

Qualities of a Good Teacher Essay Example

Teachers play an important part in training children, teenagers... So, a good teacher must have some special qualities. They are: knowledge, creation, confidence, empathy, sense of humor and passion. Imagine you are dreaming being a teacher, you must accept that there are no doubt that knowledge is the first quality of a good teacher. A good teacher need to enlarge his/her general knowledge on culture, society, biology, geography... to provide students what they want to know.

Beside, a good teacher must be a person who are open to change. He/she must know "the only real constant in life is change". There is a place not only for tradition but also for new ways, new ideas and new methods. To be a good teacher, he/she is willing to learn from other peers and from his/her students. A good teacher need to know that his/her student are visual, auditory and kinesthetic learners. He/she are adept at creating presentation skills for many kind of learners. If a teacher can do these thing, he/she will get more respect from his/her students.

Creation perhaps is the second quality. A good teacher is a person who are able to motivate students by using creative and inspirational methods of teaching. He/she must always seek to find new ideas. He/she not only teaches in a traditional way but also find another way to transfer the lessons. A good teacher need to find many kind of teaching method such as: using mass media, preparing presentation slide show on computer; transferring knowledge through games... Being a creative teacher will make students enjoy classes because they know there are many new and interesting things in your lessons.

Another quality that a good teacher should have is confidence. He/she must believe in his/herself despite setbacks. "Failure Is The Mother Of Success". Teachers is a hard work. Sometime he/she will feel stressful, tired and disappointed, but after that, he/she need to be strong to face with setbacks. Students can be naughty, lazy and harsh to their friends and to their teachers. However, a good teacher need to believe that he/she can solve those problems. A teacher is a window through which many young people will see their future, so he/she has to be a fine role model.

He/she need to show his/her confidence with the future, thereby teacher can teach student how to believe in themselves. Empathy is the third quality. A teacher must have the ability to bond with the students, to understand and resonate with their feelings and emotions. He/she need to put his/herself in students' situation to understand and solve students' problem. A good teacher must know that the aggression, negative attitudes that he/she can see in some students have a root cause.

He/she know that they are really scared young people who have come through some bad experiences in life. This will keep a teacher calm and ha

Teacher Supply and Teacher Quality Gerald Rupert Grace, Martin Lawn, 1991 When Sir Claus Moser said in his Presidential Address to the British Association 1990 that central to all school problems is the state of the teaching profession he was expressing a widely held view The decade of the 1980s in many English speaking countries has done little to improve the morale and work conditions of teachers in publicly provided education The gap between the public rhetoric which acknowledge the importance of teachers and the realities which teachers experience remains very great With reference to England and Wales this timely and critically stimulating book examines the issues which have to be addressed in the 1990s It provides an agenda for educational policies and practices which take seriously the importance of teachers as key agents for realizing equal educational opportunities for all Teachers, Teaching, and Media , 2019-06-24 Popular representations of teachers and teaching are easy to take for granted precisely because they are so accessible and pervasive Our lives are intertextual in the way lived experiences overlap with the stories of others presented to us through mass media It is this set of connected narratives that we bring into classrooms and into discussions of educational policy In this day and time with public education under siege by forces eager to deprofessionalize teaching and transfer public funds to benefit private enterprises we ignore the dominant discourse about education and the patterns of representation that typify educator characters at our peril This edited volume offers a fresh take on educator characters in popular culture and also includes important essays about media texts that have not been addressed adequately in the literature previously The 15 chapters cover diverse forms from literary classics to iconic teacher movies to popular television to rock n roll Topics explored include pedagogy through the lenses of gender sexuality race disability politics narrative archetypes curriculum teaching strategies and liberatory praxis The various perspectives represented in this volume come from scholars and practitioners of education at all levels of schooling This book is especially timely in an era when public education in the United States is under assault from conservative political forces and undervalued by the general public Contributors are Steve Benton Naeemah Clark Kristy Liles Crawley Elizabeth Currin Mary M Dalton Jill Ewing Flynn Chad E Harris Gary Kenton Mark A Lewis Ian Parker Renga Stephanie Schroeder Roslin Smith Jeff Spanke and Andrew Wirth Effective Schools Dennis M. McInerney, Martin Dowson, Shawn Van Etten, 2006-04-01 Students arrive in our classrooms with complex sociocultural histories that include family cultural physical social emotional and prior learning experiences In order to be effective schools must directly address these complex histories in meaningful relevant and creative ways The aim of this volume is to examine research on effective schooling from a sociocultural perspective with a focus on developing the capacities of diverse students in diverse educational contexts The chapters in this volume cover a wide range of important topics as listed below Research in Education ,1969-12 Resources in Education ,1979 Teacher Identity Discourses Janet Alsup, 2006-08-15 Addresses the various types of discourse within the process of professional identity development This work emphasizes that the intersection of the personal and professional in teacher identity formation is more complex and accents the need for teacher educators to take steps to facilitate such integration The Elementary School Teacher Dorothy G.
