Research and Practice in Multiple Criteria Decision Making Yacov Y. Haimes,Ralph E. Steuer,2012-12-06 During the past two decades the consideration of multiple objectives in modeling and decision making has grown by leaps and bounds The nineties in particular have seen the emphasis shift from the dominance of single objective modeling and optimization toward an emphasis on multiple objectives The proceedings of this Conference epitomize these evolutionary changes and contribute to the important role that the field of multiple criteria decision making MCDM now plays in planning design operational management and policy decisions Of special interest are the contributions of MCDM to manufacturing engineering For example it has recently been recognized that optimal single objective solutions have often been pursued at the expense of the much broader applicability of designs and solutions that satisfy multiple objectives In particular the theme MCDM and Its Worldwide Role in Risk Based Decision Making of the XIVth International Conference on Multiple Criteria Decision Making Charlottesville Virginia USA June 8 12 1998 represents the growing importance of risk cost benefit analysis in decision making and in engineering design and manufacturing In such systems minimizing the of rare and extreme events emerges as an essential objective that risk complements the minimization of the traditional expected value of risk along with the objectives attached to cost and performance These proceedings include forty five papers that were presented at the Conference A variety of techniques have been proposed for solving multiple criteria decision making problems The emphasis and style of the different techniques largely reflect the fields of expertise of their developers Advances in Modern Tourism Research Álvaro Matias, Peter Nijkamp, Paulo Neto, 2007-06-27 Modern Advances in Tourism Research provides a thorough assessment of state of the art academic research in this field of economic science The authors start by scoping the scene of tourism research They progress to a comprehensive analysis of themes of particular interest for researchers and academics interested in the workings of the tourism markets such as new analysis frameworks in tourism economics and new operational tools in tourism research Transforming Strategic Decision-making through Finance Business Partnering

Jimoh K. Ololade, Xihui Haviour Chen, Victor Chang, 2024-09-09 This book addresses a significant research gap by delving into the Finance Business Partnering FBP model within the not for profit sector of the Gulf countries with a specific emphasis on Qatar Foundation While an extensive body of literature explores the FBP model in developed nations there exists a notable dearth of research in the Middle East and third world countries The book aims to rectify this imbalance by offering practical insights derived from Qatar Foundation showcasing the advantages of adopting the FBP model It goes beyond theoretical frameworks presenting in depth data analysis that substantiates the pivotal role of FBPs in supporting effective decision making processes By delving into essential concepts such as change management contingency theory and organizational culture the book provides a comprehensive understanding of the factors influencing the successful adoption and implementation of the FBP model Notably it introduces practical examples and real world applications to underscore the model s efficacy making it a valuable resource for both scholars and practitioners in the fields of management and financial accounting Attitudinal Decision Making in the Supreme Court of Canada C. L. Ostberg, Matthew E.

Wetstein, 2011-11-01 This book provides a comprehensive exploration of ideological patterns of judicial behaviour in the Supreme Court of Canada Relying on an expansive database of Canadian Supreme Court rulings between 1984 and 2003 the authors present the most systematic discussion of the attitudinal model of decision making ever conducted outside the setting of the US Supreme Court The groundbreaking discussion of the viability of this model as a unifying theory of judicial behaviour in high courts around the world will be essential reading for a wide range of legal scholars and court watchers
