reader back to that time and to his boyish recollections of his family the school the church the Boys Club the games they invented and the special joys brought by each season of the year www.readerscircle.org
