Utah Historians and the Reconstruction of Western History Gary Topping,2003 Among historians of Utah and the American West few names have greater resonance than Bernard DeVoto Dale Morgan Juanita Brooks Wallace Stegner and Fawn Brodie Each of these writers made enduring contributions not only to our knowledge of the American West but also to our view of the region and its history In many ways

their writing set the standard for scholarship and interpretation and their influence is still felt today Yet they were not flawless As Gary Topping explains in this the first comprehensive appraisal of their work each had serious shortcomings DeVoto and Stegner master storytellers distorted their histories with excessive use of literary and artistic techniques Morgan the thorough researcher failed to see larger contexts and interpretive possibilities Brooks courageous in finding damning new information on the Mountain Meadows massacre stopped short of drawing conclusions that might alienate her from her fellow Mormons and Brodie psychobiographer extraordinaire nonetheless succumbed to reading too much into the lives of her subjects based on her own emotions and conflicts All five writers experienced Mormon Utah in the formative stages of their lives and whether they wanted to or not fashioned their work on the American West under that indelible influence Topping shows ultimately how despite weaknesses each created exemplary models of diligent research and narrative elegance while establishing new traditions in western historical scholarship

The Cinema of Lars Von Trier Caroline Bainbridge, 2007 Lars von Trier is the most controversial figure of contemporary European cinema This volume is the first book to analyse in depth the changes he has brought to modern film Since founding the back to basics Dogme philosophy of filmmaking in 1995 von Trier's name has become a by word for taboo breaking cinema As a director he has courted media controversy through films such as The Idiots 1998 with its unsimulated sex and non conformist politics and through his complex relationships with actresses such as Björk and Nicole Kidman from whom he coaxed career best performances in Dancer in the Dark 2000 and Dogville 2003 respectively Analysing these films as well as recent works such as The Five Obstructions 2004 from a psychoanalytic perspective it forges a new understanding of the founder of Dogme 95 as a great democratizer of cinema in the digital age presenting von Trier as one of the most daring cinematic exponents of postmodern politics and satire practical nature covering the art of drilling holes in the ground especially for water Some rather lengthy tomes are and have been available over the years which have been pretty well incomprehensible to the average field man or indeed those responsible for the administration of field operations Most of those books have been written by people with peripheral disciplines to the industry thus haven't had the field experience to really get hold of the heart of the matter Drilling for Water 2 has been written to be understandable to field personnel and in their own terms Everything in it is based on considerable field experience Following the publication of Drilling for Water many accolades were forthcoming such as packed with information my bible most welcome a breath of fresh air couldn't put it down etc
