The Repressed Expressed Ndi, Bill F., Ankuma, Adaku T., 2017-01-17 Through multiple points of resistance The Repressed Expressed underscores how hard it is to build a community in any nation with no beneficial qualities of hope and transparency This informative collection of essays highlights that wherever stability and order are lacking the universal appeal is to express that which is suppressed Also like a map or guidebook The Repressed Expressed indicates how people in such geographical prisons strive to transform their agitation into spiritual and political pathways free of pain and hurt from and anger towards a dirty and corrupted world It thus underpins discord and brings to the fore the authority s penchant for heaping abuse upon those caused to live in fear In short The Repressed Expressed is an impressive compilation of literary evidence informing scholarship on opinions and beliefs relating to repression its expression and the immeasurable associated cost

Critical Perspectives on the Theory and Practice of Translating Camfranglais Literature Vakunta, Peter Wuteh, 2016-04-30 This study teases out the nexus between text typologies and translational paradigms Camfranglais fictional works are not canonical texts rather they find a niche in the corpus of peripheral ethnographic texts that require an interpretive approach to translational practice Translators of Camfranglais literature cannot but be like the texts they translate at once multilingual and multicultural Given the Polytonal and multilingual composition of Camfranglais literary texts the onus rests with translators charged with the onerous task of bridging communicative gaps to conceive models that are germane to the translation of these multi coded texts and Betrayals Ndi, Bill F., 2015-08-06 Secrets Silences and Betrayals is an invitation to readers to consider factoring in the often discarded or censored but useful information held by the dominated. The book's principal claim is that the unsaid weighs in significantly on the scale of semantic construction as that which is said. Thus it legitimates the impact of the absentee in broadening and clarifying knowledge and understanding in most disciplines. In other words, just as exogenous epistemologies have underlain and explicated the basis for understanding diverse encounters, social, political, historical, cultural, literary, etc. Secrets Silences and Betrayals challenges from a pluridisciplinary angle such highly dominant approaches to investigating the origin, nature, ways of knowing, and limits of human knowledge. It thus yields to the deontological basis to critically reexamine our understanding of the world around us. It is in this regard that the present volume points towards the need for human history to become a cumulative record and re-recording of every human journey and endeavor in life; it brings together disparate voices illuminating topical issues that would be or have been legated to posterity as nonexistent, partial, or half truths. Living (In)Dependence Bill F. Ndi, Benjamin Hart Fishkin, Adaku T.

Ankumah, 2024-11-29 Living In Dependence: Critical Perspectives on Global Interdependence embraces a multidisciplinary approach to the interconnectedness of independence and dependence in every ramification of the words. These scholars and academics from different disciplinary areas examine independence, which rhetoric is aimed at legitimizing nationalist and isolationist positions and with exclusionists clamoring for walls separating people who supposedly live in a global village. Living In Dependence: Critical Perspectives on Global Interdependence is a timely reminder, especially when the world is at cross purposes with generation-old alliances falling apart like the Berlin Wall that less than 30 years ago fell to mark an end to sadness and separation that same engendered from 1949-1989. In short, this study explores the binary of life experience of independence and that of dependence as constituent flip sides of a coin whose meaning can only be grasped by taking a closer look at each facet. Gendered Violence and Human Rights in Black World Literature and Film Naomi

Nkealah, Obioma Nnaemeka, 2021-03-30 This book investigates how the intersection between gendered violence and human rights is depicted and engaged with in African literature and films. The rich and multifarious range of film and literature emanating from Africa and the diaspora provides a fascinating lens through which we can understand the complex consequences of gendered violence on the lives of women, children, and minorities. Contributors to this volume examine the many ways in which gendered violence mirrors, expresses, projects, and articulates the larger phenomenon of human rights violations in Africa and the African diaspora and how in turn the discourse of human rights informs the ways in which we articulate, interrogate, conceptualise, and interpret gendered violence in literature and film. The book also shines a light on the linguistic contradictions and ambiguities in the articulation of gendered violence in private spaces and war. This book will be essential reading for scholars, critics, feminists, teachers, and students seeking solid grounding in exploring gendered violence and human rights in theory and practice. Routledge Handbook of Minority Discourses in African Literature Tanure

Ojaide, Joyce Ashuntantang, 2020-04-29 This handbook provides a critical overview of literature dealing with groups of people or regions that suffer marginalization within Africa The contributors examine a multiplicity of minority discourses expressed in African literature including those who are culturally socially politically religiously economically and sexually marginalized in literary and artistic creations Chapters and sections of the book are structured to identify major areas of minority articulation of their condition and strategies deployed against the repression persecution oppression suppression domination and tyranny of the majority or dominant group Bringing together diverse perspectives to give a holistic representation of the African reality this handbook is an important read for scholars and students of comparative and postcolonial literature and African studies      French XX Bibliography, issue #67 Sheri K. Dion, Alisa Belanger, 2016-09-30 The annual French XX Bibliography provides the most complete listing available of books articles and book reviews concerned with French literature since 1885      Literature After Globalization Philip Leonard, 2013 Literature after Globalization offers a detailed study of recent literary and theoretical responses to technology globalization and national identity Focusing on texts of the the 1990s and 2000s particularly novels and other writing by Mark Danielewski Hari Kunzru Indra Sinha and Neal Stephenson it charts a departure from narratives of globalization which declare the collapse of national cultures and it considers how national sovereignty has been reinvented and reasserted in the face of technology s transnational effects Drawing upon recent theoretical responses to technology and culture including work by Yochai Benkler Manuel Castells Gilles Deleuze Jacques Derrida N Katherine Hayles Paul Virilio and McKenzie Wark this book will explore how in these novels the notion of an inclusive globalization has been replaced by a sense of national globalism Bloomsbury Publishing
